PHOTOGRAPHY PROVIDED BY Peter Aiken, Dan Donnert and John La Barge of KSU Photographic Services, Donna Logback of the Manhattan Chamber of Commerce, LeRoy Burke, George McCandless, Darren Whitley, the University of Kentucky, Leon "Red" Skelton, University Commons apartments and the KSU Sports Information Archives.

THE COVERS feature some of the hardware from K-State's success under head coach Bill Snyder. On the front cover are some of the trophies from K-State's six consecutive bowl appearances in addition to the 1998 Big 12 North Division Championship trophy. On the back cover is a view of KSU Stadium at sunset in addition to pictures of the team co-captains and views of the Manhattan area. The picture on the front cover was taken by LeRoy Burke and the back cover photo was taken by Rick Anderson. To order an 18" x 24" poster of the "Wagner Field" picture for just $16, contact Rick Anderson Enterprises at 402/778-9829 or check out his web site at: www.rickanderson.com.

Covering The Wildcats

WEEKLY MEDIA CONFERENCES

Bill Snyder's weekly media conferences will be held each Tuesday afternoon in the Big Eight Room of the Vanier Football Complex. Lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m., with Snyder addressing the media at 1 p.m., followed by selected players at 1:30 p.m. To request players for the weekly conference, media should contact the sports information office by noon each preceding Monday at 785/532-6735. If a player has a class conflict, an alternate time will be arranged. Out of town media wishing to interview Kansas State players should also contact the sports information office by noon Monday to arrange for players to call them between 1:30-2 p.m. CT, each Tuesday.

SNYDER AVAILABILITY

Kansas State coach Bill Snyder is available to the media several times during a game week. He is available each Monday on the Big 12 Conference's weekly teleconference and each Tuesday at the weekly teleconference. Out of town media also may contact Snyder by phone each Wednesday from 7-7:30 p.m. at 785/532-5878. Contact K-State SID Kent Brown to schedule a time during that period.

KSU PRACTICES

Photographers and videographers from recognized media outlets may shoot K-State practices each Tuesday from 4-4:30 p.m. Please contact SID Kent Brown on Monday if you plan to attend the Tuesday practice. All other practices are closed to the public and media.

GAMEDAY MEDIA SERVICES

Packets including statistics, pregame notes, flip cards and programs will be available for media in the press box prior to the game. Quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play and postgame quotes from coaches and players of both teams also will be provided. A pregame meal will be available 90 minutes before kickoff on game days with refreshments available at halftime. Soft drinks, coffee and milk also will be available. All statistics will be posted on the K-State Athletics web site and fax-on-demand service shortly after the conclusion of the game.

POSTGAME POLICY

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media in the press box will be asked to submit a list of player requests to sports information director Kent Brown at the start of the fourth quarter. Requested players will be available in a designated interview area on the second floor of the Vanier Complex following Coach Bill Snyder's postgame press conference. Those interested in audio-taping grouped interviews should connect their recorders to the distribution amplifier (multibox) provided. Output from the device is microphone level, terminated in 1/80 two-conductor plugs and jacks, or three-pin standard microphone male connectors.

The visiting SID will lead media to the visitor's interview area, located outside the visitor's locker room, or in case of inclement weather, in the basement of the Vanier Complex.

PRESS PARKING

Press parking will be provided upon request as available. Press parking for visiting media will be in the VIP parking lot on the East side (opposite Press Box) of KSU Stadium. Entrance to the East VIP parking lot is through Gate 8 off Kimball Avenue.

SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE

The K-State Sports Information Office is located in Suite 144 of Bramlage Coliseum. Office hours during the football season are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday. The office phone number is 785/532-6735. The mailing address is:

KSU Sports Information Office
Suite 144 Bramlage Coliseum
1800 College Avenue
Manhattan, KS 66502

TELEPHONE/FAX

A limited number of telephones are located on press row, and four phones near the sports information work room will be available for filing after the game on a first-come, first-serve basis. All media wishing to have phone lines installed in the press box will be responsible for making their own arrangements. Phones may be ordered from KSU Telecommunications Office at 785/532-7001. Give the following address to telephone service personnel when requesting phone line installation: KSU Stadium Press Box - 1700 Kimball Avenue. Pay phones also are available at the back of the press box. The KSU Stadium press box phone number is 785/539-3423.

Media wishing to have final statistics faxed to their papers may do so by contacting a representative of the sports information office. However, it is recommended that the Fax-on-Demand service be used following the game to retrieve statistics. The final stat package will be sent to the Info Connection Fax-on-Demand system immediately after the game. To access the information, instruct your desk to call 1-800-300-2050, use 1212 as the passcode, and the request number is 1314. Statistics will also be posted on the K-State Athletics web site immediately following the game.

WORLD WIDE WEB SERVICES

Kansas State weekly football releases will be updated on the Wildcats Web Page Sunday evenings during the season. Game notes, statistics, a depth chart and a preview of the next opponent all will be available. Direct your browser to www.k-statesports.com for football releases. Live radio broadcasts also may be heard via the web site. The Official Big 12 Conference web site is: www.big12sports.com

TELEVISION HIGHLIGHTS

Upon request, K-State will provide highlight packages for television sports. It is requested that stations provide blank beta tapes for their highlight packages. To ensure prompt mailings, it is advisable for stations to provide tapes beforehand to KSU. For arrangements, contact Norm Burge, Television Specialist, 1800 College Avenue, Bramlage Coliseum, Manhattan, KS 66502. The phone number is 785/532-2701.

K-State will provide a short highlight satellite uplink following non-televised home games. Contact the K-State Sports Information Office for more information.

DEV NELSON PRESS BOX ENTRANCE TO THE PRESS BOX

Enter the press box via the press box elevator located inside the entrance to the press box on the west side of KSU Stadium. The elevators will go to all levels of the press box. Credentials which are not mailed may be picked up at the Will Call window of the ticket booth on the west side of the stadium. No parking passes will be left at the Will Call window. The Will Call window opens two hours before kickoff. Persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.

The Dev Nelson Press Box has 21 sky suites and seating for more than 100 on the main press level.

Media Information

PRESS BOX LEVELS

There are four levels to the Dev Nelson Press Box: 2 & 3) Private Suites; 4) Working Press Deck (print media, home & visiting radio networks, home & visiting coaches' booths, opposing athletics director booth); and 5) Photo Deck (includes TV booth, additional radio spots, coaches' video, media overflow).

VISITING RADIO STATIONS

To inquire about using existing radio courtesy lines, visiting radio stations should contact Ed O'Donnell, Executive Producer of the Wildcat Radio Network. He may be reached at WIBW-AM in Topeka (785/272-3456). Only those stations recognized as the official originator for the visiting team will be afforded broadcast facilities.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Requests should be received by the Kansas State sports information office no later than five days prior to the game. All written requests should be made on official letterhead and addressed to: Kent Brown, Sports Information Director, 144 Bramlage Coliseum, 1800 College Avenue, Manhattan, KS 66502-3355. Requests may be faxed to the sports information office at 785/532-6093. Because of mail service, media passes will not be mailed in some instances. If this is the case, the passes may be picked up at the Will Call window located on the west side of KSU Stadium. Media credentials are issued on a priority basis with daily newspapers, originating radio and television stations and television video crews receiving top priority. Admission to the press box is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State press credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses and children will not be allowed in this area.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those accredited photographers on assignment will be issued sideline credentials. In accordance with NCAA rules, no freelance photographers will be admitted to the sidelines or press box photo deck. All photographers must have an armband (which may be obtained in the press box on game day) and a photographer's pass to shoot from KSU Stadium. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines (the team areas).

WEB SITES

Media credentials are issued only for individuals who are affiliated with web sites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN SportsZone, CNN/SI, CBS SportsLine, etc., for institutions what are conference members and non-conference opponents, and for the Big 12 Conference. Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose web site is not affiliated with an official news gathering organization.

Covering The Wildcats

MEDIA MEALS

Prior to each game, a pregame meal is served on the Press Level (4th Floor) of the Dev Nelson Press Box. Media Meal sponsors in 1999 include Pizza Hut (Temple), the Kansas Soybean Association (UTEP), the Kansas Pork Council (Kansas), the Kansas Sheep Council (Utah State), the Kansas Poultry Association (Baylor), Flint Hills Foods (Colorado) and Carlos O'Kelly's (Missouri). Milk and dairy products are provided by Hiland/Steffan Dairy of Manhattan. Meal service is provided by Derby Dining Service.

ROAD-GAME CREDENTIALS

Media credential requests for K-State road games should be addressed to the sports information director of the host institution. Be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID telephone numbers are listed in the "Opponents" section of this media guide.

FAX-ON-DEMAND

For the seventh year, Kansas State joins other Big 12 schools as a member of a conference-wide fax-back system, Infoconnection Fax-On-Demand. This system allows interested media members to call directly and have releases, notes, stats, depth charts, etc., faxed to their machine. There is no charge for the receiver, other than the normal cost of a long distance call.

A new service provided by Pivotal Communications in 1999 is MediaTeamLink. As soon as a release is updated on Fax-on-Demand, it will automatically be emailed to you. This service is free to the media. To sign up for MediaTeamLink, contact www.mediateamlink.com and follow the simple instructions.

To access the fax-on-demand system, call 770/563-1131 and enter the Big 12 code (1212).

BIG 12 SATELLITE FEED

Kansas State football highlights also are available on the weekly Big 12 satellite feed. The package, done with the cooperation of Nebraska Educational Telecommunications Commission, includes game action footage, player and coach interviews and features provided by league institutions. To access the weekly satellite series, contact the Big 12 Service Bureau at 214/742-1212 or K-State SID Kent Brown at 785/532-6735.

The first 15 minutes of Bill Snyder's weekly press conference is available via satellite each Tuesday. Contact the KSU Sports Information Office for coordinate information.

CAT CHAT

WIBW (580 AM, Topeka) and selected affiliates on the Wildcat Sports Network will carry Cat Chat, a live call-in show with KSU head coach Bill Snyder each Thursday during the season. The show enters its 11th season and will be hosted by the Voice of the Wildcats, Greg Sharpe. Cat Chat is open to the public and originates from the Big Eight Room of the Vanier Football Complex Thursday evenings from 7-8 p.m. during the season.

BILL SNYDER TELEVISION SHOW

The weekly Bill Snyder Television Show can be seen throughout the state each Sunday morning during the season (KAKE-Wichita Noon, WIBW-Topeka 10:30 pm, KMCI-Kansas City Noon). The half-hour program, hosted by Greg Sharpe and produced by Kansas State video specialist Norm Burge, features head coach Bill Snyder, features on players and coaches, highlights and a preview of each upcoming game.

WEEKLY COACHES BRIEFING

The Big 12 Conference hosts individual media teleconferences with each Big 12 head coach. The briefings are conducted each Monday from the league headquarters in Dallas, Texas. Contact Service Bureau Director Bo Carter at 214/742-1212 for details on participating in the teleconference. The teleconferences will be held each Monday from Aug. 23 - Dec. 6.

1999 Wildcat Radio Network enters 20th season

The Wildcat Radio Network, consisting of more than 40 affiliates, is the largest collegiate sports network in the state of Kansas and has been in existence since 1980. The network is the property of Morris Communications of Topeka and is flagshipged by WIBW (580 AM, Topeka).

Greg Sharpe is in his fourth year as the "Voice of the Wildcats," although he also served as color analyst on KSU basketball games during the 1989 and '96 seasons. He is no stranger to the regional sports scene, having done both radio and television duty for WIBW and KSNT-TV in Topeka the last 14 years. A 1986 Kansas State graduate and native of Olathe, Kan., Sharpe first worked with the Wildcat Network in 1985 and later became the sideline reporter in 1987. He is married to Amy Lietz, a 1994 K-State graduate and news anchor at KSNT-TV.

Former KSU quarterback Stan Weber is in his 13th year in the booth as the Wildcat expert analyst. Originally from Goddard, Kan., Weber earned Academic All-America honors in 1984 by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and won three letters while at K-State from 1980-84.

Sideline reporter Greg Akagi is in his fourth year on the network, while executive producer and engineer of the network, Ed O'Donnell, is in his 38th year with WIBW. O'Donnell, who joined the network in 1970, also serves as the radio voice on Kansas State women's basketball games. His hometown is Kansas City.

K-State Sports Information Staff

SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR
KENT BROWN
(Illinois '87)

Kent Brown is in his fourth year at Kansas State after being named sports information director in July 1996. He oversees sports information activities for all 15 Wildcat athletic teams and is the primary contact for Wildcat football.

Brown, 36, spent the previous 10 years at the University of Illinois, where he earned a bachelor's degree in journalism in 1987 and a master's degree in sports management in 1989. While at Illinois, Brown also worked at campus radio station WPGU as a sports reporter.

A native of Hammond, Ill., Brown spent seven years at Illinois as an assistant sports information director, working with all of the Illini athletic programs, and specifically, coordinating sports information duties for men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, track and field, men's golf and gymnastics during his tenure.

He began his career in athletic media relations as a student assistant in 1986-87 working for former UI SID Tab Bennett, then as a graduate assistant (1987-89) and as assistant SID (1989-96) under Mike Pearson.

Brown is an active member of CoSIDA and holds memberships with the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA).

Brown, whose family includes wife Robin, daughter Nicholle, son Ty and Golden Retriever Jordan, resides in Manhattan.

ASSISTANT SID
CRAIG PINKERTON
(K-State '94)

Craig Pinkerton is in his second year as assistant sports information director at Kansas State. The 28-year-old Pinkerton is the media contact for the men's basketball program, the primary assistant for football and oversees the men's golf team.

Pinkerton returned to Manhattan after spending four years at the University of Kansas including the last three of which he was assistant sports information director. While at KU, Pinkerton was directly responsible for the publicity of baseball, volleyball and swimming & diving. Several of his publications were cited for excellence by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Pinkerton served as assistant media coordinator at the 1997 men's basketball regional in Kansas City. For three years he was the statistic crew coordinator at the Big Eight/12 Men's Basketball Tournaments. He has also served on the media relations staff at the 1998 FedEx Orange Bowl and was the official scorer at the 1998 Women's College World Series.

A 1994 Kansas State graduate, Pinkerton worked in the K-State sports information office for three semesters. He was also a sports information assistant at the University of Tennessee where he worked with the Volunteer baseball team and helped in the promotion of football.

An active member of CoSIDA, U.S. Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) and National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), Pinkerton resides in Manhattan.

ASSISTANT SID
RHONDA LUNDIN
(Northwestern '96)

Rhonda Lundin enters her second year as assistant sports information director at Kansas State. A 1996 graduate of Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism, Lundin is responsible for the publicity of women's basketball and women's golf. In addition, she acts as K-State's SID publications liaison, academic awards coordinator and football game program editor.

Prior to Kansas State, Lundin, 25, spent two years as a media relations intern in the men's athletics department at the University of Minnesota. She served as an assistant to the director of publications and was the SID for wrestling, baseball and men's gymnastics. Lundin also served as the primary assistant with the Golden Gopher men's basketball team, which made its first trip to the NCAA Final Four in 1997. Several of her publications have been cited for excellence by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

A native of Hillsboro, Ore., Lundin began her career in sports information at Northwestern University where she worked in the media services office for two years. She joined the Northwestern staff after spending two years as a reporter and copy editor at the Daily Northwestern, NU's student newspaper, and holding internships at the San Bernardino (Calif.) Sun and Community Newspapers, a chain of weekly newspapers in the Portland, Ore., area.

An active member of CoSIDA and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association, Lundin resides in Manhattan.

ASSISTANT SID TOM GILBERT
(Furman '98)

Tom Gilbert is in his first year as a member of the K-State Sports Information Office. A 1998 graduate of Furman University, Gilbert works with K-State's baseball and volleyball teams.

Before joining the K-State staff in July, 1999, Gilbert spent one year working as a full-time intern in the University of Kansas Sports Information Office. There he assisted with the basketball and football teams and was directly responsible for the men's and women's track and field programs. He served as the media coordinator at the 1998 NCAA Division I and II Cross Country Championships in Lawrence, Kan.

Gilbert spent two years working as a student assistant in the Furman SID office where he worked with the Paladin's softball and volleyball teams. While attending Furman he also was a staff writer for the student newspaper, The Paladin, and worked in the Sports Marketing Office of the athletic department.

A native of Bostwick, Ga., Gilbert is an active member of CoSIDA and the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA).

SID ASSISTANT MICHELLE SOLT
(Azusa Pacific '99)

Entering her first year as a member of the K-State Sports Information Office is Michelle Solt. A 1999 graduate of Azusa Pacific University where she graduated Magna Cum Laude while double majoring in English and Communication with a journalism emphasis.

The Napa, Calif., native spent two seasons as a member of Azusa's tennis team where she played at No. 4 singles. In 1998 she became the first NAIA All-American Scholar Athlete in Azusa Pacific women's tennis history.

She spent three years as a student intern in the Azusa Pacific SID office and was a copy editor and sports writer for the student newspaper. She has been a member of the media relations staffs at the 1998 NAIA Football Championship series and at the 1999 NCAA Women's Basketball West Regional in Palo Alto, Calif.

INTERNET COORDINATOR
ANDY BARTLETT
(K-State '95)

Andy Bartlett is entering his sixth year with the K-State Sports Information Office and his first as full-time Internet Coordinator.

Bartlett served one year as a student volunteer and two years as a graduate intern prior to his appointment as full-time Assistant SID in 1997.

Bartlett is responsible for the design, development and maintenance of K-State's official athletics department web site, k-statesports.com. The web site is one of the largest department-operated college athletics web sites in the nation.

Bartlett spent two years overseeing K-State's nationally prominent volleyball squad and its baseball team from 1998-99 and also has served as SID for women's basketball, rowing and tennis.

Bartlett, 27, has been a resident of Manhattan since 1986. He graduated from Kansas State University with a bachelor's degree in mass communications in May of 1995. Bartlett is married to the former Laurel Hovell, a 1996 K-State grad. The couple has a daughter, Megan Lynn, born Nov. 26, 1997.

The Big 12 Conference

Big 12 Conference Sportsmanship Statement

The member institutions of the Big 12 Conference are committed to competition in an arena where sportsmanship and the sense of fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, within the community or in the classroom, those who make up the Big 12 – its administrators, coaches, game officials, and student-athletes – support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

At the heart of sportsmanship is the commitment of the institutions towards respect for the opposition and those contests in the 21 sports sponsored by the Big 12. It is with a sense of fair play that a true sporting demeanor in the spirit of intercollegiate competition can be created and maintained with a total regard for the welfare of student-athletes, coaches, support personnel and spectators.

Sportsmanship on the field of play is governed by Conference rules and guidelines, as well as those established under the NCAA and amateur organizations. It is the responsibility of game officials and administrators to see to strict adherence to these guidelines. The behavior of spectators is managed by event personnel, who are encouraged to deal with interference or abuse of appropriate sporting behavior in the strictest of methods.

The Big 12 Conference and its member institutions appreciate the support of the majority of fans who wish to create an atmosphere of competition that allows the participants to showcase the game and their respective skills.

Big 12 Conference History: Creating a Legacy

One of the nation's most prolific conferences, the Big 12 maintains its leadership role in academic, student life, competition, sportsmanship, and compliance areas within the NCAA framework.

Dedicated to achieving the highest goals in the integration of academic and athletic endeavors, Baylor, Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech combined forces on February 25, 1994, and forged the Big 12 Conference, one of the most powerful alliances in NCAA Division I competition to date.

Individually, member schools have long been respected for successes both in its classrooms and its stadiums. In all, conference institutions have received numerous accolades for the quality of academic resources, programs and services offered to students.

Athletically, Big 12 teams have accounted for almost 160 (157 through May, 1999) national team championships-141 NCAA and 16 wire service football titles—while its student-athletes have claimed more than 800 NCAA crowns entering the 1999-00 academic year.

The formation of the Big 12 represented an undertaking by school chief executive officers to combine resources to achieve even higher levels of performance heading into the 21st Century.

Institution chancellors and presidents serve as the chief policy makers of the Conference, operating as the Board of Directors. Administration of the circuit occurs through the Council of Faculty Athletics Representatives, Board of Athletics Directors and Board of Senior Woman Administrators.

Steven J. Hatchell became the conference's first commissioner on March 26, 1995. Dave Martin, Associate Athletics Director at Oklahoma State, replaced Hatchell on May, 9, 1998, and kept the conference on a solid path of devotion to student-athleticism, a prominent role in national collegiate governance and fiscal responsibility. Kevin Weiherg was named as the second full-time Commissioner of the Big 12 Conference on Oct. 8, 1998, and officially began his tenure on Dec. 4, 1998.

The Big 12 took an initial bold step in its community service programs in May, 1996, by adopting Special Olympics as its primary philanthropy. Other charitable and community service organizations such as the Lou Groza National Collegiate Place Kicker Award, NCAA YES Program and Best Buddies, to name a few, have the sponsorship of the conference. Individual member-institutions have provided facilities for local, regional and national Special Olympics competition for years, but under the Big 12 blanket, Special Olympians, their coaches and their fans have the opportunity to interact as recipients of clinics and other cooperative efforts in conjunction with Big 12 events. In August, 1996, Executive Directors of Special Olympics in the seven-state area and Big 12 officials met and decided to promote the national movement through public service announcements aired to all 50 states and some overseas' markets during Big 12 football and basketball games and on the weekly "Big 12 Showcase" television program. Although the Special Olympians certainly benefit from the use of conference facilities and clinics, Big 12 student-athletes, officials and fans gain almost as much if not more from this partnership.

Another innovative venture of the Big 12 is the development of the Life Skills Program and Academic Services, which seeks to enhance the "total person" concept both on and off the field. Programs such as the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Special Olympics, NCAA Youth Neighborhood Sports, and the NCAA YES program of clinics and stay-in-school messages to youngsters are just a few of the life skills areas promoted by the Big 12. Student-athletes play an active role in community endeavors such as hospital visits, youth school programs, enhance/eligibility information and anti-violence campaigns, all promoted through local appearances and public service announcements aired during Big 12 contests. Activities such as these have helped the Big 12 raise the standard of excellence throughout the NCAA.

Exposure is key in any endeavor of this magnitude, and the Big 12 has one of the most comprehensive regional and national telecast agreements in the country.

ABC and FOX Sports Net combine to produce nearly 40 football games annually in syndicated, regional, national and prime time windows. The Conference dominates network television annually on the Friday after Thanksgiving with back-to-back national grid telecasts of Texas-Texas A&M and Colorado-Nebraska.

The Big 12 Conference

In all, the packages with ABC, FOX Sports Net and ESPN guarantee the Big 12 the finest intercollegiate coverage through the year 2003 (with ABC for football television) and at least $159 million into the coffers of the member institutions.

The Big 12 got off the planning boards and onto the field as Oklahoma claimed the inaugural conference championship in softball May 11, 1996. Big 12 football kicked off in grand fashion as Kansas State defeated Texas Tech 21-14 August 31, 1996, in Manhattan, Kan. The inaugural volleyball crown was won by Nebraska, and Texas edged Nebraska 37-27 in the first Dr Pepper Big 12 Football Championship Game to allow the conference to gain two Bowl Alliance berths and to bring a very successful 1996 to a close. The Huskers moved on after the '97 campaign to win their third national football title in four years.

The Big 12 utilizes a North-South divisional format in football, with the two Oklahoma schools and the four Texas schools making up the Big 12 South and the remaining six schools complete the Big 12 North. The champions of each division face each other in an electric showdown in early December to determine the Big 12 representative to the Bowl Alliance. Thanks to the high level of competition, the Big 12 was the only conference with two teams participating in the alliance in each of the first two years of the Bowl Alliance after the 1996 and 1997 football seasons, and Nebraska clinched the national title in the ESPN/USA TODAY football poll on Jan. 2, 1998, with a 42-17 victory over Tennessee in the FedEx Orange Bowl. In addition to an automatic berth in the Bowl Championship Series from the Big 12 also has four other bowl agreements with the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic, Culligan Holiday Bowl, Sylvania Alamo Bowl, Insight.Com Bowl, and Sanford Independence Bowl.

In all, the Big 12 is home to more than 4,000 student-athletes on 209 teams in the 21 men's and women's Big 12-sponsored sports. Men's programs regulated by the conference include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor/outdoor track and field, swimming and diving, tennis, and wrestling. Big 12-regulated women's programs include basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor/outdoor track and field, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, and tennis.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE COMMISSIONER

KEVIN WEIBERG

(Kansas State '78)

Kevin L. Weiberg was selected as the second Commissioner of the Big 12 Conference on Oct. 8, 1998, by the Big 12 Board of Directors. He officially started in the position on Dec. 4, 1998.

Hired at the Big Ten on August 1, 1989, as Associate Commissioner/Chief Operations Officer, he worked in conference operations for almost 10 years prior to his Big 12 appointment. He was promoted in August, 1998, to Deputy Commissioner of the Big Ten under Commissioner James E. (Jim) Delany.

Weiberg, 43, born July 7, 1956, is a native of Anthony, Kan. In the first few months of the new Commissioner's tenure, he helped to lead a review of the Conference's organizational structure and to recommend changes in several areas.

Weiberg earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Education at Kansas State University in 1978 and a Master of Science degree in Athletics Administration from Western Illinois University in 1979.

His professional career began with a 1979-1980 post as Sports Information Director at Wayne State (Neb.) College, and then he moved to Wichita State University from 1980-87. He was SID at WSU from 1980-83, was promoted to Assistant Director of Athletics for marketing and fund raising from 1983-86 and became Associate Director of Athletics in 1986-87. In the latter capacity he oversaw all external relations, including marketing, fund raising and media relations.

Weiberg became Associate Director of Athletics at the University of Maryland from 1987-89. He served as Chief of Staff and responsible for supervising revenue sports programs.

In addition to being a Kansas State graduate, the Commissioner has some outstanding athletics' and Big 12 ties besides the major that he played in Big Ten Conference governance and financial matters.

Weiberg is married to the former Susan K. Latta (Aug., 12, 1976), and they have three children: daughters Erika, Jenna and son Garrett.

College Football Championship Series

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES STANDINGS

A statistical rating system has been approved by the Bowl Championship Series (BCS), it was initially announced June 9, 1998, by BCS Coordinator Roy Kramer and later updated on June 30, 1999. The BCS Standings will determine which teams will participate in the national championship as well as other teams that will be eligible to participate in the Bowl Championship Series.

A revised statistical rating system will be in place to determine the teams that will participate in the championship game of the Bowl Championship Series following the 1999 season. The rating system will consist of the same four major components used in 1998: subjective polls of the writers and coaches, computer rankings, schedule strength and number of losses. The two teams which have the lowest point total in the four categories will play in the national championship game.

POLLS

The poll component will be calculated based on the average of the ranking of each team in the Associated Press media poll and the USA Today/ESPN coaches poll. The rankings of each team will be added and divided by two. For example, a team ranked number one in one poll and number two in the other poll would receive 1.5 points in this component ($1+2 = 3/2 = 1.5$).

COMPUTER RANKINGS

The second component will consist of eight computer rankings. These computer rankings will include the three used last year (New York Times, Jeff Sagarin's USA TODAY and The Anderson-Hester/Seattle Times) along with five additional rankings: Richard Billingsley, Dunkel Index, Kenneth Massey, David Rothman and the Matthews/Scripps-Howard rankings. The computer component will be determined by averaging the seven highest computer rankings. The lowest computer ranking will be disregarded. For example, if a team is ranked first in four polls, second in three polls and third in another, the ranking in which the team is third will be disregarded and the remaining seven polls will be added and divided by seven ($1, 1, 1, 1, 2, 2, 2, 3 = 10/7 = 1.43$).

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

The third component will be the team's strength of schedule. This component is calculated by determining the cumulative won/loss records of the team's opponents and the cumulative won/loss records of the teams' opponents' opponents. The formula shall be weighted two-third ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) for the opponent's record and one-third ($33\frac{1}{3}\%$) for the opponents' opponents record. The team's schedule strength shall be calculated to determine in which quartile it will rank: 1-25, 26-50; 51-75; 76-100 and shall be further quantified by its ranking within each quartile (divided by 25). For example, if a team's schedule strength rating is 28th in the nation, that team would receive 1.12 points ($28/25 = 1.12$). Should a team play a Division I-AA opponent, only the losses of the Division I-AA team shall be used in determining the opponent's record or the opponent's opponents' record.

LOSSES

The final component shall evaluate the team's won/loss record. Each loss during the season will represent one point in this component.

All four components shall be added together for a total rating. The team with the lowest point total shall rank first in the Bowl Championship Series Standings. The BCS Standings will not be published until the Monday following games of Oct. 23 at 2 p.m. CT each week. The complete BCS rankings will be available at Bowl Championship Series Online at ESPN.com, a part of the GO Network, beginning Oct. 25. This system will be utilized only to select the teams that will participate in the championship game of the Bowl Championship Series and to determine any independent or team from a conference without an automatic selection which shall qualify for a guaranteed selection in one of the games of the Bowl Championship Series as the result of being ranked in the top six in the BCS Standings.

The Big 12 Championship Game

The Big 12 Championship game returns to San Antonio and the Alamodome on Dec. 4, 1999. The game will be broadcast to a national television audience on ABC.

The Alamodome, which opened its doors on May 15, 1993 at a cost of $186 million, is unlike any other stadium due to its design and versatility. The facility features a cable-suspended roof, retractable seating system, a flexible door grid system, formal entries and a large food court area. Home to the NBA's San Antonio Spurs, the Alamodome has several configurations. The multi-purpose dome holds 21,372 for NBA action and 65,000 for football action. The SYLVANIA Alamo Bowl also calls the Alamodome home, bringing college football teams from the Big 12 and Big Ten Conferences to San Antonio each year.

Owned and operated by the city of San Antonio, the Alamodome currently features 38 luxury suites on the building's Club Level and over 6,000 club level seats that provide fans with the ultimate in upscale viewing options and dining privileges.

With the addition of the Alamodome, the city of San Antonio has become a major player in the sports world. The first sporting event in the Alamodome was the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival. The building, which is the only facility in North America with two permanent Olympic-sized ice sheets under one roof, hosted the Festival's opening ceremonies and all of the ice events.

Here are some other facts and figures on the Alamodome:

- Ceiling height is 170 feet. The four masts are 300 feet tall.
- 12,000 retractable seats, the largest single unit in the world.
- Two video walls in the southeast and northwest corners make up the largest projection system in the world. Each video wall has 100 total projection TVs, which is like watching a 400-inch diagonal TV.
- Climate-controlled environment - 72 to 75 degrees.
- Handicap seating can accommodate up to 460.
- The Alamodome site takes up 57 acres. The building takes up 18 acres while the roof covers nine acres.
- Cost of $186 million was financed by a one-half cent tax that went into effect in 1989 and ended in March of 1994.

Meet The Staff

In his 10 seasons in Manhattan, Bill Snyder has posted a 77-39-1 (.662) overall record and a 43-29-1 (.586) mark in conference games. In 1998 he was named the national coach of the year by several organizations after the Wildcats finished the regular season with an 11-0 record.

Meet The Staff

Head Coach Bill Snyder

In his 10 seasons in Manhattan, Kansas State head coach Bill Snyder has taken the Wildcat football program from the depths of college football to one of the nation's premier programs, making Snyder one of the most decorated head coaches in college football.

Since Snyder took over the program prior to the 1989 season, he has triggered what many experts have called the greatest turnaround in college football history. And unlike most reclamation projects, K-State's story hasn't been a one-season flash-in-the-pan.

Snyder has won at least nine games in each of the last six seasons, making K-State one of just six major college football programs to reach that milestone. He also has led K-State to six straight bowl games and has had the Wildcats ranked in the Top 10 each of the past five seasons including in the top five for the entire 1998 season. The Wildcats also have been one of college football's best home teams under Snyder, compiling an impressive 50-5-1 record at KSU Stadium since 1990, the fifth-best home record in college football this decade.

In 1998 he led K-State to its second straight 11-win season and a No. 4 ranking in the final regular season polls. In November, K-State occupied a No. 1 ranking in a national poll for the first time in school history. The Wildcats won the Big 12 Conference North Division and advanced to a post-season bowl game for the sixth year in a row. K-State won its first 11 games of the season and ran its winning streak to a school-record 20 games before falling to Texas A&M in the Big 12 Championship game. Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first Wildcat to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, and a total of six K-Staters earned All-America honors.

Snyder earned National Coach-of-the-Year honors from the Walter Camp Foundation, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Foundation, the Associated Press, the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award and the Schutt Sports Group.

In 1997, Snyder led the Wildcats to their first 11-win season in school history, a No. 7 final ranking and the first 10-win regular season since 1910. It was just the third 10-win season in 102 years of K-State football. Kansas State won a school-record seven conference games, finishing second in the North Division to undefeated and eventual national champion Nebraska. The Wildcats defeated South Division champion Texas A&M, 36-17. The season was capped with a 35-18 win over Big East Conference champion Syracuse in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, with an estimated 50,000 K-State fans attending K-State's first-ever Alliance Bowl.

The 1996 season saw K-State finish with a 9-3 record, while more than 45,000 Wildcat fans painted Dallas purple for the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl, Kansas State's first-ever New Year's Day Bowl. Despite a 19-15 loss to No. 5 Brigham Young, the support and respect for the K-State program grew to unprecedented heights.

In 1995, Snyder guided K-State to a 10-2 record, including a 5-2 Big Eight record to tie for second place behind national-champion Nebraska. Following a 54-21 blitzing of WAC-champion Colorado State in the 1995 Holiday Bowl, the Wildcats finished the season ranked sixth in the USA Today/CNN Coaches Poll and seventh in the Associated Press Poll. Both rankings were the highest ever attained by a Kansas State football team.

Snyder's unprecedented success at Kansas State hasn't gone unnoticed. Snyder has been named the National Coach-of-the-Year on three occasions (also by ESPN in 1991 and by CNN in 1994). He has been a finalist for the prestigious Bear Bryant/FWAA National Coach-of-the-Year Award in 1993 and 1995 before winning in 1998; a finalist for the Football News National Coach of the Year Award in 1995 and 1998; and a finalist for the Kodak/AFCA National Coach-of-the-Year Award in 1993 and 1998. In 1993 he joined legendary Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney as the only head coaches in Big Eight history to be named Associated Press Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year three times in a four-year period (1990, 1991 and 1993). The Houston Chronicle named him the 1996 Big 12 Coach-of-the-Year, while he earned 1997 and 1998 Big 12 Coach-of-the-Year honors from the Kansas City Star. Snyder also was the 1998 Big 12 Coach-of-the-Year by the Associated Press and by a vote of league coaches.

During the last six seasons, the Wildcats have amassed a 59-13-1 record, the second-best overall mark among the teams in the Big 12 Conference, and, K-State has been ranked in the Top 25 for 92 of the past 96 polls, including a current streak of 67 consecutive polls heading into the 1999 season.

Those numbers alone indicate the emergence of a new power in the Big 12 Conference and with it the recognition that Snyder is truly one of the finest coaches in college football today.

"Bill Snyder isn't the coach of the year, and he isn't the coach of the decade," said former Oklahoma and Dallas Cowboys coach Barry Switzer. "He's the coach of the century."

But to put the significance of that success into proper perspective, one must consider the not-so-distant history of what was the worst football program in the country and the profound impact Snyder has had not only on the football program, but Kansas State University as a whole.

Perhaps former Colorado head coach Bill McCartney said it best. "I don't think anybody has approximated what he's done," McCartney said in 1994. "He's taken a team that didn't have a good football tradition. Colorado had a good tradition at one time, but what has happened at Kansas State is unprecedented. I don't think anybody in college football can compare to what they've done in Manhattan. It looks like the entire university has gotten behind him. They're hitting on all cylinders in recruiting, academically, and in their cohesiveness."

The list of accomplishments Snyder has amassed in just 10 years is as endless as the time most people thought it would take for the Wildcats to be a consistent threat in the Big Eight, and now, Big 12 Conference.

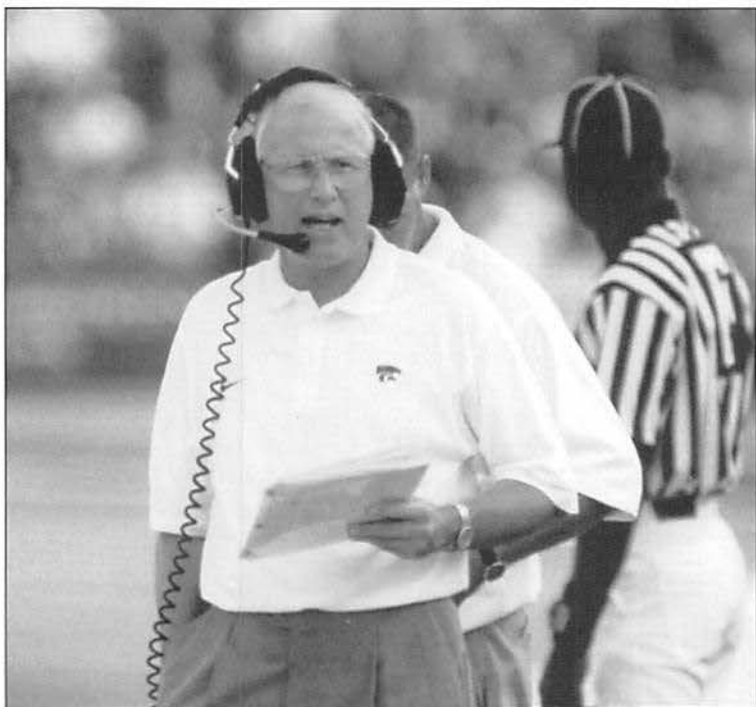

In 1993, Snyder guided K-State to its first bowl win in school history and in 1994 the Wildcats cracked the Top 10 for the first time in school history. In 1998 the Wildcats achieved a No. 1 national ranking in one of the major polls for the first time in the program's history.

Head Coach Bill Snyder

Bill Snyder is the winningest coach in Kansas State history and has led the Wildcats to six consecutive bowl games.

In 1995, the Wildcats finished tied for second in the Big Eight and their 5-2 league mark gave K-State two-consecutive 5-2 Big Eight seasons. In the last three years of the Big Eight, the Wildcats defeated or tied every team in the league except Nebraska, pushing the Huskers to the wire three times in the last six years. Against everyone in the Big 12 except Nebraska and Colorado, the Wildcats are 32-2 since 1993.

While some of those accomplishments would be considered modest at some schools, history tells you why they are so impressive at Kansas State.

In the last nine years, Snyder has resurrected the Wildcats from a 1-36-1 stretch to close out the 1980s to a 76-29-1 (.722) mark to start the 1990s. In fact, one has to add all victories from 1959 to 1988 to total 77 wins at K-State.

Individually, Snyder has produced 30 different All-Americans during the past 10 years, including five consensus first-team All-Americans in 1992 (his son, Sean Snyder), 1993 (FS Jaime Mendez), 1995 (CB Chris Canty and DT Tim Colston), 1996 (Canty), 1997 (PK Martin Gramatica) and 1998 (PR David Allen).

Gramatica was the 1997 Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award winner, the first major award winner in Kansas State history. Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first K-State player to be named a finalist for the Heisman Trophy (finishing as runner-up) while winning the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's outstanding quarterback.

Hayden Fry, the former Iowa head coach who watched Snyder direct a dangerous Hawkeye offense for 10 years during that program's amazing turnaround, was the first to forecast Kansas State's rise.

"I think he'll do a job much quicker than anyone anticipates in regards to taking Kansas State to respectability," Fry said. "He's a quality coach and gentleman."

And yet it's probable that even Fry looks on in amazement when pondering where the Kansas State football program was before Snyder's arrival and the level it has ascended to today.

The foundation for K-State's turnaround was laid in 1989 during Snyder's first season in Manhattan. Although the season yielded just a 1-10 record, it became evident to everyone involved in the program that something special was happening. Most importantly, Snyder instilled a winning attitude and a healthy dose of self-respect and enthusiasm to a program that had been given up for dead more than once over the years.

In 1990, Kansas State was one of just four teams in the country to improve its record by four games with a 5-6 mark, including its first Big Eight Conference wins in four seasons with victories over Oklahoma State and Iowa

State. Snyder again beat those two schools with impressive wins in 1991, while adding Kansas and Missouri to the list of his Big Eight victims to finish at 7-4. Heavy graduation losses on the offensive side of the ball resulted in a 5-6 mark in 1992, but the Wildcats were still able to hang their hats on their first perfect home season (5-0) since 1934.

Of course, it should come as no surprise that Snyder would be this kind of architect for a building program. At Iowa, he played a key role in the renaissance of a Hawkeye program that went from 17 consecutive losing seasons to eight straight bowl appearances. Snyder was the mind behind Iowa's potent offensive attack. The Hawkeye offense ranked first in passing efficiency and third in passing yardage nationally in Snyder's last five years of direction. In his final Iowa season, the Peach Bowl team led the Big Ten, and ranked seventh nationally, with 277 passing yards per game. That team also ranked second in the Big Ten with 416 yards of total offense per outing.

Snyder also served as quarterback coach at Iowa and helped develop some of the best quarterbacks in NCAA history, including NFL players Chuck Long (2nd in Heisman voting with over 10,000 passing yards in Iowa career), Mark Vlasic and Chuck Hartlieb, who wrapped up his career as the first Hawkeye quarterback to throw for 3,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Snyder, a member of the American Football Coaches Association Rules Committee and Ethics Committee and a speaker at the 1991 and 1995 NCAA Football Forum, began his full-time coaching career in 1964 as an assistant at Indio High School in California. In 1966, he served as a graduate assistant at USC under John McKay before returning to become the head coach at Indio in 1967. He accepted the same position at Santa Ana Foothill High School in 1969, and stayed there until 1973. His record in California was 32-10-3.

In 1974, Snyder became the offensive coordinator on the football staff and head swimming coach at Austin College in Sherman, Texas. He joined the University of North Texas staff in 1976 where he helped author an impressive turnaround with a three-year record of 26-7-0. With the Hayden Fry staff, he left UNT in 1979 to take over at Iowa.

Snyder, who was hired as Kansas State's 32nd head football coach on Nov. 30, 1988, received his B.A. from William Jewell in 1963. He earned his M.A. from Eastern New Mexico in 1965. As a player, he was a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back at William Jewell. Snyder and his wife, Sharon, have two sons (Sean and Ross) and three daughters (Shannon, Meredith and Whitney). Sean was a first-team All-America punter by Associated Press, Kodak and Athlon's for Kansas State in 1992, and is currently on the Wildcat staff as assistant AD/football operations.

In 1998, Snyder led the Wildcats to the school's first-ever No. 1 national ranking and the program's second-consecutive 11-win season.

- K-State wins 11 games for the second consecutive season.
- Gramatica sets an NCAA record for kick scoring (135 points) and boots the longest field goal in NCAA history without the use of a tee (65 yards vs. Northern Illinois).

"Leadership Lessons From Bill Snyder"

Bill Snyder, Dr. Susan Scott, associate dean of student life and director of leadership studies and programs, and Dr. Bob Shoop, professor of educational administration and leadership, joined forces in writing "Leadership Lessons from Bill Snyder."

As well as helping people from all walks of life, the book will be used as a textbook for the leadership studies program on the K-State campus. Lessons contained in the book have leadership principles for students, teachers, parents, business persons or coaches.

"It is estimated that we will need approximately 2.4 million women and men who are prepared to take leadership action in civic governments, religious organizations, corporations, schools and professions," Shoop and Scott said. "The steps that Coach Snyder followed in turning his program into a champion can be used in any business or organization. We believe that leadership can be taught and learned, and our need for citizens to be educated as leaders is profound and critical."

"Leadership Lessons from Bill Snyder" has raised more than $45,000 that has been split equally between the KSU Leadership Studies program, Hale Library and the K-State Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

The softcover book written in 1998 is published by Ag Press in Manhattan and sells for $14.95. All profits from the sale of the book will be contributed to the K-State leadership studies program, the student-athlete advisory committee, the Mike Ahearn Scholarship Fund and Hale Library.

"I am honored to be asked to assist the KSU Leadership Studies program by sharing leadership thoughts and concepts to be portrayed in this book," Snyder said. "It also gives me the opportunity to help provide additional funding for the KSU library, the student-athlete leadership program and the KSU leadership studies program."

Snyder said he liked the fact that Kansas State has a leadership program in place.

"I like the idea of helping young people formulate some concepts as they relate to leadership," he said. "I'm a strong believer that we need stronger leadership from our upcoming youth. I'm happy to be a part of that."

Kansas State has rolled to an impressive .902 winning percentage at KSU Stadium in 1990s. The Wildcats' 50-5-1 record ranks fifth among Division I schools this decade.

Kansas State moved to the top of the USA Today/ESPN-Coaches Poll in November, 1998 to earn its first No. 1 national ranking in school history. K-State also led the nation in scoring (48.0 avg.) and punt returns (21.3 avg.) in 1998.

K-State quarterback Michael Bishop finished second in voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1998. He also became the second Wildcat in as many years to win a national award by bringing the Davey O'Brien Award to Manhattan.

All-American David Allen became the first player in NCAA history to return punts for touchdowns in three consecutive games against Indiana State, Northern Illinois and Texas. Allen ranked No. 1 in the nation in punt returns in 1998 with an average of 22.12 yards. He also set an NCAA record by returning punts for touchdowns in three consecutive games in 1998.

K-State is one of just six Division I schools in the nation to win at least nine games each of the last six seasons. The other five are Florida, Florida State, Nebraska, Ohio State and Penn State.

The Wildcats also have made six consecutive postseason bowl appearances. K-State is one of just 10 schools in the nation to play in a bowl game each of the last six years.

First-team All-Big 12 defensive end Darren Howard led the Big 12 with 10.5 quarterback sacks in 1998. He enters 1999 second on the K-State career list with 24 sacks, 3.5 behind career leader Nyle Wiren.

15

K-State enters the 1999 season with a 15-game winning streak at KSU Stadium.

K-State By The Numbers

K-State has been ranked in the Top 10 for 23 consecutive polls entering the 1999 season.

42

K-State has had 42 first-team Academic All-Big Eight/12 selections under Bill Snyder.

45

K-State enters the 1999 season with a 45-game winning streak at KSU Stadium against non-ranked teams.

Kicker Jamie Rheem enters the 1999 season with a streak of 45 consecutive extra points made. He made all 43 of his attempts in 1996 and both attempts in 1997.

K-State has been ranked in the Top 25 for 67 consecutive polls entering the 1999 season.

77

Bill Snyder enters 1999 with 77 career victories in 10 seasons at K-State. One has to add all K-State wins from 1959 to 1988 to total 77 wins.

95

Mark Simoneau led the Wildcats with 95 tackles in 1998. He earned first-team All-Big 12 and second-team All-America honors following the season. Simoneau stands 10th on the K-State career tackles chart with 309 career stops.

135

Former K-State kicker Martin Gramatica set an NCAA record for kick-scoring in a season with 135 points in 1998.

193

The K-State coaching staff, including head coach Bill Snyder, has 193 years of coaching experience heading into the 1999 season.

576

Kansas State shattered the school scoring record with 576 points and 48.0 average in 1998. The previous records were 402 points and 36.6 average in 1995. K-State also set a school record with 73 touchdowns, 20 more than the previous record of 53 in 1995.

44,298

The KSU Stadium record crowd of 44,298 attended the Wildcats 40-30 win over Nebraska on Nov. 14, 1998. The attendance record is sure to be broken Sept. 11, 1999 in the season opener against Temple after a stadium expansion project increased capacity to more than 50,000.

50,000

New KSU Stadium capacity (up from 42,000) after stadium expansion prior to the 1999 season.

Head Coach Bill Snyder

Precise. Intense. Tireless. Accomplished. Dedicated. Caring. Professional. Kansas State University's Head Football Coach Bill Snyder is all of these - and much more.

To understand the full picture of Bill Snyder, it is necessary to acknowledge the values, sincerity, warmth, and concern for the people around him; qualities that solidify his reputation as an innovator in college athletics.

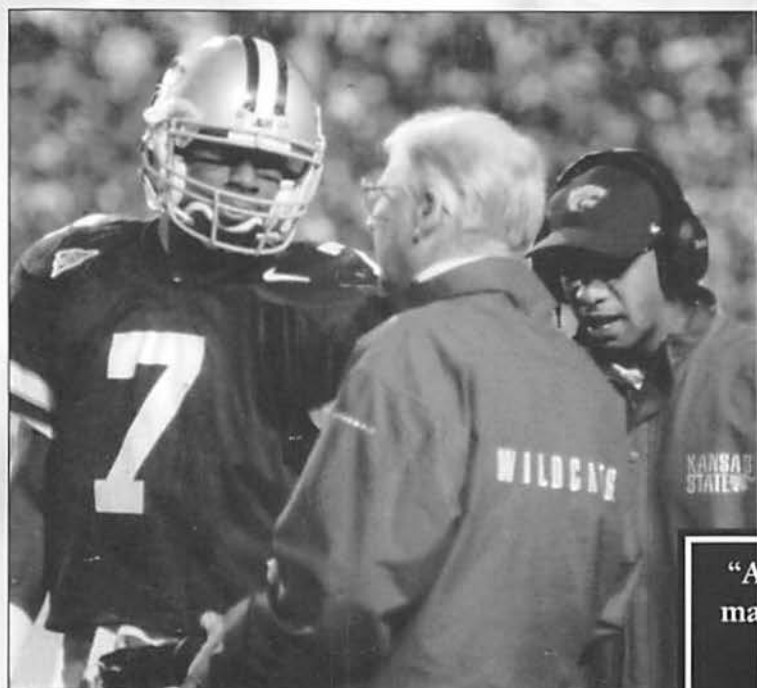

It's those same values and work ethic, instilled by Snyder, that have given rise to the greatest turnaround in college football history.

Charged with the mission of stopping a 0-26-1 streak upon his arrival in 1989, Snyder has guided the Wildcats from the depths of college football to being one of only six Division I programs to win nine games each of the last six seasons. He has led K-State to six consecutive bowl games and has had the Wildcats ranked in the nation's Top 10 each of the last four years, including in the top five for the entire 1998 season.

In 1998, Snyder led K-State to its second straight 11-win season and a No. 4 ranking in the final regular season rankings. The Wildcats won the Big 12 Conference North Division, winning their first 11 games and running their winning streak to a school-record 20 games.

In 1997, his team finished in the Top 10 (No. 8/AP, No. 7/USA Today/ESPN). Following the first New Year's Day Bowl-Cotton Bowl (1/1/97)-in Kansas State history, Snyder took yet another step by guiding the Wildcats to an Alliance Bowl victory over Syracuse (12/31/97) in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

His 1995 team finished sixth and seventh in the final polls while his 1993 and 1994 teams finished in the Top 20. Under Snyder, the Wildcats have rolled to a 50-5-1 home record in the 1990s, the sixth best home record in college football this decade. Snyder is considered among the finest football coaches in the land and he has been recognized as National Coach-of-the-Year three times in the last seven seasons. He also joined legendary coach Bob Devaney as the only men in Big Eight history to be named Associated Press Coach-of-the-Year three years in a four-year span (1990, 1991, and 1993).

His appointment at K-State followed unparalleled turnarounds at North Texas and at Iowa, where he played key roles in restoring and renewing both institutions' football programs. Snyder spent 10 years as the mastermind of the Iowa Hawkeye offense, which annually ranked among the nation's best.

Coach Snyder has been successful in places where winning had previously only been dreamed about. Today, at Kansas State University, Bill Snyder has instilled fresh ideas, unbridled enthusiasm, and above all - success with a touch of class.

"All Snyder did was inherit an impossible situation and make it possible, proving once again that no mountain is ever too steep for a climber."

— Doug Looney, Sports Illustrated

Why K-State

"Bill Snyder isn't the coach of the year, and he isn't the coach of the decade.
He's the coach of the century."

"... Not only is Bill Snyder one of the brightest strategic coaches, but he has brought along the best football staff ever to set up shop in Manhattan. "

— The Sporting News

"I don't think anybody has approximated what Snyder has done. He's taken a team that didn't have a good football tradition at one time. Colorado had a good tradition at one time, but what has happened at Kansas State is unprecedented. I don't think anybody in college football can compare to what they've done in Manhattan. It looks like the entire university has gotten behind him. They're hitting on all cylinders in recruiting, academically and in their cohesiveness."

"More than anything, Coach Snyder brought discipline into my life. He takes a lot of pride in the little things and showed us that you can't accomplish a major goal unless you take care of the small things first. He cares deeply about his players, and, I mean, it is sincere with every one of them – from the All-Americans to the last guy on the depth chart."

— 1993 First Team All-American Jaime Mendez

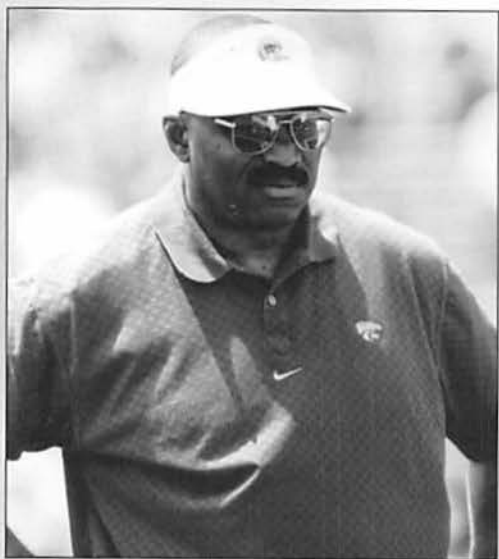

Strength and conditioning coach Rod Cole (left) was named the 1999 National Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year, while video coordinator Scott Eilert was selected as the 1998 Bob Matey Collegiate Sports Association National Video Coordinator of the Year.

"Absolutely no organization can run efficiently and effectively without a caring, loyal, motivated and hard-working support staff. We have exactly that at Kansas State. They are truly special people who extend themselves far beyond what is expected."

— Head Coach Bill Snyder

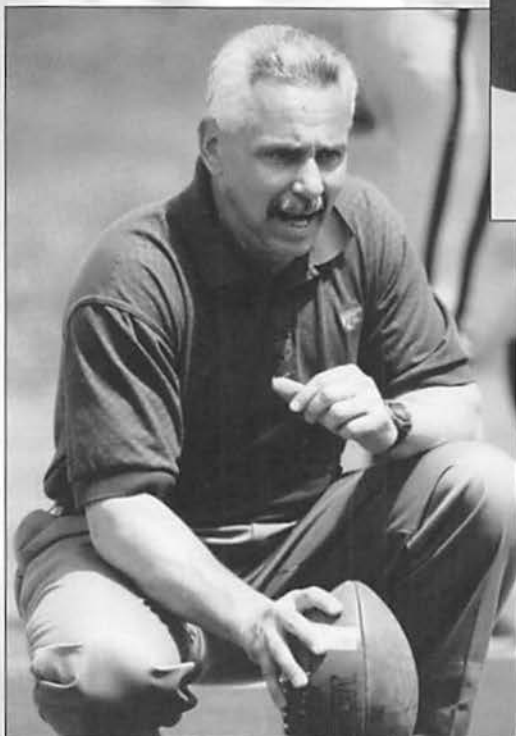

Why K-State

"It's hard to believe this is the same program I left 16 years ago. K-State's commitment to football in the recent years is unparalleled and that's why no program in the country has gained more ground on the national level during the 1990s."

- Assistant Recruiting Coordinator/Defensive Tackles Coach Mo Latimore (Above)
Recruiting Areas: South Central Kansas, Southwest Houston, San Antonio, Southern Missouri

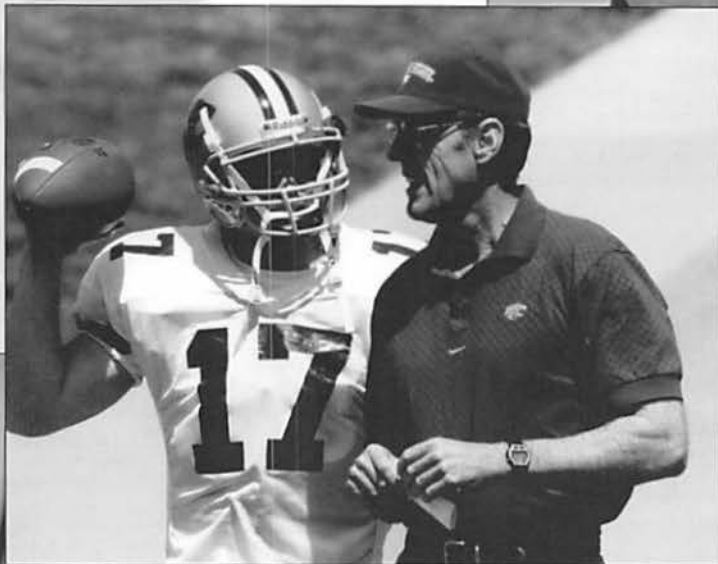

"It was a real surprise to see the changes that have taken place since the last time I visited Manhattan. The facilities, talent level, commitment and support of the administration and fans are all first rate. If you want to be a part of something special, come join the Kansas State family."

- Defensive Ends Coach Bob Fello (Above)
Recruiting Areas: Southeast Kansas, North Houston, Miami/Fort Lauderdale

"Kansas State's rise to the elite of college football has been made with a commitment from the top to the bottom. It's exciting for me to be involved in a program with the excitement and expectancy that Kansas State has."

- Defensive Coordinator/
Defensive Backs Coach
Phil Bennett (Right)

"A young man can come to Kansas State and experience the best of both worlds. He will receive a first class, quality education and play in one of the most successful football programs currently in the country. We are committed to our student-athletes at KSU and want them to be a part of a rewarding college experience."

- Running Game Coordinator/Offensive Line Coach Paul Dunn (Right)
Recruiting Areas: St. Louis/Northern Missouri

Outstanding Coaches

"One of the first things you realize about KSU is that there is a total commitment to excellence on the field and in the classroom. Top 10-caliber football and student-athletes in the truest sense of the word are what you will find at Kansas State."

- Linebackers Coach Jim Gush (Above)
Recruiting Areas: Western Kansas,

"The decision to become a part of the Wildcat family is easily the greatest choice I have ever made. As a player, I'll cherish the many lasting friendships with my teammates and coaches, the life lessons taught by Coach Snyder and the opportunity to play in front of, without a doubt, the best fans in college football. I feel blessed to still have an active role in the program and am excited to help take Kansas State to even higher levels."

- Tight Ends Coach Matt Miller (Above)
Recruiting Areas: Northeast Kansas, Kansas City, Kan., San Diego

Why K-State

THE EMOTION ...

"The great quarterback tradition at Iowa was a lot of Coach Snyder's doing. The one thing that I got from him was the importance of preparation. During the week, it was amazing the things he would come up with. He knew what part of the offense needed to be brought out each week."

— Former Iowa and NFL Quarterback
Chuck Hartlieb

... OF VICTORY!

"Kansas State is a bright shining star on its way to the next level. My intent is to make every effort to give our student-athletes and coaches the best opportunity to take their programs to another level of achievement. With all the demanding issues athletics departments are faced with today, we can't forget our greatest natural resource – the student-athlete. We're here to give them the brightest future possible."

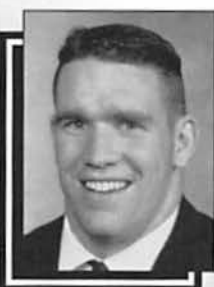

— Max Urick, K-State Athletics Director

K-State Family

"After eight years of watching our sons play Kansas State football, we reflect on so many wonderful experiences through the years. To be a part of the K-State football family has been a privilege. We've watched Dirk and Travis give their time and energy to great football and academic programs and benefit from their experiences. The leadership of Coach Snyder, the assistant coaches, President Wefald and the academic staff has had a major impact on the boys' lives and is reflected in their accomplishments at Kansas State and beyond.

"We never dreamed how many other benefits of being player parents we'd be given: becoming well acquainted with football staff, educators and other player parents, traveling to away games and exciting Bowl experiences. Sharing all of this with our daughter, Kasia and the many loyal family members and friends across the country has made our lives even more special. We'll be forever grateful!"

— Lee and Gail Ochs,
Overland Park, Kan.
Parents of former Wildcats
Travis and Dirk Ochs

"We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to the one person who without a doubt is the most responsible for Martin's success: Coach Bill Snyder. It is extremely difficult to put into words and impossible to find words that express our enormous gratitude to Coach.

"Although Martin was uprooted and separated from his family by distance and starting a new chapter in his life, he found in Coach Snyder moral support, friendship and wise and timely counsel.

"We thank God for putting us on this path."

— Bill and Laura Gramatica,
La Belle, Fla. Parents of former Wildcat kicker Martin Gramatica

"We were extremely happy that our son got to play at Kansas State. We were lucky that Brooks got in on the ground floor when Coach Snyder got there. Because of Coach Snyder and the football staff there, he has a chance for success in life.

"It's been fun to watch the program develop into the quality program it is now. They've always treated every player the same. It's just a good program."

— Roger and Pamela Barta, Smith Center, Kan. Parents of former Wildcat linebacker Brooks Barta

"It has been an honor and privilege for my wife and I to have the experience of watching our two sons, Kevin and Aaron, mature and grow along with the Kansas State football program. We feel that the hard work, long hours and dedication to this program have been a positive influence in the lives of both our sons. The honesty, fairness and leadership that Coach Snyder, his staff, President Wefald and all the Kansas State family displayed will forever be a part of the respect and admiration that our family has for this football program and university.

"We believe that Aaron will leave Kansas State, as Kevin has, believing that any goal in life is attainable, and the experience of success at Kansas State will follow them forever. But most important, the education, the words of wisdom and the support of the loyal Wildcat fans will always be an important part in their accomplishments.

"Last, but not least, our entire family is moved by the friendliness and support that we have received throughout the state of Kansas from some of the best fans and friends in America.

"Purple forever!"

— John and Bea Lockett, Tulsa, Okla. Parents of Wildcat wide receiver Aaron Lockett and former Wildcat Kevin Lockett, now with the Kansas City Chiefs

"When I decided to pass up other scholarship offers to walk on at Kansas State, I didn't realize the tremendous impact it would have on my life. Due to the discipline and guidance of Coach Snyder, I've become a more dedicated and appreciative person than I ever imagined.

"Through my experience at Kansas State, I've come in close contact with amazing educators, loyal and supportive fans and friends that I will have for the rest of my life. I wish everyone could experience these amazing moments I've had as a Kansas State football player. I will always be proud to say that I played for one of the best programs in the nation."

— Joe Bob Clements, former Kansas State defensive end (1994-98)

"Seldom does a coach win by sheer force of personality. Snyder does. Guys like Bo Schembechler, Woody Hayes and Bear Bryant were all helped by their dominating personalities, but they were helped even more by superb players."

— Doug Looney, Sports Illustrated

Academic All-Americans

It's no secret Kansas State's football program has become a national power during the 1990s, but just as impressive is the success current and former Wildcat players have enjoyed in the classroom.

Since Bill Snyder arrived at K-State in 1989, the Wildcat football program has produced five academic All-Americans, eight Hitachi/College Football Association First-Team National Scholar-Athletes, three National Football Foundation Hall of Fame

Postgraduate Scholarship winners and 42 First-Team Academic All-Big Eight/12 selections. Furthermore, the College Football Association recently recognized K-State as one of just 19 football programs in the nation to have a graduation rate of 70 percent or better.

Listed below are just a few of the outstanding student-athletes who have distinguished themselves on the playing field and in the classroom during their K-State careers.

RUSS CAMPBELL Tight End 1988-91

Russ Campbell finished his career in 1991 as one of the top tight ends in the history of the Big Eight Conference. During his stellar four-year career, Campbell had 67 receptions for 1,150 yards.

He still holds the K-State career record with an average of 17.2 yards per reception. Off the field, Campbell was a four-time Academic All-Big Eight selection. In 1991, he won a prestigious $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

Team and received the prestigious $18,000 post graduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

QUENTIN NEUJAHN Center 1990-93

Quentin Neujahr was one of the best offensive linemen to ever wear K-State purple.

Neujahr started at center in 45 consecutive games from his freshman season in 1990 through the 1993 Copper Bowl triumph.

As a senior in 1993, Neujahr earned third-team All-America honors from the NFL Draft Report and was a first-team All-Big Eight selection.

Now a center with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars, Neujahr was also a three-time Academic All-Big Eight choice and was a member of the 1993 Hitachi/CFA National Scholar-Athlete First Team.

receptions for 3,032 yards and 26 touchdowns, all K-State records. As a junior and senior Lockett earned First-Team Academic All-America honors from CoSIDA and was named to the Hitachi/CFA National Scholar-Athlete First Team.

He also was a three-time member of the Academic All-Big Eight Team and a First-Team selection to the Academic All-Big 12. Lockett began work on his master's degree while completing his eligibility in 1996. He was a second-round selection in the NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

JASON JOHNSON Center 1993-96

K-State's starting center since 1994, Jason Johnson carried a 3.8 cumulative grade-point average in business administration.

As a junior in 1995, Johnson earned First-Team Academic All-Big Eight honors for the second time and was named Academic All-American Second-Team by CoSIDA. In 1996 as a senior, Johnson earned second-team All-Big 12 honors on the field and first-team Academic All-America accolades from GTE/CoSIDA and the CFA. He also had a spot on the Academic All-Big 12 first-team.

BROOKS BARTA Linebacker 1989-92

A product of Smith Center, Kan., Brooks Barta is the only player in K-State history to lead the Wildcats in tackles four consecutive seasons. A two-time All-Big Eight selection and the first three-time team captain in K-State history, Barta finished his career as the second-leading tackler in Kansas State history. Barta also excelled in the classroom, earning selection to the Academic All-Big Eight team all four years. As a senior in 1992, Barta earned Academic All-America honors from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), was named to the Hitachi/CFA National Scholar-Athlete

KEVIN LOCKETT Wide Receiver 1993-96

Kevin Lockett finished his collegiate career as the Big Eight Conference's all-time leader in receptions while earning First-Team All-Big 12 honors in the inaugural season of the conference.

He completed his career with 217

ACADEMICS

Kansas State has gained a nationwide reputation for producing prestigious scholarship winners.

K-State ranks in the top one percent nationally in the number of Rhodes Scholars with five in the last nine years. In fact, of the nine Rhodes Scholars produced by Kansas universities and colleges in the last 20 years, eight have come from K-State. KSU also is first in the nation among public universities in producing Truman Scholars with 18 since the program started in 1979.

Only Yale, Stanford, Radcliffe and Harvard have more. Furthermore, K-State has captured the national debate championship in both 1991 and 1993.

With such a reputation for excellence, it's no surprise that K-State's enrollment has surged to an all-time high or more than 20,000 students. Every county in the state, every state in the nation and numerous countries around the world are represented by students attending KSU. Over 200 course programs are offered in the College of Arts and Sciences, Engineering, Business Administration, Agriculture, Education, Architecture and Design, Human Ecology and Veterinary Medicine. Six of the eight colleges at Kansas State University are the most comprehensive in the state, and the College of Business Administration ranks in the Top 15 percent nationally.

The football program takes an active role in academic achievement. In the past six years, Kansas State has produced three winners of the prestigious National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Scholarship, along with eight first-team honorees to the CFA National Scholar-Athlete Team, and numerous academic all-district, All-Big Eight and All-Big 12 selections.

In 1994, the College Football Association honored Kansas State as one of just 19 football programs in the country to have a graduation rate of 70 percent or better.

The Colleges Of Kansas State

Kansas State has 10 colleges offering bachelor's degrees in more than 100 fields, 60 master's degree programs and 42 doctoral degree programs.

College of Arts and Sciences
(Dean: Peter Nicholls — 785-532-6900)

- Largest of the colleges with approximately 6,000 students.
- Every student will take classes from the College of Arts and Sciences.
- Has produced eight Rhodes Scholars in the past 16 years.
- Includes a new $3 million computer department.
- Majors range from physics, which has a National Atomic Laboratory, to journalism which produces the nationally recognized Royal Purple yearbook and K-State Collegian daily newspaper.

Above: Four K-State seniors who participated in 1999 graduation ceremonies included (L to R) Marlon Charles, Gavin Peries, David Conley and Ryan Young.

Left: Kevin Lockett twice garnered Academic All-America honors and earned his undergraduate degree prior to his senior season at K-State.

Why K-State

College of Business

(Dean: Yar Ebadi — 785-532-7190)

- Accredited at both the undergraduate and graduate levels by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business.

- Only 15 percent of the business schools in the nation have received this recognition.

- Departments with the college include:

- Accounting
- Finance
- Management
- Marketing

- Recent survey of major accounting firms ranked KSU's accounting department as No. 13 in the nation.

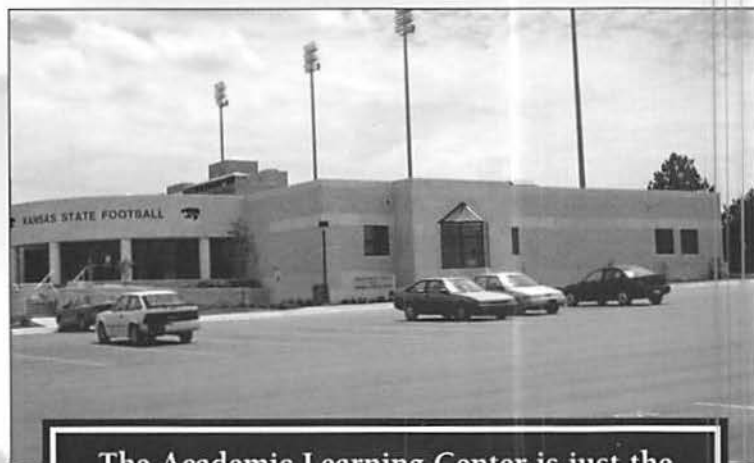

College of Education

(Dean: Michael Holen — 785-532-5525)

- Graduates more teachers per year than any other institution in the state (more than 400).

"Our football program is absolutely first class in supporting the academic success of our student-athletes. It takes committed coaches to help players focus on academic achievement. When it comes to emphasizing responsibility to course work, our football coaches receive a grade of A from me."

— Michael Holen, Dean of College of Education

The Academic Learning Center is just the latest addition in the commitment to modern facilities at Kansas State University.

- Most comprehensive teacher education program in the state offering the widest choice of course offerings.

- Students are provided classroom field experience as early as the freshman or sophomore year.

College of Engineering

(Dean: Terry King — 785-532-5590)

- Largest engineering program in the state.

- Cited twice by the National Society of Professional Engineers for its outstanding professional programs, one of just 10 colleges in the nation so honored.

- Prepares students for all traditional engineering fields as well as aerospace engineering, robotics and bioengineering.

- K-Staters have designed wheelchair transportation systems for ambulances, a space glove for astronauts (won national competition sponsored by NASA) and have helped industries redesign computer networks.

- One of 17 universities selected by NASA to design environmental controls for sustained life on Space Station Freedom.

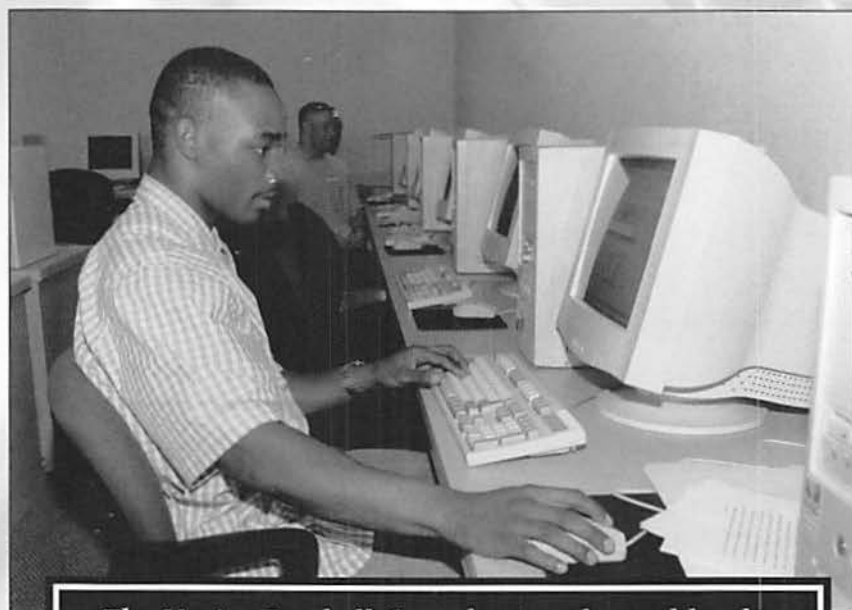

College of Agriculture

(Dean: Marc Johnson — 785-532-7137)

- Recognized by the Gourman Report (qualitative guide on American and International Higher Learning) as the 11th-leading college of agriculture in the nation — No. 1 in the former Big Eight.

- Offers only programs in the free world in bakery, feed and milling science and management.

- One-of-a-kind national programs include horticultural therapy, international meat, livestock and international grains.

The Vanier Football Complex is enhanced by the Academic Learning Center, which features numerous high tech computers, private meeting rooms and spacious study areas.

Diverse Areas of Study

"The College of Arts and Sciences has a very good relationship with the K-State football program. We have strong connections with the academic staff in the program and work closely to ensure timely completion of graduation requirements for all K-State student-athletes."

— Peter Nichols,
Dean of College of Arts and Sciences

- More than 4,000 acres of land are used for research and teaching.

College of Architecture

(Dean: Dennis Law — 785-532-5950)

- One of just six comprehensive design colleges in the country.
- Combines accredited programs in architecture, interior architecture, landscape architecture and planning.
- The College's graduates are partners and principals in more than 200 firms worldwide.
- Landscape architecture students have won 22 National American Society of Landscape Architects awards since 1976. The closest competitive program has won seven in that same time period.
- Students in the architecture program produce OZ — an annual journal which has been selected as the best student publication in the nation.
- Students in interior architecture have captured 66 national design awards over the past 15 years.
- In 1988 and again in 1990 interior architect students won five of the 11 international awards presented by the International Furniture Manufacturers Association.

College of Human Ecology

(Dean: Carol E. Kellett—785-532-5500)

- Consistently regarded as one of the Top 5 comprehensive programs in the nation.
- Departments with degree offerings:
 - Apparel, Textiles and Interior Design
 - Family Studies and Human Services
 - Human Nutrition
 - Hotel, Restaurant, Institution Management and Dietetics
 - General Human Ecology

College of Veterinary Medicine

(Dean: Neil V. Anderson — 785-532-5660)

- One of the nation's leading veterinary colleges with a continual commitment to good teaching since 1906.
- Site for the Hill's National Center for Veterinary Practice Management, the first facility in the nation to teach students and professionals the business and management skills used in veterinary practice.
- Opportunities are provided to work with house pets, livestock and exotic animals. Tigers, elephants and bears have been treated in the past.
- Some research specialties include equine exercise physiology, genetic disease in animals, respiratory physiology, stress and immunity defense mechanisms and animal sports medicine.

"Because of the efforts by Coach Snyder, the relationship between the colleges and the football program have been great. The two work together, and I have been positively impressed. To me, it's a partnership that has made it possible for Kansas State University to excel in both areas."

— Yar Ebadi,
Dean of College of Business Administration

Student-athletes are able to meet with tutors or study with groups after practice without leaving the football complex in the spacious Academic Learning Center.

Why K-State

K-State football is unique in that it has a program in place which nurtures the development of its student-athletes. This system begins with a focus on the period of transition from high school to college and continues throughout the college years. Finally, career opportunities are cultivated for the student-athlete as he passes into the next phase of development, where close contact is maintained for a lifetime.

College Transition/Success Seminar

- Class offered to incoming KSU football players during the first semester on campus.
- Focuses on skills needed for success in the college classroom as well as social and career development.
- Areas of emphasis include:
 - Time Management
 - Financial Aid Assistance
 - Manhattan Orientation
 - Campus Orientation and Available Activities and Resources
 - Study Skills
 - Reading/Writing/Communications Skills
 - Goal Setting
 - Career Opportunities/Selection
 - KSU Expectations
 - Success Orientation
 - Social Issues:
 - Substance abuse
 - Sexually related issues
 - Coping with issues and problems
 - Media relations
 - Problem-solving techniques
 - Etiquette

Kansas State Football also has developed a model academic program for incoming freshmen:

- The student-athlete and academic adviser work in conjunction with the Dean's office and an academic support group in an effort to provide the first-year student-athlete with the best academic course load and academic support services for each individual.
- For example, a series of core freshman

"Our tenure here at Kansas State University has produced seven graduating classes. The statistics indicate that of the 96 young men who have completed their eligibility, 77 have graduated (80 percent). And a total of nine are presently involved with our Second Wind program and will bring our graduation rate to 90 percent. The Second Wind program was designed to seek out each and every young man who has not graduated and develop a plan by which they can complete their graduation requirements either on campus, in their communities or through correspondence or continuing education programs. We have an academic adviser totally committed to this program."

— Head Coach Bill Snyder

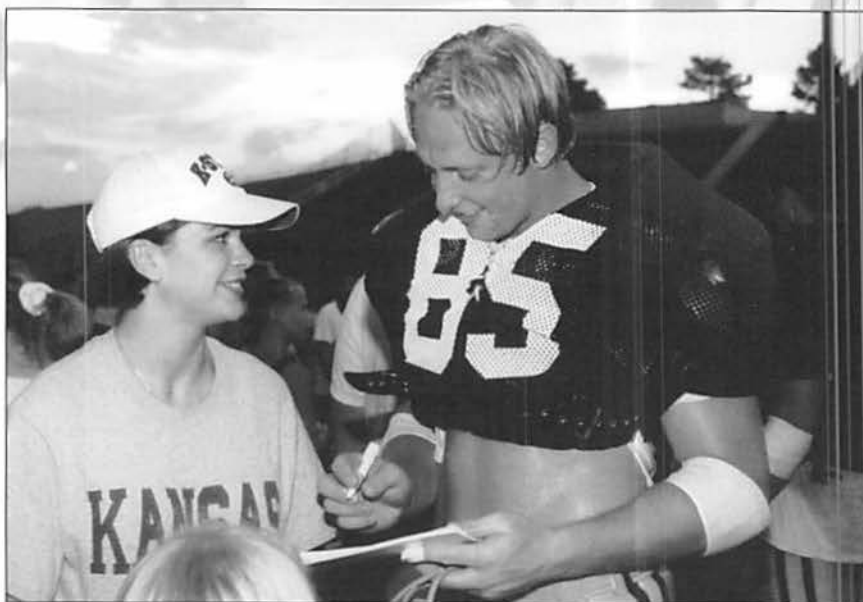

courses have been developed within the areas of English, math and social sciences which provide a solid base for the pursuit of any major.

- In addition to the laboratories, scheduled study times with trained professionals are held at various times throughout the week.

- This, of course, is in addition to the nightly study tables staffed with an abundance of academic tutors.

Monitoring/Mentoring Program.

- Established to maintain close supervision and provide assistance to those student-athletes who have struggled at any point in their academic career.
- Professors and other academic support personnel are assigned to individual student-athletes to guide the individual in class selection, test preparation, note-taking skills, time management, etc.

Junior Shad Meier and the Kansas State football team signed autographs for fans at the popular Fan Appreciation Day at KSU Stadium.

Twenty-nine Kansas State football players were named to the 1998 Big 12 Conference Commissioner's Honor, which recognizes student-athletes who maintained a 3.0 GPA or higher that semester.

- Redshirt decisions

Educational Supportive Services

- Program that helps students develop learning and intricate thinking skills.

- Provides the following free services:
 - Academic and Personal Counseling
 - Career Planning
 - Study Skills Lab
 - Tutoring and Help Sessions
 - Financial Assistance

Scholarships

- In addition to many other scholarships offered by KSU, the Academic Achievement and Leadership Scholarship Program awards more than 140 scholarships to minority students who have demonstrated academic excellence and leadership.

"A person, in order to take the job at Kansas State, had to have more vision than anybody in the world, and that includes Bill Gates, to be willing to come into a program that was one of the most losing programs of all time and turn it into a team that has a chance to win a national championship.

"It has been my good fortune to know Bill Snyder for about 25 years. The more I get to know him and spend time with him, I become increasingly amazed at his ability to understand all facets of a successful operation. Whether it be recruiting players, hiring coaches, or making sure that academics are never sacrificed for athletics, it is my opinion that Coach Snyder is one of the rare people that could go into business or industry, and because of his people skills, be highly successful.

"The unsung factor behind Coach Snyder's success, in my opinion, is his wife Sharon."

—Gil Brandt, former NFL General Manager with the Dallas Cowboys and current NFL consultant

Why K-State

"I'm often asked why Kansas State University has produced more prestigious postgraduate award winners in the past 12 years than any other college or university in the country. To me, the answer is easy, I believe that we have on this campus quality, dedicated teachers who genuinely care about and are devoted to the education of the young people on this campus."

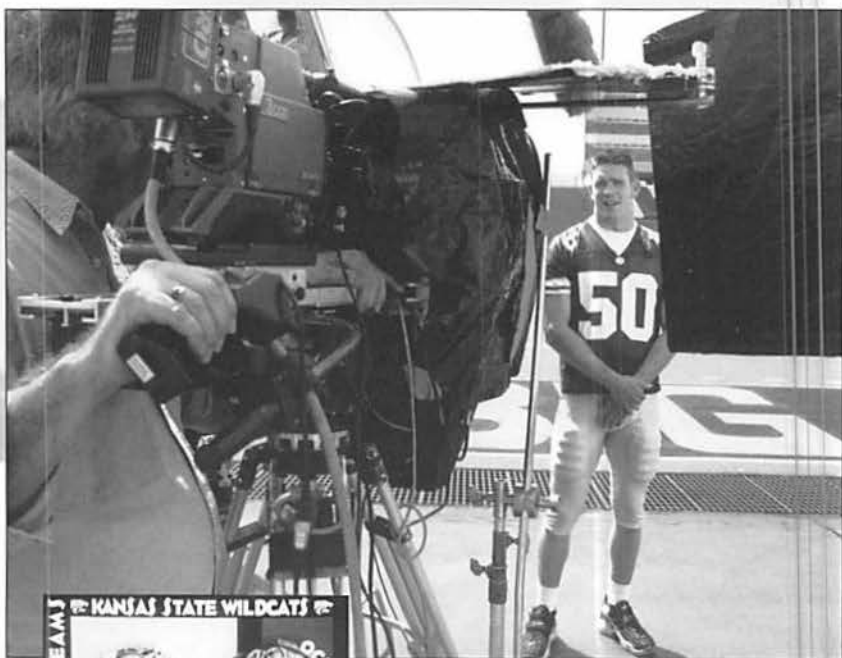

"I believe that we have a tremendous relationship with the Kansas State faculty because our football program shares the common goal of our faculty to create and provide the best possible opportunity for young people to achieve success in those areas of their lives that they deem most important."

— Head Coach Bill Snyder

- Most of the students receiving bachelor's degrees from Kansas State in the 1997-98 school year found jobs, according to a report issued by K-State's career and employment services. The report is based on annual post-graduation surveys of K-State's 3,064 bachelor-degree graduates in 1997-98, with 93 percent of the graduates providing information on their post-graduation status. The surveys found that 85 percent of the graduates had jobs or were continuing their education.

- K-State has been selected as one of the best educational values among public universities in the nation by Kiplinger's Personal Finance Magazine in its Sept. 1998 issue. The magazine's survey of four-year public universities rates KSU among the top 100 schools in the nation for affordability and quality of education.

- When it comes to a place to launch their careers, Kansas State University students are choosing Kansas, according to a study of students who received bachelor's degrees from K-State in 1997-98. The study, conducted by KSU's career and employment services, tracked 93 percent of K-State's 3,064 bachelor-degree graduates in the 1997-98 school year. Of that total, 85 percent had jobs or were continuing their education, with 56 percent of the students with jobs employed in Kansas.

KSU football players like Travis Ochs (above) and Head Coach Bill Snyder participated in a statewide crime prevention program last year.

- KSU's Student Governing Association was named the 1998 Outstanding Student Government by the National Association of Campus Activities. This is the third time in five years K-State has won. The winning application included the association's handbooks, brochures, newspaper clippings and one-page essays that answered questions about what SGA does, how it affects students and how they work with administration and community.

- K-State students have the opportunity to look on-line for academic advising help. On-line advising helps students think about the program of study, the courses and the university experiences that will best prepare them for their goals in life. Students are able to enroll in classes and view line schedules on the web. Even though the advising site is recommended for students and advisers to use as a supplement, students are still required to make an appointment with their advisers. Future plans are to offer more links to advising pages at each department.

"The prestigious private schools like Harvard, Stanford, Princeton and Yale attract students from nearly all of the 50 states. This means their students can compete for these top scholarships in their home states. This is akin to a bowling tournament where K-State is bowling on one lane since 90 percent of our student scholars are Kansans and can compete only in Kansas. The prestigious private schools are bowling on 45 to 50 lanes. Yet K-State is still in the Top 10, even against that king of tough competition.

"What our faculty and students have achieved here with Truman and Goldwater scholars in the last 10 years is nearly equivalent to our football team going to an alliance bowl game every year for 10 consecutive years; and our basketball team going to the NCAA Elite Eight or even the Final Four in each of the last 10 years."

—Dr. Jon Wefald, Kansas State University President

Academic Recognition

Kansas State University is the No. 1 public university in producing Rhodes, Marshall, Truman and Goldwater scholarship winners in the past decade.

The "Earthmovers" edition named 90 Kansans (or institutions) with the "political, business and/or societal power to literally make the ground shake on some issues."

• Since the arrival of Bill Snyder and his staff, 50 K-Staters have received recognition as Academic All-Big Eight/Big 12 performers. Kansas State also has achieved unprecedented success in the classroom during Bill Snyder's tenure. K-State is the only Division I-A football program in the country to produce winners of the National Football Foundation Post-Graduate Scholarship ($18,000) in three of the last six seasons. In the same six years, K-State has produced back-to-back first team all-Americans on the Hitachi/CFA National Scholar Athlete Team, five CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 31 first-team Academic All-Big Eight/Big 12 selections.

• KSU was recognized by the College Football Association three times in the 1990s as one of the top 13 schools in the nation for graduating seniors.

PUTTING THE TOP SCHOLARSHIPS IN PERSPECTIVE

◆ Over the past 15 years, only seven U.S. schools rank in the top 20 in all four of these major scholarship programs: Marshall, Rhodes, Truman and Goldwater. Among these seven institutions, only one is a public university — Kansas State University.

◆ K-State ranks first nationally among 500 state universities in both Truman and Goldwater scholarship competition since each foundation began awarding scholarships.

◆ The Truman Foundation recognized K-State in 1996 as a Truman Scholarship Honor Institution. This is the first time the Foundation singled out universities for the achievements in Truman competition. Only 17 schools were chosen from the 454 colleges and universities which have produced Truman scholars.

Academic Excellence

KSU FORENSICS: A DECADE AT THE TOP NATIONALLY—1987-1999

The past 12 years of competitive success in intercollegiate speech and debate experienced by students in the Forensics Program at Kansas State University cannot be matched by any other public or private institution in the country. Since 1987, KSU students have qualified for the elimination rounds at every Cross Examination Debate Association [CEDA] National Championship Tournament and for the elimination rounds at every American Forensic Association National Individual Events Competition. Over 500 colleges and universities have competed in one or both of these intercollegiate competitions during that same period.

- In 1999, K-State finished the year ranked third in the nation by NDT and sixth in the nation by CEDA. Two KSU debaters won All-America honors, while two K-State teams reached the elimination rounds at the CEDA National Championships with one advancing to the Sweet Sixteen. KSU won both of the J.V. National Championships.
- Kansas State speech squad members qualified in 42 events at the 1999 AFA National Individual Events Tournament. Placing eighth overall, KSU students also finished in the Top 5 nationally in extemporaneous and impromptu speaking and in the oratory competition.
- Since 1988, the KSU debate squad has ended the year ranked in the Top 10 nationally eight times and in the Top 20 two more times. Since 1992, the speech squad has ended the year ranked in the Top 5 six times and in the Top 20 twice.
- Since 1986, KSU has never failed to reach the elimination round of the top 64 teams at the CEDA National Championships. Thirty-seven KSU debate teams have reached the elimination rounds at nationals during that period.
- Since 1992, the KSU Speech Squad has won eleven national championships: three in oratory, three in rhetorical criti-

"At Kansas State University, we take pride in all our winning traditions. The success of our students in competing for scholarships at the national level ranks highly among these. We rank second among all American universities in the number of science, math and engineering students receiving Goldwater Scholarships.

"Our students have earned more Truman Scholarships (awarded for dedication to careers in public service) than students at any other public university in America. We are tied for second among state schools for the number of Rhodes Scholarships received since 1986.

"Six Wildcats have earned the opportunity to study at Oxford University in the last 13 years through their Rhodes Scholarships. Since 1984, Kansas State University ranks third among state universities in students receiving Marshall scholarships.

"Eight KSU Marshall Scholars have gone on to study at select British universities in such areas as Chemical Engineering, International Relations and Horticulture. Kansas State students have also won such prestigious awards as the Fulbright, Rotary, Madison, Mellon and Udall as well as the Skidmore, Owings & Merrill Foundation Traveling Fellowships.

"Over 90 percent of those scholarship winners are Kansans and these talented Wildcats bring pride to both KSU and the entire state of Kansas."

cism, one in extemporaneous speaking, one in oral interpretation, one in persuasive speaking and two overall public speaking championships [pentathlon].

- Since 1991, KSU students have won two debate national team championships, one debate squad national title, one varsity debate squad national crown and one top debater national championship. K-State has also earned six J.V. national debate championships in that time period.
- Since 1991, there have been only two years when KSU did not win at least one national varsity title in speech or debate, and in eight of the last 11 years, KSU has finished with a debater, debate team or whole squad ranked first, second or third in the nation.

Senior defensive tackle Damion McIntosh spent last summer working at Kansas State Bank in Manhattan as a part of K-State's "Hire A Wildcat" program. The program matches student-athletes with local companies that correlate with their academic major for summer positions ranging from summer internships to special projects to labor jobs.

Community Involvement

K

SU Football Players are continuously involved in programs, such as "Just Say No" to drugs and alcohol activities, in surrounding elementary and middle schools.

Student-athletes also have participated in programs in which young students are either tutored or aided in developing reading skills. These activities are now being organized by a Kansas State Speakers Bureau. Selected KSU players also travel the state as ambassadors of the program making speeches, greeting guests and developing marketing skills. Other programs include:

♦ KATS FOR KIDS – Wildcat coaches and players visit area schools to stress the "Stay in School" and "Just Say No to Drugs" messages.

♦ SENIOR CATS – Coach Snyder and many of his student-athletes visit area retirement homes and senior centers to visit with residents.

♦ JUNIOR WILDCATS – K-State players and coaches attend an afternoon of autographs and fun for young Wildcat fans.

♦ SPECIAL OLYMPICS – The Big 12 Conference has chosen Special Olympics as its primary philanthropy. Each season, Special Olympians are given special opportunities to meet with Wildcat players and coaches.

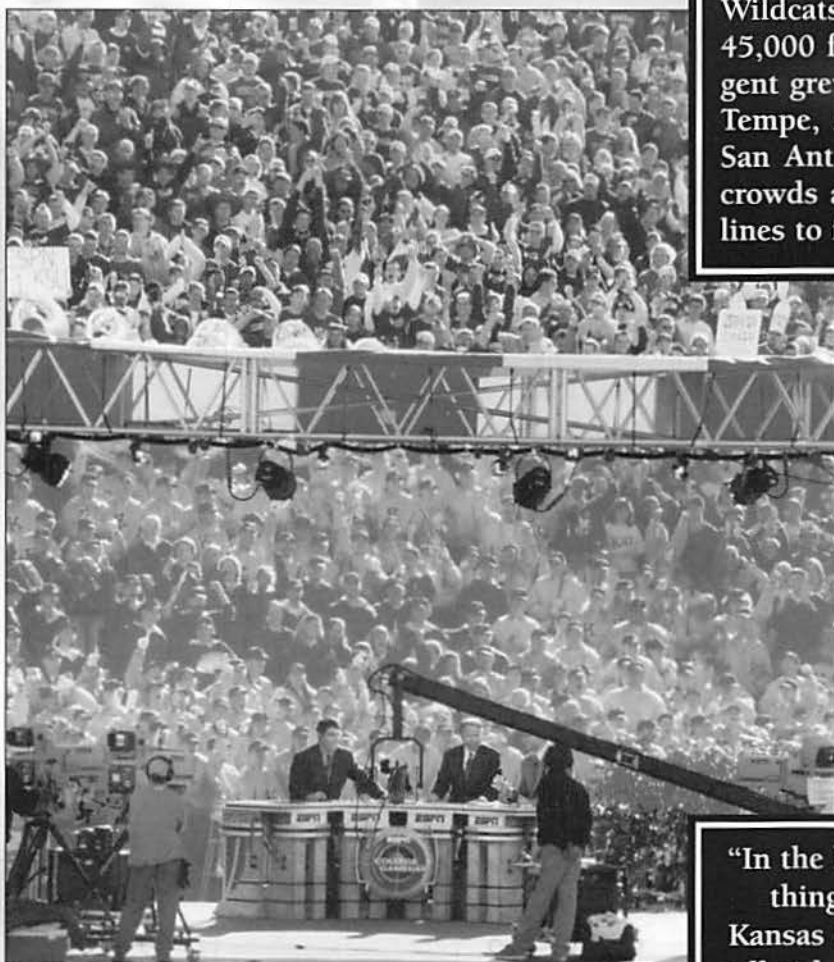

BIG BROTHERS

- Program in which each incoming freshman or transfer student-athlete is paired with an older veteran of the KSU football team.

- Social activities are planned for the group as well as the veterans providing guidance academically and in the community.

- The group also has become involved with the Big Brothers program in the community and at times hosts 30-50 little brothers from Manhattan for a day of football instruction.

Kansas State is supported both home and away by some of the best fans in all of college athletics. When the Wildcats played in the 1997 Cotton Bowl an estimated 45,000 fans traveled to Dallas for the event. The contingent grew to 50,000 for the 1997 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz., and an estimated 35,000 fans traveled to San Antonio for the 1998 Alamo Bowl last year. These crowds are believed to be the largest ever to cross state lines to follow a college football team.

More than 10,000 Wildcats fans showed up over six hours early for the Nebraska game in 1998 when ESPN's GameDay Crew broadcast live from KSU Stadium.

"In the last, maybe, eight to 10 years, I can think of two things that have lived up to their billing. They are Kansas State football fans and Michael Jordan. You can't sell either of them short and they both get it done. There aren't many things like that in this world today."

— John Junker, Executive Director Tostitos Fiesta Bowl

Why K-State

THE KANSAS STATE CAMPUS AND THE CITY OF MANHATTAN

A student-athlete's life involves more than academics and athletics. Like most college students, student-athletes need to relax and have a good time, and Manhattan is the place to do just that. Manhattan is a progressive community of 43,000 people located in a region which includes a total population of 75,000. A two-hour drive or half-hour commuter flight from Kansas City, Manhattan reflects the joys and opportunities of big-city living while retaining a friendly, open atmosphere. Manhattan has many appealing places to shop, eat and socialize. An award-winning shopping mall is located in the heart of the downtown region, and Aggieville – a district of shops and restaurants just beyond the southern border of campus – continues to be particularly popular with students. There are several beautiful parks and walkways throughout the city, while picturesque Tuttle Creek Reservoir sits just five miles from campus for seasonal swimming, water skiing and boating. Additionally, the 13,500-seat Bramlage Coliseum have become a favorite stop for major concerts throughout the year.

Peters Recreation Complex

- Over 90 percent of K-Staters use the facility featuring:
 - 16 racquetball/handball courts
 - 10 basketball courts
 - 10,000 square foot weight room
 - Dance/combat room
 - Sauna and locker rooms

Hale Library is one of the premier campus research facilities in the country. Coach Snyder and the K-State football program have supported Hale Library by donating proceeds from the annual spring football game to Friends of the Library. Coach Snyder serves on the Board of Friends of the Library and is a past president of the group.

- Planning and developing cultural and educational programs.

Golden Cats Program

- Keeps graduated KSU football players close to the program for years to come.
- Have an active player on the team who communicates by mail with members.
- Receives "special" communication with Coach Snyder and the athletics department.
- Return to KSU football program on special occasions.
- Spring Football Game
- Postgame receptions, etc.

As part of a more than $13 million stadium expansion, 31 new luxury sky suites were added on the east side of KSU Stadium over the summer.

The recently completed expansion raised the number of sky suites at KSU Stadium to 55. In addition, 2,000 club seats and the new seating area on the east side increase the capacity of KSU Stadium by 8,000.

Commitment

COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

- Starts at the top with President Dr. Jon Wefald
 - Attends practice sessions frequently.
 - Addresses team following practices.
 - On first-name basis with entire team.
 - Opens doors to recruits on official visits
 - May be the only place in the nation where recruits meet the president and dine in his home!

K-State has spent $14 million on renovation of facilities for Kansas State football student-athletes in the past eight years including:

- ◆ A $13.3 million stadium expansion project is scheduled for completion in 1999.
 - Includes 2,000 new club seats and nearly 8,000 permanent seats.
- ◆ Spacious $1 million Academic Learning Center completed at the Vanier Football Complex in 1996.
- ◆ 7,500 square foot Newell Strength Complex.
- ◆ $125,000 worth of new weight equipment (with six tons of free weights).

- ◆ Training facility.
- ◆ Renovated equipment area.
- ◆ State-of-the-art classroom facility with complete audio/visual hookups.
- ◆ Player lounge.
- ◆ Spacious locker room to accommodate all players including oak lockers, stereo system, telephone, steam bath and plush carpet.
- ◆ Study Rooms.
- ◆ Renovated Big Eight Room.
- ◆ New artificial playing surface in 1991.
- ◆ $3.3 million press box on the west side of the stadium featuring five levels, housing 22 sky box suites, 128 VIP club seats and seating for more than 100 members of the working press.
- ◆ Indoor Practice Facility with 94,000 square feet of practice space.
 - Building is 133.3 yards long and 76.6 yards wide, making it the largest in America.

A fully equipped weight room (left) along with modern meeting rooms (below) are just a few of the amenities that K-State's Vanier Football Complex provides.

From the spacious indoor practice facility to the 7,500-square foot Newell Strength Complex, K-State's football facilities are considered among the most functional and rated among the best in the nation.

Why K-State

KSU Indoor Practice Facility

K-State's indoor practice facility is the largest in the nation with a length of 140 yards, a width of 80 yards and a height of 80 feet.

A walking tour of the Kansas State Football facilities leaves most with a genuine feeling of amazement at the quality structures utilized by the KSU student-athletes and coaches. The commitment to excellence is never more evident than when one views the newly renovated Vanier Football Complex first hand. Among the impressive improvements: a 7,500 square-foot weight room, state-of-the-art locker rooms, a new training room, technologically advanced meeting rooms with the latest in video equipment, a players' lounge and game room, the Academic Learning Center (the most recent addition) and the newly remodeled Big Eight Room, which serves as the crowning jewel for the entire football complex.

The Big Eight Room

Superior Facilities

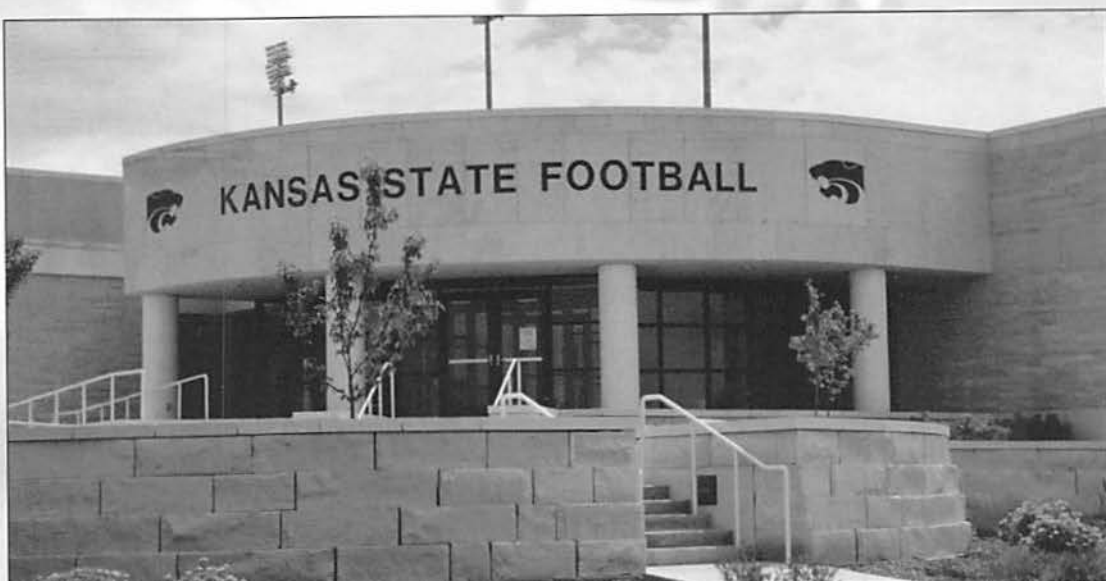

KSU Stadium/Wagner Field

Another phase of Kansas State's amazing upgrade in facilities was completed prior to the 1993 season with a $5.5 million project that included the construction of a full-scale indoor practice facility and a state-of-the-art press box, complete with sky boxes. We think you'll agree that K-State's overall football facility is second to none.

Also included in the long list of recent facility upgrades were three Bermuda Grass practice fields at a cost of $300,000, and the $1 million Academic Learning Center, completed in the fall of 1996 as an addition to the Vanier Football Complex.

"Bill Snyder has done a remarkable job in his 10 years at Kansas State. He started there the same year I started in Kansas City, and I have enjoyed watching some of the similarities in the growth of his program and our own. I have had the privilege of coaching several players like Kevin Lockett and J.J. Smith who have gone through his program, and I can tell you he produces not only quality players but quality people."

Why K-State

A LOOK AT KANSAS STATE

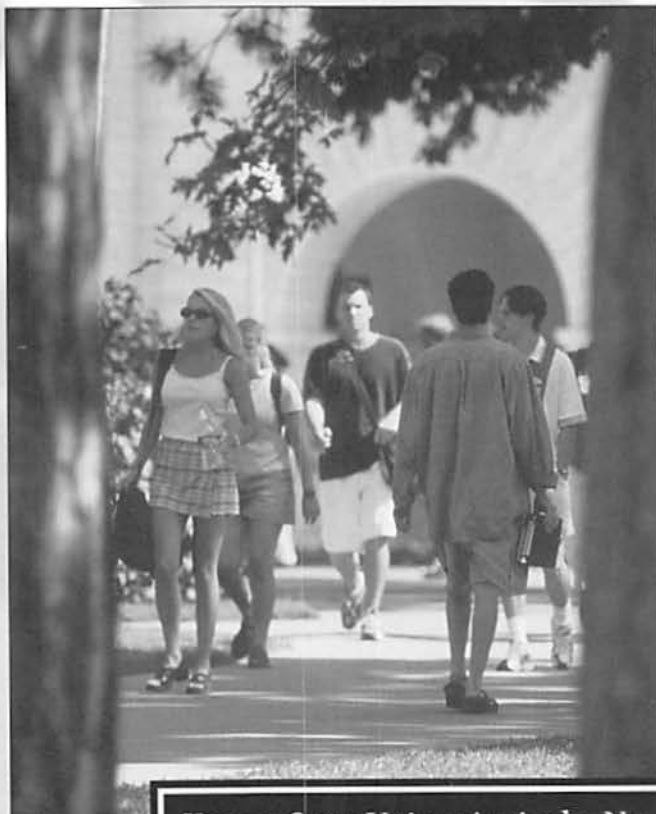

The University was founded Feb. 16, 1863, under provisions of the Morrill Act which established land grant colleges. It was initially located on the grounds of the old Bluemont Central College, which was chartered in 1858. The university moved to its present site in 1875. Historians disagree over whether K-State or Michigan State was the first land grant college in the nation.

The 664-acre main campus is in northern Manhattan, convenient to both business and residential districts. It is located 125 miles west of Kansas City via Interstate 70 in the rolling Flint Hills of northeast Kansas.

Under an enactment of the 1991 Kansas Legislature, the Salina campus was established through a merger of the former Kansas College of Technology with the university.

Additional university sites include 18,000 acres in the four branch locations of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Hays, Garden City, Colby and Parsons, and 8,600 acres in the Konza Prairie Research Natural Area jointly operated by the AES and the Division of Biology.

K-State accomplishments have far-reaching effects. Most NASA space shuttle flights carry K-State experiments aboard. Astronaut space gloves and the water-purifying system used on the NASA space shuttles were developed here. K-State is at the forefront of a national atomic physics research program that could mean nuclear power without nuclear waste. K-State is home to a national Center for Basic Cancer Research.

The university hosts the prestigious Landon Lectures on Public Issues, honoring the late Kansas statesman Alfred M. Landon. Since 1966 the series has featured more than 110 nationally prominent speakers. Past speakers include former Presidents Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan, who appeared twice in the series.

One of six universities governed by the Kansas Board of Regents, Kansas State University continues to fulfill its historic educational mission in teaching, research and public service.

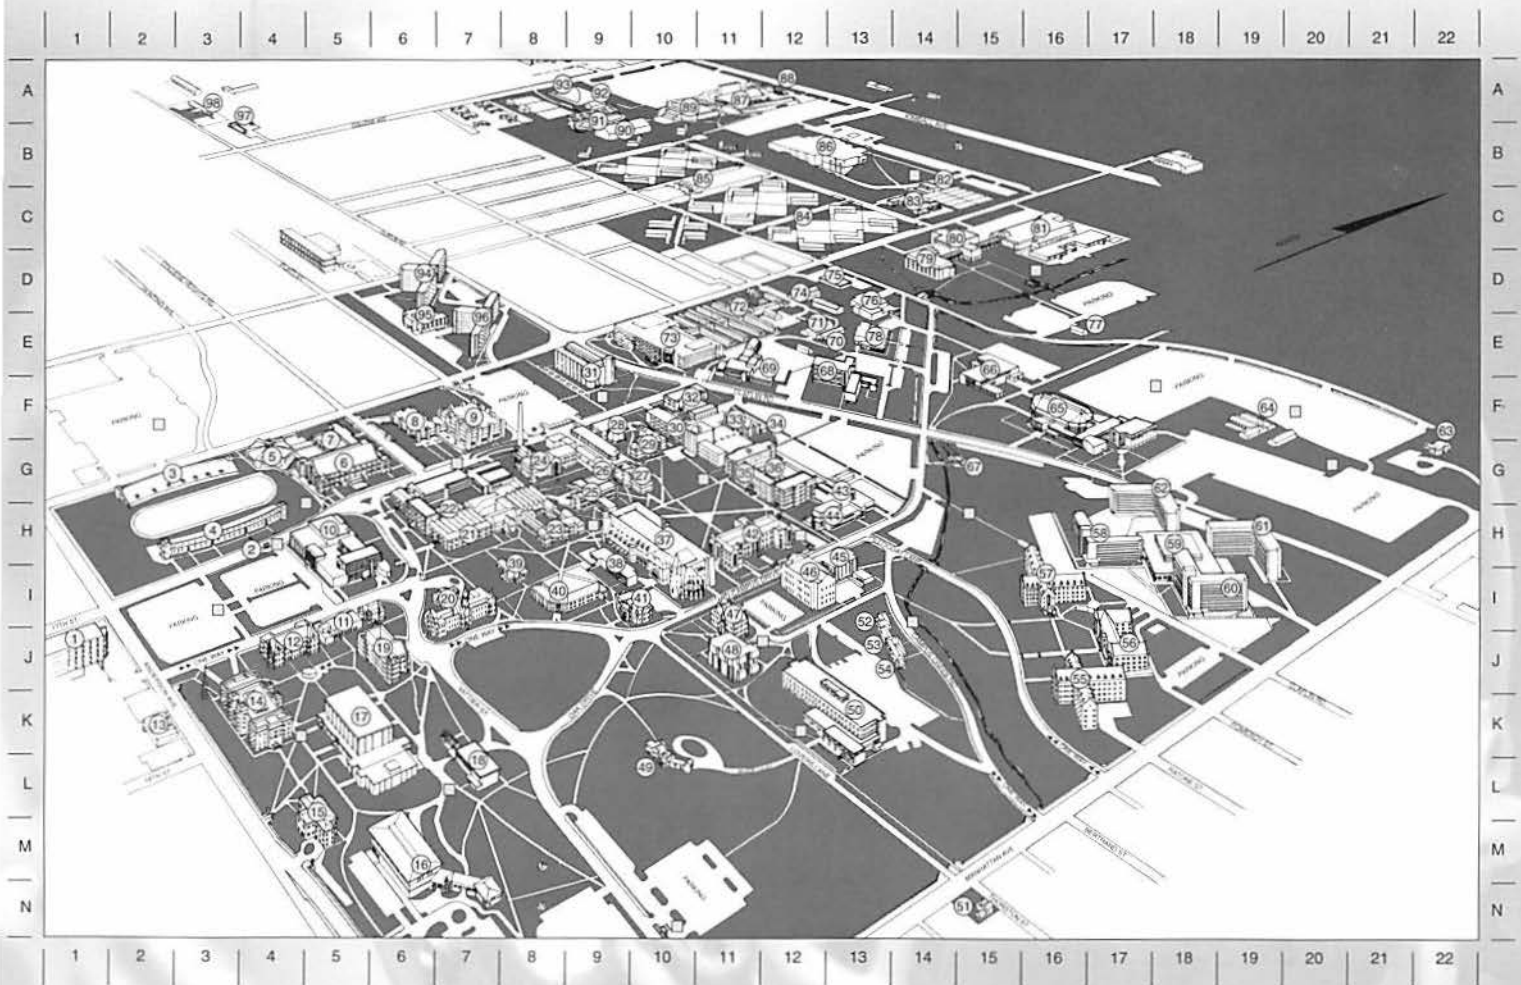

"The Kansas State University administration and the Wildcat football program work together as a team to provide the student body, fans and alumni with the highest quality educational and athletics experience possible. Just as K-State is the No. 1 public university in producing Rhodes, Marshall, Truman and Goldwater scholarship winners in the past decade, the K-State football team has established itself as one of the nation's pre-eminent teams year in and year out.

"All of us at K-State are proud of the excellence provided both in the classroom and on the playing field by the students and student-athletes at K-State."

K-State at a Glance

Lettermen Returning: 37 -- 19 offense / 18 defense.

Lettermen Lost: 26 -- 15 offense / 11 defense.

Starters Returning (10): Offense (3): WR-Aaron Lockett, C-Randall Cummins, OT-Milford Stephenson. Defense (7): DE-Darren Howard, DT-Damion McIntosh, LB-Mark Simoneau, CB-Jerametrious Butler, CB-Dyshod Carter, FS-Lamar Chapman, SS-Jarrold Cooper.

Starters Lost (12): Offense (8): RT-Ryan Young, RG-Jeremy Martin, LG-Brien Hanley, TE-Justin Swift, WR-Darnell McDonald, FB-Brien Goolsby, RB-Eric Hickson, QB-Michael Bishop. Defense (4): DE-Joe Bob Clements, DT-Andrae Rowe, LB-Travis Ochs, LB-Jeff Kelly.

Specialists Returning (0):

Specialists Lost (3): PK-Martin Gramatica, P-James Garcia, Snapper-Brandon Knowles.

Summer Roster Breakdown: 38 freshmen, 29 sophomores, 36 juniors, 13 seniors.

Offensive Formation: Pro-Set.

Defensive Formation: 4-3.

Kansas State has firmly entrenched itself as one of the nation's elite football programs and one of just six schools to win at least nine games each of the last six seasons. Despite the loss of several key seniors on defense, offense and the special teams, expectations continue to ride high in Manhattan.

Head coach Bill Snyder returns seven starters on defense, which should be the cornerstone of Wildcat success in 1999. Just four players who started at least six games return on offense, but many of the players competing for positions in 1999 have seen significant amounts of time on the field.

The Wildcats enter the 1999 season looking to replace Heisman Trophy runner-up Michael Bishop at quarterback, All-Big 12 selections Darnell McDonald at wide receiver and Ryan Young at offensive tackle, as well as K-State all-time leading rusher Eric Hickson, fullback Brian Goolsby, tight end Justin Swift and offensive guards Jeremy Martin and Brien Hanley.

Snyder and his staff, however, have plenty of offensive weapons to work with in 1999. Senior Adam Helm and junior Jonathan Beasley will battle for the starting quarterback spot along with incoming freshman Ell Roberson. All-America return specialist David Allen and former national junior college player of the year Frank Murphy enter the fall competing for the No. 1 running back and sophomore Aaron Lockett caught 44 passes for more than 900 yards as a freshman in 1998.

The Wildcats return the entire defensive backfield, including first-team All-Big 12 picks Lamar Chapman and Jarrold Cooper at the safety positions. All-America linebacker Mark Simoneau returns as a fourth-year starter. Defensive tackle Damion McIntosh was a second-team All-Big 12 pick in 1998 but could get a look on the offensive line as well. Defensive end Darren Howard earned first-team All-Big 12 honors in 1998 and needs just four quarterback sacks to set a K-State school record.

The Wildcats will look to replace all-time leading scorer and place-kicker Martin Gramatica as well as career punting leader James Garcia. Junior Jamie Rheem stepped in as place-kicker in 1996 when Gramatica was injured and should again handle kicking duties.

All-America return specialist David Allen returns for his junior season after leading the nation in punt returns in 1998. During his remarkable season, Allen became the first player in NCAA history to return punts for touchdowns in three consecutive games.

Four new coaches join the K-State staff in 1999, including defensive coordinator Phil Bennett, linebackers coach Jim Gush, defensive ends coach Bob Fello and tight ends coach Matt Miller.

The following pages will take a position-by-position look at the Kansas State Wildcats entering fall drills in August.

1999 Outlook

Wildcats by Position

Offensive Line ...

Lettermen Returning: 4 -- RANDALL CUMMINS* (13 C); MILFORD STEPHENSON (7 LT); Thomas Barnett* (6 RT); Ian Moses (2 LG).

Lettermen Lost: 6 -- BRIEN HANLEY (9 LG); JEREMY MARTIN* (2 LG, 11 RG); RYAN YOUNG* (7 RT, 6 LT); David McIntyre (2 RG); Tige Stone*.

O-Line in Brief ...

The Wildcats return three linemen who saw extensive action in 1998, including center Randall Cummins (6-3, 285), who started all 13 games. Senior Ian Moses (6-3, 285) has started during his K-State career and was a valuable reserve in 1998. Junior Milford Stephenson (6-2, 275) started seven games last season and has the versatility to play several positions along the front. Stephenson started the first seven games of the year at left tackle to earn his second letter.

Cummins established himself as one of the top young linemen in the conference, earning honorable-mention All-Big 12 honors in his first year as a starter. He was the only lineman to start at the same position in every game in 1998.

Offensive line coach Paul Dunn will look to replace two-year starters Brien Hanley and Jeremy Martin at the two guard positions, as well as first-team All-Big 12 selection Ryan Young at offensive tackle. Young started the season at right tackle before switching to the left side midway through the season.

In 1998, the Wildcats set school records for rushing yardage (224.9 avg.) and rushing touchdowns with 42 to rank 12th in the nation in rushing. The Wildcats ranked ninth in the nation in total offense with an average of 478.5 yards per game.

Junior center Randall Cummins is the only returning offensive lineman who started every game last season.

Senior Ian Moses (6-3, 285), who has started two games for the Wildcats, enters the fall as the No. 1 left guard. At right guard, several players, including sophomore Andy Eby (6-3, 280), freshman Steve Washington (6-4, 320) and junior Ryan Cummings (6-4, 280) enter the fall fighting for a spot in the starting lineup.

Freshman John Robertson (6-4, 280) enters the fall as the No. 1 right tackle and is backed up by freshman Chris Bailes (6-6, 270) and sophomore Dennis Jones (6-7, 310).

Stephenson is listed as the No. 2 center, while Washington got a look at the position as well in the spring. Sophomore Dan Divilbiss (6-1, 270) adds depth at center.

Senior Damion McIntosh (6-4, 310), who earned second-team All-Big 12 honors last year at defensive tackle, may get first shot at left tackle. Bailes also saw time there in the spring, and has caught the eyes of the coaching staff with his athletic ability.

Junior Grant Reves (6-6, 300), sophomore Matt Eck (6-5, 280) and sophomore Brent Boydston (6-3, 280) add depth along the front line.

Junior college newcomers Oshin Honarchian (6-5, 280) and Matt Martin (6-6, 255) are expected to compete for playing time and add quality depth when they arrive in the fall.

Snyder on the Offensive Line ...

"It might appear that inexperience is a factor with this group; however, Randall Cummins, Milford Stephenson, Thomas Barnett and Ian Moses have all been full or part-time starters. This should be a very competitive fall camp with as many as 10 linemen striving for a starting position. This is a young group that must mature rapidly into our system. Damion McIntosh, along with transfers Matt Martin and Oshin Honarchian, should figure heavily into the mix."

Damion McIntosh (77) was a second team All-Big 12 selection as a defensive tackle in 1998 but may play some offensive tackle in 1999.

Receivers and Tight Ends ...

Lettermen Returning: 4 -- AARON LOCKETT* (7 WR); Shad Meier* (1 TE); Martez Wesley* (1 WR); Brice Libel.

Lettermen Lost: 5 -- DARNELL McDONALD (12 WR); JUSTIN SWIFT (12 TE); GAVIN PERIES (8 WR); Everett Burnett (1 WR); Troy Hackney.

Receivers in Brief ...

Sophomore Aaron Lockett (5-7, 155) headlines the returning Wildcat receiving corps for assistant coach Greg Peterson in 1999. Lockett was second on the team with 44 receptions and set a K-State freshman record with 928 yards in receptions in 1998. He set a school record by averaging 21.1 yards per catch while grabbing six touchdowns. Lockett earned first-team freshman All-America honors last season and proved to be a scoring threat from nearly any spot on the field. Lockett showed his speed by finishing an impressive fourth place in the 60-meter dash at the Big 12 Indoor Track and Field Championships in February.

Sophomore Brandon Clark (6-2, 220) is the only other Wildcat receiver who caught a pass in 1998 returning this season.

The Wildcats will be replacing record-setting receiver Darnell McDonald, who led the Big 12 with 75 catches, 1,092 yards and nine touchdowns in 1998 to earn first-team All-Big 12 and third-team All-America honors. Tight end Justin Swift was third on the team with 23 catches, while Gavin Peries and Everett Burnett each had eight receptions.

Clark put himself in position to start at one receiver slot with a strong spring. Junior college transfer Quincy Morgan (6-2, 205) showed the ability to make big plays with a solid spring and enters the fall No. 1 at the other receiver. Junior Martez Wesley (5-11, 175) also separated himself from the group and will probably be the third receiver.

Special teams standout Brice Libel (5-10, 170) and three receivers from the 1999 recruiting class will provide depth and competition. Junior college transfer George Williams (6-1, 190) caught 49 passes for more than 1,000 yards last year in junior college, while Colorado natives LaRoy Bias (6-0, 165) and Derrick Evans (5-11, 165) both earned All-America honors at the high school level last season.

As Matt Miller begins his first year as an assistant coach, junior Shad Meier (6-4, 250) returns as the most experienced tight end, but has just one reception in two years. Sophomore Nick Warren (6-7, 255) saw action in 1998 as well, catching one pass, but had an outstanding performance in the spring game to show that he can contribute. Freshmen Brian Lamone (6-4, 245) and Cory Heather (6-3, 235) will compete for playing time as well after redshirting last season. Incoming freshman Thomas Hill, who earned All-America honors at the high school level last season will also add quality depth.

Snyder on the Wide Receivers ...

"Aaron Lockett returns as the leader of the group while junior college transfer Quincy Morgan will be a strong contender for a starting position along with Brandon Clark and Martez Wesley.

"K-State signed three wide receivers this past February to letters of intent. This group brings a tremendous amount of speed and quickness to the position. Of this group, George Williams, a standout from Butte Community College, will be looked to contribute in the near future."

Snyder on the Tight Ends ...

"With the graduation of Justin Swift, solidifying the tight end position becomes paramount entering the fall. Although relatively inexperienced, we feel we have a group that through hard work and dedication can provide us the same consistency that we have had from this position throughout the years.

"Going into the fall, Shad Meier appears ready to have a breakout year after serving as an understudy to Justin Swift the previous two seasons. His combination of size and athleticism is very exciting. Nick Warren also is another big target with whom fall drills become very important. An extremely tough and hard working player, we are counting on Nick to continue the giant strides he has made since arriving in our program. A key to the success of this unit will be the development of three freshmen, Thomas Hill, Brian Lamone and Cory Heather."

Running Backs ...

Lettermen Returning: 2 -- David Allen (1 RB); Frank Murphy*.

Lettermen Lost: 3 -- BRIAN GOOLSBY* (11 FB); ERIC HICKSON* (11 RB); Marlon Charles*.

Running Backs in Brief ...

The Wildcats and running backs coach Michael Smith will have to replace career rushing leader Eric Hickson and three-year starter Brian Goolsby in the offensive backfield. Hickson led K-State in rushing for the third time last year with 902 yards, while also setting a KSU record with 26 career rushing touchdowns.

Goolsby was a devastating blocker who was a major factor in K-State's ranking among the nation's leaders in rushing offense the past two seasons.

All-America return specialist David Allen (5-9, 195) will get the first look at running back after averaging better than 5.1 yards per carry in 1998 and leading the Wildcats with 83 yards on 13 rushes in the Alamo Bowl.

Aaron Lockett set a school record in 1998 by averaging 21.1 yards per reception.

1999 Outlook

Former junior college national player of the year Frank Murphy (6-1, 205) also will compete for a starting position. The fastest player in Kansas State football history, Murphy rushed for 257 yards and five touchdowns as a backup in 1998, while showing some impressive skills as a pass receiver out of the backfield.

Junior Chris Claybon (5-10, 180) and sophomore Eric Gooden (6-3, 210) enter 1999 looking to move up the depth chart. Junior college transfer Joe Hall (6-2, 265), as well as incoming freshmen Rashad Jackson (5-9, 180), Danny Morris (6-1, 190) and Rashad Washington (6-4, 210), will be on campus for fall drills and should add quality depth at the position.

At fullback, Johnno Lazetich (6-1, 245), who sat out last season in residency under the NCAA transfer rule, enters the spring as the favorite to replace Goolsby. Lazetich started as a freshman at Oregon State before transferring to K-State prior to the 1998 season.

Senior Ryan Payne (6-0, 235) and freshman Nick Hoheisel (6-1, 225) provide backup to Lazetich. Incoming freshman Brandt Quick (6-1, 235) will join the competition when he joins the team in the fall.

Defensive end Monty Beisel (6-3, 255) also saw action as a backup fullback in 1998, rushing three times for 14 yards and proving to be a reliable blocker.

Snyder on the Running Backs ...

"This should be a very competitive fall camp at the running back position. Both Frank Murphy and David Allen are anxious to settle into the number one slot, with the possibility that Chris Claybon and Eric Gooden may enter into the picture. This is a relatively inexperienced, yet talented, group. Each must develop the skills to become a complete player at the position. Focus, work habits and execution will become the determining factors.

"We are anxious to see Johnno Lazetich's work at fullback. His experience as a Division I-A starter at that position gives him the early advantage."

Quarterbacks ...

Lettermen Returning: 2 -- Jonathan Beasley; Adam Helm*.

Lettermen Lost: 1 -- MICHAEL BISHOP  (13 QB).

Quarterbacks in Brief ...

Offensive coordinator Ron Hudson has the unenviable task of replacing the most decorated quarterback in Kansas State history with the graduation of Michael Bishop.

Bishop, who earned first-team All-Big 12 honors and finished second in voting for the Heisman, earned the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback in 1998.

Junior Jonathan Beasley (6-1, 220) and senior Adam Helm (6-3, 225) enter the fall competing for the starting signal-caller position.

Beasley lettered as a backup in 1996 and 1997 before sitting out the 1998 season as a redshirt. He has seen action in 13 games and has thrown and rushed for more than 200 yards.

Helm saw action in nine games in 1998 to earn his first letter as a Wildcat. He completed 14 of 19 passes (74 percent) for 188 yards, while rushing for 50 yards and three touchdowns.

Sophomore Jeremy Milne (6-0, 215) provides adequate depth as the Wildcats await the arrival of incoming freshman Ell Roberson III (6-1, 190) in the fall.

Milne saw action in three games last season, completing his only pass attempt for 10 yards. Roberson is a versatile quarterback cut from the mold of Bishop who is equally dangerous as a passer or runner.

Whoever is standing behind center, expect the K-State quarterback to be productive. The Wildcats have produced a first- or second-team all-conference quarterback in eight of nine seasons in the 1990s.

Snyder on the Quarterbacks ...

"We certainly respect the difficult task of following a Davey O'Brien Award winner, but we have great respect for the young men who are in that position. Jonathan and Adam both possess qualities that fit well into our system. There are areas in which they presently are not as capable as Michael was last year, but there are areas in which they exceed Michael's capabilities. Both have a great deal of improvement to make, but certainly fall in line with the quality of player we have been fortunate to have in our program. Jeremy Milne and incoming freshman Ell Roberson will be given the opportunity to compete for one of the top two positions."

Defensive Line ...

Lettermen Returning: 5 -- Monty Beisel (2 DE); DARREN HOWARD  (9 DE, 3 DT); Chris Johnson; DAMION McINTOSH (13 DT); DeVane Robinson*.

Lettermen Lost: 2 -- JOE BOB CLEMENTS* (13 DE); ANDRAE ROWE (10 DT).

Defensive Line in Brief ...

The Wildcat defensive front returns experience and quality at every position.

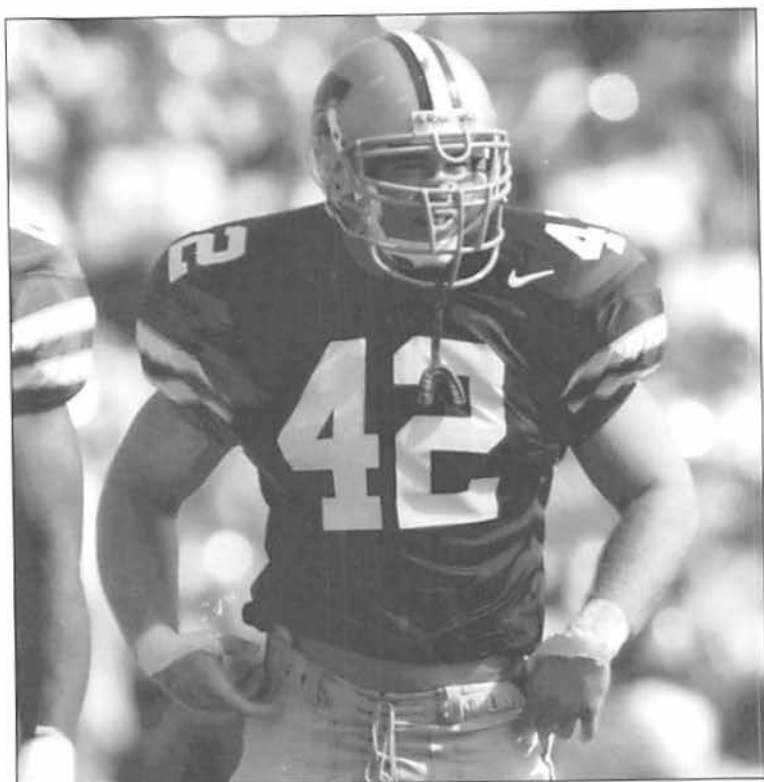

On the interior, coach Mo Latimore has second-team All-Big 12 pick Damion McIntosh (6-4, 290) at one tackle and sophomore DeVane Robinson (6-1, 270) at the other. Robinson was involved in the playing rotation in 1998 while earning his first letter.

Senior Nilijah McCoy (6-3, 290) will return after sitting out each of the last two seasons. He was cleared to participate in spring drills and showed the ability to earn a look as a starting tackle.

Jonathan Beasley returns from a redshirt year to contend for the starting quarterback job.

1999 Outlook

Snyder on the Defensive Line ...

"We will be taking a hard look at the defensive line in the fall. We must continue to improve the players at this position. Two-year starter Damion McIntosh is back but is also up for a starting spot at left offensive tackle. DeVane Robinson, who saw significant playing time in 1998, is expected to replace Andrae Rowe. Eric Everley, Nilijah McCoy, Jarvis Miller, along with junior college transfers Mario Fatafehi, who should compete for a starting role, and Anthony Bates, should add depth to this position.

"At defensive end, we will be watching to see who assumes the leadership role played by Joe Bob Clements, who graduated. All-Big 12 performer Darren Howard returns for his senior year along with Monty Beisel and Chris Johnson, who have had significant playing time. Melvin Williams, Cory Hoffman, Steve Altobello and junior college transfer Cliff Holloman will be counted on to provide much needed depth. Improving fundamentals and consistency will be focal points this fall."

Linebackers ...

Lettermen Returning: 6 -- MARK SIMONEAU (11 LB); Ben Leber* (1 LB); Travis Litton (2 LB); Shelby Wehrman; Jason Kazar* (2 LB); Turelle Williams.

Lettermen Lost: 3 -- JEFF KELLY  (12 LB); TRAVIS OCHS* (11 LB); David Conley.

Linebackers in Brief ...

In 1998, the K-State linebacker corps was generally regarded as the best in the nation with All-American Jeff Kelly and All-Big 12 honorees Mark Simoneau (6-0, 240) and Travis Ochs in the lineup.

The group did not disappoint, but, injuries kept the group from playing together in all but a handful of games, giving several younger players valuable playing time.

Simoneau returns for his senior season after leading the Wildcats in tackles last season and earning second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press. Simoneau enters 1999 as an All-America and Butkus Award candidate under new linebackers coach Jim Gush.

Sophomore Ben Leber (6-3, 250) stepped in when Kelly was injured in 1998 and performed admirably to earn the opportunity as the starting middle linebacker.

Senior Travis Litton (6-2, 240) enters the fall as the first player other than Ochs to start at that outside linebacker spot since 1994. Litton lettered in 1998 while spelling the injured Ochs in several games and proved to be a reliable player.

Junior Turelle Williams (6-0, 230) enters the fall backing up Leber in the middle and appears to have completely recovered from a leg injury that cut short his 1997 season. Junior Da'Von Brame (6-2, 220), who has missed each of the last two seasons while recovering from injuries, backs up Litton. Junior Jason Kazar (6-0, 225) started twice in 1998 while Simoneau recovered from an injury and begins 1999 behind him again.

Junior college transfer Warren Lott (6-3, 235) looks to return to the field in 1999 after redshirting in 1998. Lott was regarded as the ACC Preseason Newcomer of the Year in 1998 before ending up at K-State instead of Clemson. He will compete for playing time at both middle and outside linebacker.

Senior Shelby Wehrman (5-10, 210), a special teams standout each of his seasons at K-State, also adds depth to the position as a three-year letterwinner.

Robinson's playing time could be determined by whether McIntosh ends up on offense or defense. McIntosh is one of the best in the league on the defensive side, but could move to the other side of the ball to offensive tackle.

Sophomore Eric Everley (6-6, 315) will compete for playing time along with freshman Jarvis Miller (6-3, 280).

Heralded junior college transfers Anthony Bates (6-0, 280) and Mario Fatafehi (6-3, 295) will join the team in the fall to compete for playing time at tackle. Bates enrolled at K-State in the spring and went through spring drills.

At defensive end, senior Darren Howard (6-4, 275) returns as a bona fide All-America candidate for new coach Bob Fello after earning first-team All-Big 12 honors in 1998. He led the Big 12 in quarterback sacks in 1998 with 10.5 after finishing third in 1997 with 11. He enters 1999 needing four sacks to become K-State's career leader.

Freshman Melvin Williams (6-4, 255) enters the spring as the backup to Howard and has shown the athletic ability to be a future star.

On the other end, junior Monty Beisel (6-3, 255) enters the fall as the starter after rotating much of the time with Joe Bob Clements and Howard last season. Beisel was fourth on the team with 10 tackles for loss last season. An outstanding athlete, Beisel saw time at fullback as well in 1998.

Beisel will be competing with junior Chris Johnson (6-1, 265) who had an outstanding spring and will probably work in the three-man rotation at the position. He has shown considerable promise despite being hampered by injuries each of the last two seasons. Junior Steve Altobello (6-4, 250) is also providing depth at defensive end while freshman Cory Hoffman (6-5, 250) also is a prospect to watch at this position.

Junior college All-American Cliff Holloman (6-3, 265), rated as the top defensive end coming out of the JC ranks, is expected to give the defensive end position a big lift when he joins the team in August.

Snyder on the Linebackers ...

"With the loss of All-Big 12 performers Jeff Kelly and Travis Ochs, there will be a void that needs to be filled at two of the starting linebacker spots. Ben Leber and Turrelle Williams, both experienced players, are the top candidates to replace Kelly in the middle. Travis Litton, Da'Von Brame and Warren Lott will compete to become the heir apparent to Ochs at strongside linebacker. Mark Simoneau returns for his senior season to anchor the linebacker corps from his weakside position. At that same spot, Jason Kazar seems to have solidified himself as Simoneau's backup."

Defensive Backs ...

Lettermen Returning: 6 -- LAMAR CHAPMAN (13 FS); JARROD COOPER (13 SS); DYSHOD CARTER (12 CB); JERAMETRIUS BUTLER* (6 CB); Jon McGraw*; Milton Proctor*.

Lettermen Lost: 4 -- Keith Black; Jake Havick; GERALD NEASMAN (7 CB); DeAndrea Robinson.

Defensive Backfield in Brief ...

The K-State defensive backfield under new defensive coordinator Phil Bennett may be the deepest position on the squad in 1999.

All four starters from 1998 return, including All-Big 12 selections Jarrod Cooper (6-1, 205) and Lamar Chapman (6-0, 175) at the two safety positions. Junior Dyshod Carter (5-10, 185) started 12 games at one cornerback spot, while sophomore Jerametrious Butler (5-10, 170) started six and earned second-team Freshman All-America honors in 1998.

Cooper earned second-team All-America honors last year while making 86 tackles, including 13 tackles-for-loss, and leading the team with three fumble recoveries.

Chapman enters his fourth year as a starter at safety and has shown the ability to play cornerback as well. He has earned All-Big 12 honors each of the last two seasons.

Carter hopes 1999 will be his third season as a starter after making two interceptions last year. Butler moved into the starting role the final six games of the season following an injury to the graduated Gerald Neasman. His play earned him second-team Freshman All-America honors from The Sporting News.

Sophomore Milton Proctor (6-0, 200) stepped in as the nickel back in 1998 and served as a backup at strong safety behind Cooper.

Sophomore Jon McGraw (6-3, 200) lettered as a backup to Chapman at free safety and as a special teams standout in 1998.

At the short cornerback position, freshman Terence Newman (5-11, 170) and junior Adrian Beard (5-8, 175) enter the fall behind Carter.

Newman was listed on the depth chart the entire season in 1998 but never played to preserve four years of eligibility. A strong spring put him in position to compete for a starting job in 1999.

Beard had earned a starting role in 1997 as a freshman before suffering a knee injury in his first game. He saw limited action on defense in 1998, but saw plenty of field time on special teams.

Sophomore DeRon Tyler (5-8, 170) enters the fall behind Butler at wide corner following an impressive spring.

Tyler is a junior college transfer who sat out last year as a red-shirt. He played just one year at junior college to preserve three years of eligibility.

Snyder on the Defensive Backfield ...

"With the loss of only one two-deep member from the 1998 squad, we are excited about the possibilities of our secondary. We plan on working a number of different combinations in the fall to find our best group. The secondary will be led by senior Lamar Chapman and junior Jarrod Cooper, both returning All-Big 12 selections. Vying for other spots will be redshirt freshman Terence Newman, sophomores Jerametrious Butler, Jon McGraw and Milton Proctor, and juniors Dyshod Carter, DeRon Tyler and Adrian Beard. Both Carter and Butler have starting experience."

Specialists ...

Lettermen Returning: 1 -- Jamie Rheem.

Lettermen Lost: 3 -- JAMES GARCIA* (13 P); MARTIN GRAMATICA* (13 PK); Brandon Knowles * (13 LS)

Specialists in Brief ...

All K-State has to replace in 1999 is a two-time All-American and career scoring leader Martin Gramatica, career punting leader James Garcia and four-year long-snapper Brandon Knowles.

On the positive side, junior Jamie Rheem (6-1, 190) stepped in as the place-kicker in 1996 when Gramatica missed the season with a knee injury. Rheem sat out the 1998 season to preserve two years of eligibility.

At punter, freshman Travis Brown (6-5, 210) and sophomore Mike Ronsick (6-2, 185) will battle in the fall to replace Garcia. Ronsick punted once in 1998 for 36 yards.

Sophomore Neil Gosch (6-2, 242) moved ahead of classmate Matt Eck (6-5, 275) as the long snapper with a strong spring.

David Allen earned All-America honors in 1998 after leading the nation in punt returns. He took four back for touchdowns and became the first player in NCAA history to return punts for touchdowns in three consecutive games.

Allen enters 1999 562 yards behind Lee Nalley of Vanderbilt as the NCAA career punt return leader. Nalley piled up 1,695 yards in punt returns from 1947-49.

Frank Murphy and Allen and Lamar Chapman are all experience in kickoff returns with Murphy and Allen both averaging better than 26 yards per kickoff return. These three give K-State one of the most dangerous return corps in the nation.

Junior punt return specialist David Allen became the first person in NCAA history to return a punt for a touchdown in three consecutive games.

• K-State has been ranked in the Top 25 for 92 of the last 96 polls, including a current streak of 67 (including 22 straight in the Top 10) entering 1999. The streak of 67 is the second-longest current streak in the Big 12 behind Nebraska (290).

BIG 12 GETS SEVEN IN BOWLS

Seven teams from the Big 12 received invitations from postseason bowls following the 1998 season. That is the first time one conference placed seven teams in postseason competition. In addition to K-State qualifying, Colorado (Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowl against Oregon), Texas A&M (Nokia Sugar Bowl against Ohio State), Missouri (against West Virginia at the Insight.com Bowl), Nebraska (Culligan Holiday Bowl against Arizona), Texas Tech (Sanford Independence Bowl against Mississippi) and Texas (against Mississippi State in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl) all participated in bowls last year.

RAW NUMBERS

Kansas State will play in its 104th season of collegiate football in 1999 • When K-State takes the field Sept. 11 against Temple, it will be playing in its 968th football game, including the 118th under Bill Snyder • Snyder has coached more games than anyone in school history and also possesses the most wins (77) of any coach in K-State history.

CHANGES ON THE STAFF

Bill Snyder added four new members to the full-time coaching staff for 1999. Phil Bennett takes over as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach, Bob Fello will be the defensive ends coach, Jim Gush will coach the linebackers and former K-State quarterback Matt Miller will coach tight ends. Bennett and Fello both have extensive experience as defensive coordinators, while Gush was head coach of the highly successful Garden City, Kan., Community College program. Miller served two years as a graduate assistant before moving into a full-time role. Darren Holmes will move from student assistant coach to graduate assistant on the defense. Second-year coach Paul Dunn will coach the entire offensive line with Miller taking over the tight ends.

KSU STADIUM/WAGNER FIELD HOME COOKIN'

Kansas State has the fifth-winningest home record in college football during the '90s. K-State has won 45 in a row at KSU Stadium against non-ranked teams and 15 in a row against all opponents. Below is a list of the top home records since 1990:

1.	Florida State	49-1-1	.971
2.	Florida	53-2	.964
3.	Nebraska	56-3	.949
4.	Texas A&M	49-4-1	.917
5.	Kansas State	50-5-1	.902
6.	Tennessee	50-7	.877
7.	Penn State	46-8	.852
8.	Ohio State	47-8-1	.848
9.	Miami	45-9	.833
10.	Michigan	45-11-1	.798

BIG 12 RECORDS SINCE 1993

Kansas State trails just Nebraska with the second-best record among all Big 12 schools over the last six seasons with a 59-13-1 mark, including 35-10-1 in league play. Below is a list of Big 12 schools and their records since 1993:

	Overall	Big 8/SWC/Big 12
Nebraska	69-7	42-3
Kansas State	59-13-1	35-9-1
Texas A&M	55-18-1	34-10-1
Colorado	52-18-1	30-14-1
Texas	44-26-2	30-15

Baylor	27-39	15-30
Oklahoma State	26-39-1	12-32-1
Iowa State	11-53-1	6-38-1

The Wildcats have won 45 games in a row against unranked teams in KSU Stadium and 15 in a row against all opponents entering 1999.

Noting The Wildcats

RETURNING ALL-BIG 12 PICKS

Kansas State returns four first-team All-Big 12 picks on defense and one on special teams in 1999. Senior defensive end Darren Howard, senior linebacker Mark Simoneau, junior strong safety Jarrod Cooper and senior free safety Lamar Chapman earned first-team honors in 1998, along with with punt return specialist David Allen.

Simoneau earned second-team All-America honors by the Associated Press and Cooper was named second-team All-American by The Sporting News. Allen earned first-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), Associated Press and The Sporting News.

ALLEN POISED TO MAKE RUN AT RECORDS

Kansas State All-American David Allen enters his junior season needing 562 yards in punt returns to break one of the longest-standing records in the NCAA record book. Allen is chasing the career record of 1,695 yards set by Vanderbilt's Lee Nalley from 1947-49. Allen returned punts for 403 yards as a freshman in 1997 and 730 yards to lead the nation last season to total 1,133 yards for his career.

Allen also enters 1999 with five touchdowns on punt returns for a Kansas State and Big 12 record. He needs two touchdowns on returns to catch Nebraska's Johnny Rodgers and Oklahoma's Jack Mitchell for the former Big Eight and NCAA record of seven career touchdowns on punt returns.

RHEEM TO REPLACE ALL-AMERICAN GRAMATICA AS PLACE-KICKER

Junior Jamie Rheem enters 1999 as the likely replacement for two-time All-America pick Martin Gramatica as the K-State place-kicker. Rheem stepped in as a true freshman for Gramatica in 1996 when Gramatica injured his knee prior to the season opener. Rheem made five of eight field goals and all 43 PATs in 1996, and both PATs in 1997 to total 57 points for his career. Rheem handled kickoff duties for the Wildcats in 1997. He sat out 1998 as a redshirt to preserve two years of eligibility. Gramatica, the 1997 Lou Groza Award winner, finished his Wildcat career with a school-record 349 points.

HOWARD SACKING TO TOP OF LIST

Senior defensive end Darren Howard enters 1999 with 24 career quarterback sacks, just 3.5 shy of the K-State career record held by Nyle Wiren (27.5 from 1993-96). Howard earned first-team All-Big 12 honors in 1998 after leading the league with 10.5 sacks. That followed an 11-sack performance in 1997.

THAT'S A FULL HOUSE

Kansas State set a season attendance record at KSU Stadium in 1997 with an average of 43,091 fans at every home game. For the 10th consecutive year (all in the Bill Snyder era), ticket sales have increased. A record 36,000 season tickets were sold for the 1998 season, an increase of nearly 2,000 from 1997. During Snyder's 10 years at K-State, season tickets have increased more than 380 percent. For the last two years, K-State has averaged better than 100 percent capacity for the season. Attendance figures are sure to increase again in 1999 as a stadium expansion project at KSU Stadium will add around 8,000 permanent seats to the structure. Capacity for the stadium beginning in 1999 will be more than 50,000.

Here are season ticket numbers during the Snyder era:

1990.....	9,619 (+3 % from '89)
1991.....	11,578 (+20 % from '90)
1992.....	16,637 (+44 % from '91)
1993.....	16,801 (+1 % from '92)
1994.....	22,187 (+32 % from '93)
1995.....	25,743 (+16 % from '94)
1996.....	33,597+ (+31 % from '95)
1997.....	34,050 (+3 % from '96)
1998.....	36,000 (+6 % from '97)
1999.....	40,000 (+11% from '98)

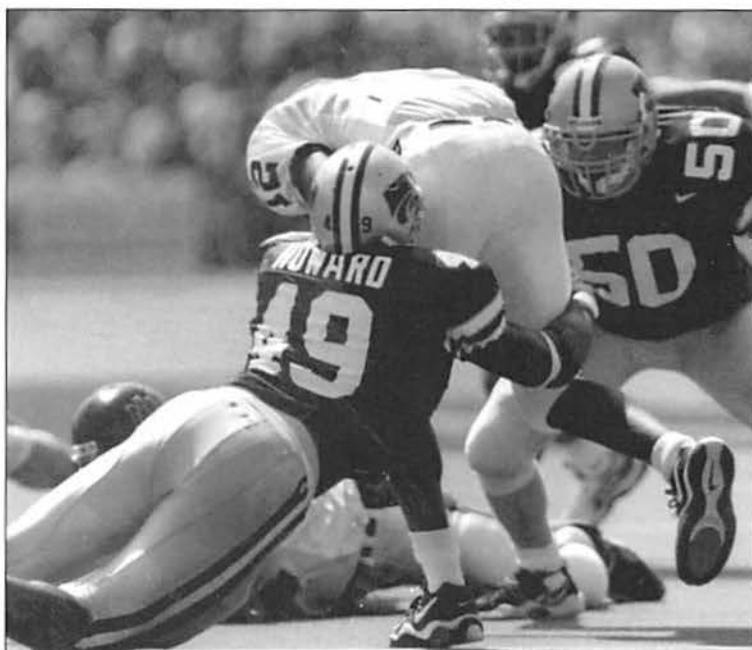

K-STATE TRENDS IN THE 1990s

Here is a breakdown of K-State's record in the 1990s when certain statistical numbers are reached:

100-yard rusher	41-4
Last Loss: vs. Texas A&M, 12/5/98
200 team rushing yards	34-0
Last Loss: vs. Oklahoma State, 10/29/88
300 team passing yards	12-3
Last Loss: vs. Texas A&M, 12/5/98
350 yards in total offense	55-5
Last Loss: vs. Texas A&M, 12/5/98
Leading after 3 quarters.....	71-5
Last Loss: vs. Texas A&M, 12/5/98

In the 1990s K-State is...

36-0	When the opponents score less than 10 points
50-3	When the opponents score 15 points or less
73-7-1	When the opponents score 25 points or less
3-22	When the opponents score 26 points or more
Since 1993 K-State is...
37-2	When the opponents score 15 points or less
57-5-1	When the opponents score 25 points or less
3-9	When the opponents score 26 points or more
57-6	When the Wildcats score at least 20 points
3-6-1	When the Wildcats score less than 20 points
47-5	When the Wildcats score at least 25 points
42-2	When the Wildcats score at least 30 points

Darren Howard (49) needs just four quarterback sacks to break Nyle Wiren's school record of 27.5 sacks.

Meet The Wildcats

Noting The Wildcats

TELLING STATS

• Red Zone Scoring – K-State has been a force within the red zone over the past few years. In 1998, the Wildcats scored 46 touchdowns and 14 field goals in 70 opportunities inside the red zone during the regular season. K-State's lone failures inside the red zone were when the Wildcats were leading Indiana State 66-0 in the fourth quarter and the drive ended on downs on the ISU 4-yard line and Martin Gramatica missed a 35-yard field goal into the wind against Northeast Louisiana. Against Texas, K-State once turned the ball over on downs on the Longhorn 1-yard line and also fumbled the ball inside the Texas 20. Against Kansas, the Wildcats missed a field goal. Against Baylor, K-State saw a drive end on downs at the two-yard line and missed a field goal. Against Nebraska, KSU turned the ball over twice and went out on downs inside the 20.

In 1997, Kansas State scored 34 TDs and kicked 12 field goals (92 percent) in 50 opportunities inside the red zone. Opponents scored on 22 of 31 (71 percent) opportunities (12 TDs, 10 FG). The four times K-State failed to score were twice while running out the clock in wins over Ohio and Missouri, once on downs vs. Kansas and once on an interception vs. Syracuse. Kansas State forced seven turnovers inside the opponents' red zone, including one in each of the last six games of the season.

In 1996 K-State scored 85 percent (34-40) of the time it reached the opponent's red zone including an 80 percent rate of touchdowns. Opponents scored 68 percent (21-31) of the time but scored touchdowns just 42 percent of the time.

• 100-Yard Rusher – K-State's loss to Texas A&M in the 1998 Big 12 Championship game snapped a streak of 30 consecutive games (7-1 in 1998) when a Wildcat rusher tops the century mark. The Wildcats were 5-0 in 1996 and 6-0 in both 1995 and 1994 when a runner topped 100 yards. The previous loss had come in 1993 against Nebraska when J.J. Smith rushed for 102 yards.

• Third-Down Conversions – Kansas State's offense has been big on third downs while the Wildcat defense has been up to the task also. The Wildcats converted nearly 50 percent (90-182) of their third downs in 1998 including 73 percent (11-of-15) against Iowa State. Defensively, K-State kept opponents to 26 percent in third down conversions by holding them to just 51-of-193. Five times during the season K-State held opponents to less than 20 percent on third down conversions including just 1-for-11 by Kansas. Here is a breakdown of conversions on third down in 1998:

Opponent	KSU	Opponent
Indiana State	4-12 (.333)	2-13 (.154)
Northern Illinois	9-12 (.750)	3-16 (.188)
Texas	5-13 (.385)	4-14 (.286)
NE Louisiana	6-14 (.429)	4-18 (.222)
Colorado	8-17 (.471)	2-15 (.133)
Oklahoma State	7-13 (.539)	9-23 (.391)
Iowa State	11-15 (.733)	4-12 (.333)
Kansas	7-16 (.438)	1-11 (.091)
Baylor	6-11 (.546)	4-13 (.308)
Nebraska	6-12 (.500)	4-12 (.250)
Missouri	8-14 (.571)	4-14 (.286)
Texas A&M	7-16 (.438)	7-16 (.438)
Purdue	6-16 (.375)	3-17 (.177)
Totals	90-182 (50%)	51-193 (26%)

1997 third down conversions:

Opponent	KSU	Opponent
Northern Illinois	6-14 (.300)	3-13 (.231)
Ohio	3-14 (.214)	7-18 (.389)
Bowling Green	8-14 (.571)	1-11 (.090)
Nebraska	4-15 (.267)	6-15 (.400)
Missouri	7-12 (.583)	4-15 (.267)
Texas A&M	7-17 (.411)	0-10 (.000)
Oklahoma	5-14 (.357)	4-14 (.285)
Texas Tech	6-20 (.300)	2-18 (.111)
Kansas	4-11 (.364)	4-18 (.222)
Colorado	5-14 (.357)	5-15 (.333)
Iowa State	1-12 (.083)	4-19 (.211)
Syracuse	7-13 (.538)	6-16 (.375)
Totals	64-171 (37%)	46-182 (25%)

In 1998 K-State's defense ranked third in the nation in total defense, allowing opponents just 268.3 yards per game.

• Scoring Early – K-State scored early and often in 1998. Against Indiana State the Wildcats scored 38 points in the first half and against Northern Illinois the Wildcats exploded for 59 first half points, including 34 in the second quarter. Against Texas the Wildcats jumped to a 35-0 halftime lead. K-State outscored opponents 300-69 in the first half in regular-season games in 1998.

In 1997, Kansas State outscored opponents 233-68 in the first half after building 42-7, 23-0, 20-0, 24-3, 16-3, 10-0, 6-2, 24-9, 27-6, 14-3 and 21-15 scores before the half vs. NIU, Ohio, Bowling Green, Missouri, Texas A&M, Oklahoma, Texas Tech, Kansas, Colorado, Iowa State and Syracuse, respectively. K-State trailed 20-6 to Nebraska at the half Oct. 4. The Wildcats held nine of 12 opponents to seven points or less, including three shutouts, in the first half in 1997.

Kansas State outscored opponents 187-72 in the first half of games in 1996.

Under Bill Snyder, Kansas State is 62-7, including 66-5 in the 1990s, when the Wildcats score first. K-State enters 1999 having won 31 of 32 when it puts the scoreboard to work first, with the loss coming to Texas A&M in 1998.

Noting The Wildcats

• Great Pass Defense – Allowing opponents to complete just 43.3 percent (141-of-326) of their passing attempts and giving up just 170.1 yards per game passing during the regular season in 1998, the K-State pass defense once again ranked among the best in the nation. The Wildcats' pass efficiency defense rating of 101.2 ranked ninth in the nation in 1998. Through 12 games, the Wildcats averaged 1.33 interceptions per game.

In 1997 the Wildcats held opponents to just 41.4 percent (99-239) accuracy in the passing department with only four TDs in 44 quarters. The Wildcats went from the second quarter of the season opener at Northern Illinois to the fourth quarter of game No. 9 against Kansas without allowing a touchdown pass - a streak of 33 quarters. Texas A&M was the only team in the nation to allow fewer (3) touchdown passes than K-State in 1997.

Jamie Adcock 1974 - 1999

On June 11, 1999, Kansas State student Jamie Adcock died from injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident in Manhattan. Adcock, who had just graduated from K-State a month earlier, served as K-State mascot "Willie Wildcat" for 2 1/2 years. A native of Salina, he was known for his creative pre-game skits at K-State home events. He did everything from impersonate Elvis Presley to ride into KSU Stadium in a miniature car. "This is a great loss for his family, loved ones and friends," K-State athletic director Max Urick said. "He unselfishly gave his personal time as he served as Kansas State's goodwill ambassador. No athletic-department event was complete without his involvement and refreshing spontaneity."

As a freshman in 1998, Ben Leber made 10 tackles behind the line of scrimmage from his linebacker position.

1998 Review

David Allen, who earned first team All-America honors in 1998, led the nation in punt returns while setting school records for punt return yards, punt return average and punts returned for touchdowns. He became the first person in NCAA history to return a punt for a touchdown in three consecutive games.

Game 1

#6 K-State 66, Indiana State 0

Manhattan, Kan. • KSU Stadium/Wagner Field

MANHATTAN, KAN. — Michael Bishop ran for two touchdowns and threw for a score as sixth-ranked Kansas State posted a 66-0 thrashing of Division I-AA opponent Indiana State.

Kansas State totaled 474 yards of offense while limiting Indiana State to 87. The Wildcats recovered three Indiana State fumbles, had one interception and limited the Sycamores to three first downs. Kansas State's 60 point margin of victory was its biggest since a 67-0 romp over Akron Sept. 23, 1995.

Bishop carried six times for 24 yards and completed 6-of-11 passes for 149 yards as Kansas State remained as one of just five Division I schools to win each of its season openers during the 1990s.

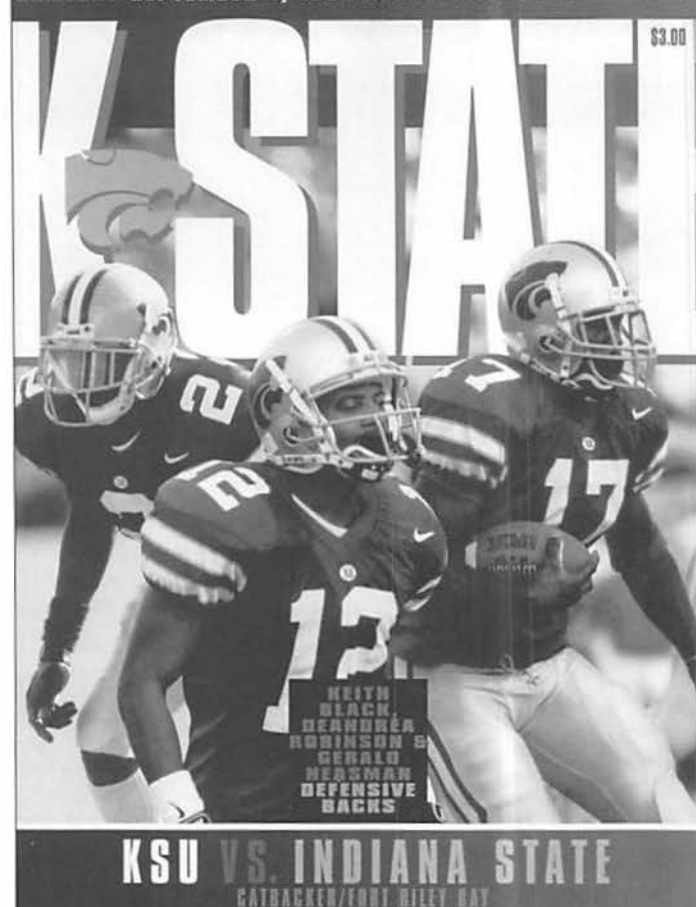

Indiana State has lost three all-time meetings against the Wildcats and fell to 0-5 in season openers against Division I teams this decade.

K-State won its ninth straight season-opener while Indiana State fell to 0-1.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- Martin Gramatica set a school record by making nine extra-point attempts and tied his career best with a 55-yard field goal.
- Eric Hickson ran for 109 yards on 18 carries to extend the K-State streak to 24 straight wins when a runner tops the century mark. He moved to within 522 yards of the K-State career rushing record.
- K-State allowed just three first downs in the game (one by penalty in the first half and the other two late in the fourth quarter).
- K-State tied a record for TDs with nine and came up one point shy of the school record with 66 points. K-State defeated Akron 67-0 in 1995.

GAMEDAY SEPTEMBER 5, 1998 KSU STADIUM/WAGNER FIELD

- K-State became one of just five NCAA Division I-A schools (along with Nebraska, Ohio State, Florida State and Florida) to win each of its season openers in the 1990s.

Game 2

#5 K-State 73, Northern Illinois 7

Manhattan, Kan. • KSU Stadium/Wagner Field

MANHATTAN, KAN. – In a game where the Wildcats scored 73 points, three of those points stood out more than the rest. Kicker Martin Gramatica, the 1997 Lou Groza Award winner and a candidate for the 1998 award, booted a 65-yard field goal with two seconds remaining in the first half. That kick tied for the fourth longest in NCAA history and is the longest since the kicking tee was disallowed in 1989.

K-State jumped out to a 14-0 lead behind a David Allen 1-yard touchdown run and then Allen returned a punt 69 yards for another score. The Huskies rallied with a 13-play, 80-yard drive to bring the score to within seven points. K-State responded to score 45 more points in the half and then cruised to a 73-7 win.

The win moved K-State's record to 2-0 on the young season while Northern Illinois fell to 0-2 on the year.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- K-State's 73 points were the most scored by a Wildcat team in the modern era. The old record was 67 against Akron in 1995. K-State also set a record for most points in a half with 59 first-half points.
- Martin Gramatica's 65-yard field goal was a school and Big 12 record. It is tied for the fourth longest in NCAA history and is the longest without a kicking tee. The NFL record is 63 yards.
- Martin Gramatica set a school record for points in a game by a kicker with 16 points, breaking his previous record of 14.
- K-State set a school record with nine touchdowns and nine PATs.
- David Allen returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown. It was the second time in 1998 he returned a punt for a score.

Game 3

#5/4 K-State 48, Texas 7

Manhattan, Kan. • KSU Stadium/Wagner Field

MANHATTAN, KAN. — Kansas State versus Texas was a game that featured the nation's top defense going against one of the leading candidates for the Heisman Trophy. When the dust settled, it was the Wildcat defense still standing as KSU beat the visiting Longhorns 48-7.

Texas' Ricky Williams, who entered the game as the nation's top running back by averaging 237.5 yards per game, was held to just 43 yards on 25 carries by K-State's top-ranked defense. Eric Hickson stole the offensive show as the senior running back raced for 124 yards on 16 carries including a 44-yard touchdown romp for K-State's first score.

Hickson's touchdown was the game's lone points in the first quarter. The Wildcats then exploded for 28 points in the second quarter to take a 35-0 halftime lead.

The win improved K-State's record to 3-0 on the season and 1-0 in the Big 12 Conference while Texas dropped to 1-2 and 0-1 in the league.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- David Allen's 93-yard punt return for a touchdown was the second longest in school history. He became K-State's all-time punt return yardage leader with 172 return yards on the day to set K-State and Big 12 records. It was the fourth time in his career he returned a punt for a touchdown which also gave him the KSU career record for punt return touchdowns. He became the first person in NCAA history to return a punt for a touchdown in three straight games.
- David Allen was named the Big 12 Conference Special Teams Player-of-the-Week.
- K-State opened the season with a 3-0 record for the seventh-straight season and ran its winning streak to 11 wins.
- Michael Bishop passed Stan Weber on K-State's list for career rushing yards by a quarterback.

Game 4

#5/3 K-State 62, Northeast Louisiana 7

Manhattan, Kan. • KSU Stadium/Wagner Field

MANHATTAN, KAN. — After taking a 17-7 lead into the locker room at half time, the Wildcats overcame their sluggish start to score 45 second-half points on their way to a 62-7 win over Northeast Louisiana at KSU Stadium.

Quarterback Michael Bishop had a career day to help kickstart the Wildcats. Bishop posted career bests for passing yardage, attempts and completions. Wide receiver Aaron Lockett was the primary beneficiary of Bishop's career marks as the freshman caught six passes for 188 yards and two touchdowns including a 97-yard touchdown strike in the third quarter.

K-State improved to 4-0 on the season while running its winning streak to 12 games. Since 1993, the Wildcats are 24-2 against non-conference foes. The Indians fell to 2-2 on the year.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- Michael Bishop threw for a career-high 441 yards while completing 23 of 40 passes (both career highs) and four touchdowns to tie a school record. His 441 yards passing is second on the K-State single-game record books. Bishop's 475 yards of total offense set a school record.

- Michael Bishop connected with wide receiver Aaron Lockett for a 97-yard touchdown strike. That set a record for the longest pass play in school history.

- K-State's 259 points in it's first four games represents the greatest four-game scoring spree in school history. It is also the first time in school history that K-State has scored 40 points or more in four consecutive games.

- Eric Hickson's three rushing touchdowns improved his career total to 22 career rushing touchdowns. His career total of 22 ranks second on K-State's career rushing touchdown list behind Mack Herron's school record of 23.

Game 5

#5/4 K-State 16, #14 Colorado 9

October 10, 1998

Boulder, Colo. • Folsom Field

BOULDER, COLO. – Kansas State relied on its stout defense to hold on for a 16-9 win at Colorado's Folsom Field. The win was the Wildcats' first in Boulder since 1973 and just K-State's third ever against the Buffaloes in Boulder.

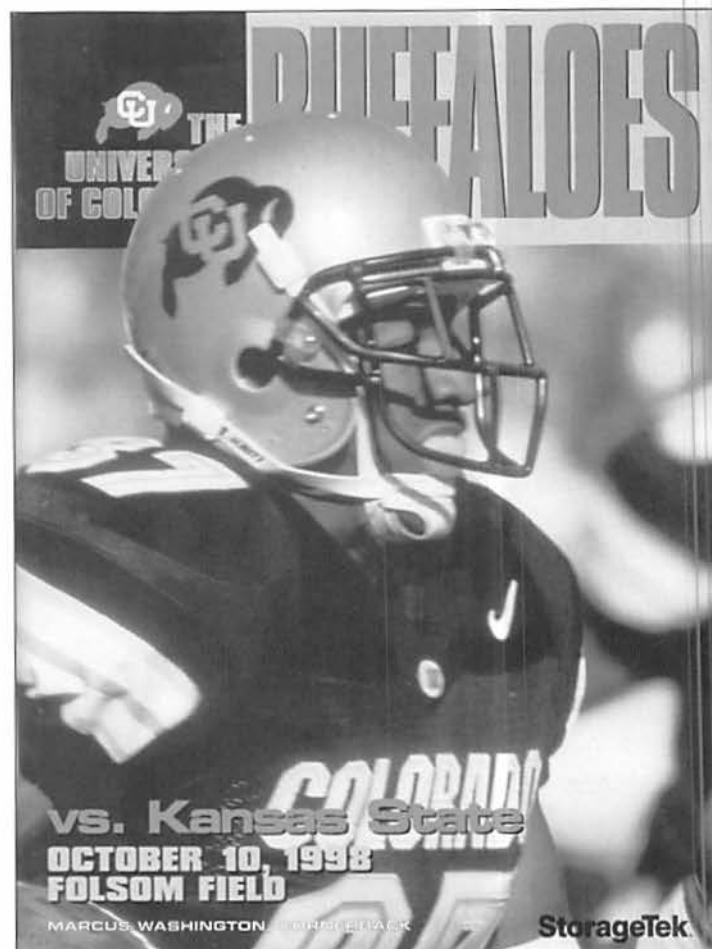

The Kansas State defense, which entered the nation ranked first in the nation in total defense, held Colorado to 262 yards including just 37 yards rushing. Meanwhile, the CU defense also stood firm in holding K-State to 332 yards of total offense.

Colorado rallied from a 16-0 deficit in the fourth quarter to bring the score to within a touchdown, but the Wildcats ran out the clock and escaped with the win.

K-State improved to 5-0 overall with the win and 2-0 in the Big 12. Colorado suffered its first defeat of the season in falling to 5-1 on the year and 2-1 in the league.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- David Allen became K-State's single-season punt return yardage leader with 15 yards on the night. Allen's season total of 415 yards beat his previous record of 403 yards set in 1997.
- K-State tied a school record by improving its winning streak to 13 games. The Wildcats also won 13 consecutive games during the 1909 and 1910 seasons.
- Joe Bob Clements tied a school record with three sacks on the night. Clements had just 2.5 career sacks entering the game.
- The win is K-State's first against a ranked opponent on the road since the Wildcats beat No. 25 Oklahoma, 37-20, on Oct. 24, 1994 in Norman.
- Martin Gramatica tied a school record with three field goals in the game. He holds the record along with several others. It is the sixth time he has booted three field goals in a game.

- Eric Hickson recorded his third game of the season with 100 or more yards rushing and moved his career total over the 2,000 yard mark. He is just the fourth Wildcat ever to rush for more than 2,000 yards in their career.
- K-State's 10 first half point is its lowest first half output of the season and the lowest in the last eight games.

Game 6

#4/3 K-State 52, Oklahoma State 20

October 17, 1998

Manhattan, Kan. • KSU Stadium/Wagner Field

MANHATTAN, KAN. – The Wildcats used a big play offense to defeat the visiting Oklahoma State Cowboys, 52-20, at KSU Stadium. K-State scored on plays of 59, 81, 46 and 22 yards, respectively.

Freshman wide receiver Aaron Lockett had five catches for 167 yards on the day including touchdown catches of 59 and 81 yards. Frank Murphy, playing in his first game at KSU Stadium, scored a touchdown on a 46-yard strike from quarterback Michael Bishop. Running back Eric Hickson completed the scoring with his 23rd career rushing touchdown when he scored on a 22-yard scamper into the end zone.

Kansas State improved to 6-0 overall and 3-0 in the Big 12 Conference with the win while Oklahoma State fell to 2-4 overall and 1-3 in the league.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- The win was K-State's 14th consecutive victory which breaks the school record of 13 consecutive wins during the 1909 and 1910 seasons. It was K-State's 10th straight win against a Big 12 opponent and the 44th straight win at KSU Stadium against a non-ranked opponent.
- K-State opened the season with a 6-0 record for the second time under head coach Bill Snyder and just the third time in school history. The other times K-State began the season with six straight wins was in 1995 and 1910.
- Michael Bishop became the all-time quarterback rushing leader with 820 career yards, passing Stan Weber's mark of 792 yards. Bishop finished the day with 89 yards rushing and 376 yards of total offense which ranks sixth all-time at K-State.

Game 7

#4/3 K-State 52, Iowa State 7

October 24, 1998

Manhattan, Kan. • KSU Stadium/Wagner Field

MANHATTAN, KAN. – The Wildcats were models for drive efficiency as they defeated the visiting Iowa State Cyclones, 52-7, at KSU Stadium/Wagner Field.

K-State scored on eight of their 10 drives on the afternoon. The Wildcats collected seven touchdowns and one field goal while punting just one time and turning the ball over on downs once. KSU controlled the ball for more than 40 minutes and set a school record with 37 first downs.

Eric Hickson broke the school record for career rushing touchdowns with his 24th career score in the first quarter. In the fourth quarter, the senior running back became K-State career rushing leader with 2,268 career yards. He had 117 yards on 23 carries and one touchdown against Iowa State.

Playing without starters Jeff Kelly, Travis Ochs and Gerald Neasman, the Wildcat defense held the Cyclones out of the end zone until the 7:05 mark in the fourth quarter. Linebacker Ben Leber, playing in place of Kelly, led the Wildcats with 10 tackles while Jerametrious Butler, who was playing for Neasman, ranked third on the team with five tackles.

Kansas State improved to 7-0 on the season and 4-0 in the Big 12 Conference with the win. Iowa State fell to 2-5 on the season and 0-4 in the league.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- K-State opened the season 7-0 for just the second time in school history.
- K-State's 45 point margin of victory is its largest ever against Iowa State.
- K-State set a school record with 37 first downs.
- The Wildcats improved their school record winning streak to 15 games.

Game 8

#4/3 K-State 54, Kansas 6

October 31, 1998

Lawrence, Kan. • Memorial Stadium

MANHATTAN, KAN. — Kansas State routed the Kansas Jayhawks in the most lopsided win for K-State in the 97-year history of the Sunflower Showdown. The Wildcat defense held KU to just 44 yards of total offense while racking up 566 yards of offense on a cold and rainy afternoon in Lawrence.

Quarterback Michael Bishop returned to the K-State lineup a week after missing the second half of the Iowa State game because of a hip injury to run for 95 yards and throw for another 225 in K-State's 54-6 win.

K-State's defense held Kansas' offense to a school-worst 44 yards of total offense including just three yards rushing. On KU's second drive of the game, K-State's Jeff Kelly and Travis Litton sandwiched quarterback Zac Wegner that forced Wegner out of the game with a concussion.

The win improved K-State to 8-0 to start the season, the first time in school history that the Wildcats opened a campaign with eight straight wins.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- K-State won its sixth straight game against Kansas.
- KU's 44 yards of total offense was the lowest total in school history.
- Michael Bishop moved into second place on the K-State career touchdown pass list with one scoring toss while completing 16 of 26 passes for 225 yards. Bishop was later named the Big 12 Conference Offensive Player of the Week.
- Martin Gramatica set a single-game record by hitting four field goals and scoring 18 points as a kicker. He moved into sixth place on the Big Eight Conference's career scoring lists.
- The 48 point margin of victory was the largest by K-State over KU in the 97-year history of the Sunflower Showdown.

Game 9

#4/2 K-State 49, Baylor 6

November 7, 1998

Waco, Texas • Floyd Casey Stadium

WACO, TEXAS – Eric Hickson led the Wildcats with 108 yards rushing and one touchdown as K-State rolled to a 49-6 win over the Baylor Bears at Floyd Casey Stadium.

K-State struck quickly, scoring two times in the first four minutes of the game.

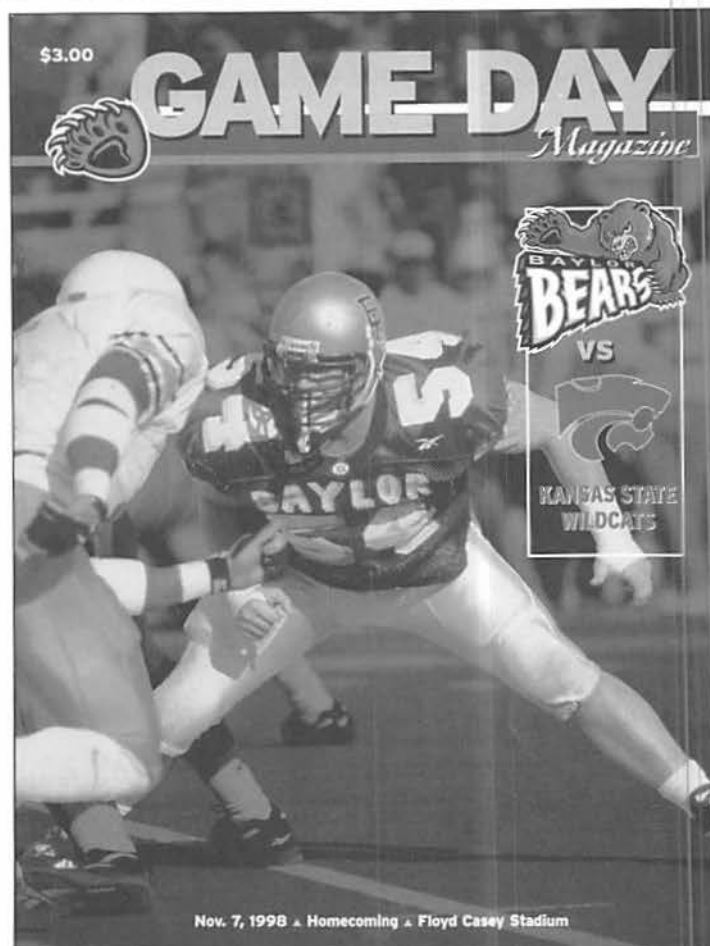

On Baylor's opening drive, Travis Litton drilled quarterback Jermain Alfred in the back causing him to fumble. Damion McIntosh picked up the loose ball and rumbled three yards to the Bears' 11-yard line. Two plays later Eric Hickson rushed into the end zone to give K-State the early 6-0 lead.

Baylor's next possession resulted in much the same as Mark Simoneau intercepted an Odell James pass near midfield. After two Hickson runs netted 14 yards, quarterback Michael Bishop located Aaron Lockett for a 37-yard touchdown.

K-State improved to 9-0 to start the season and 6-0 in the Big 12. Baylor fell to 2-7 overall and 1-5 in the Big 12.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- David Allen tied an NCAA record and broke a Big 12 and K-State record with his fourth punt return for a touchdown in a season. Allen returned a fourth quarter punt 77 yards for the score.
- Kansas State improved to 5-0 this season when a Wildcat rushes for 100 or more yards. K-State improved its winning streak to 28 games when it has someone run for 100 or more yards.
- Michael Bishop was named the Big 12 Conference Offensive Player-of-the-Week after throwing of 262 yards on 17-of-29 completions.
- Eric Hickson posted his fifth 100-yard effort of the season with 108 yards on 15 carries. It was the 10th 100-yard game of his career which ties him with J.J. Smith for most 100-yard rushing games in a career.

- K-State improved to 9-0 on the season. It marks the sixth straight season that K-State has won nine or more games in a season. Entering the season KSU was one of just six schools to win nine or more games in each of the last five seasons.

Game 10

#2/1 K-State 40, #11 Nebraska 30

Manhattan, Kan. • KSU Stadium/Wagner Field

MANHATTAN, KAN. — K-State came into the Nebraska game with high expectations of ending 29 years of frustration and it did just that with a 40-30 win over the Cornhuskers.

Nebraska opened the game with an impressive eight-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with an eight-yard pass from Eric Crouch to Sheldon Jackson. After recovering a Nebraska fumble, the 'Cats drove 55 yards in 11 plays and tied the score on a Michael Bishop two-yard run.

The Wildcats would have a hard time holding onto the football for the rest of the first half as their next three possessions all ended with Bishop putting the ball on the turf and Nebraska recovering each time.

It looked as if the Cornhuskers would take a commanding 17-7 lead to the locker room, but Bishop began his redemption by leading K-State on a seven-play, 76-yard TD drive to narrow the halftime score to 17-14 Nebraska.

K-State's defense flexed its muscle in the third quarter, forcing four consecutive Husker punts and picking off a Crouch pass on Nebraska's first five possessions. The K-State offense responded taking a 21-17 lead on a 17-yard TD pass from Bishop to Darnell McDonald. Martin Gramatica's 25-yard field goal gave the Wildcats a 24-17 lead, but the fumble epidemic continued for K-State as NU's Ralph Brown returned a Frank Murphy fumble for a touchdown knotting up the score at 24.

The Wildcats opened the fourth quarter with a 21-yard Gramatica field goal to regain the lead 27-24, but the Huskers answered right back as Crouch again connected with Jackson giving Nebraska a 30-27 lead. Michael Bishop connected again with McDonald as the Wildcats regained the lead, 34-30.

Nebraska had one last chance, but as Crouch moved around the pocket, Joe Bob Clements jarred the ball loose and Jeff Kelly returned it 23 yards for a KSU touchdown and a 40-30 win.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- K-State set a new home attendance mark with 44,298.

Game 11

#2/1 K-State 31, #19/23 Missouri 25

November 21, 1998

Columbia, Mo. • Faurot Field

COLUMBIA, MO. – The Wildcats completed the first undefeated regular season in school history with a 31-25 win over the Missouri Tigers.

K-State jumped out to an early 10-0 lead as Michael Bishop connected with Gavin Peries on a 10-yard TD pass and Martin Gramatica nailed a 48-yard field goal. The Tigers answered right back as they scored two touchdowns in the waning moments of the first half.

Corby Jones scored on a five-yard run and then connected with Kareem Wise on a 20-yard TD pass to give Mizzou a 13-10 halftime lead.

K-State came out in the third quarter and scored two touchdowns in less than five minutes. Michael Bishop scored on a one-yard run, and Frank Murphy scored on a nine-yard run to give the Wildcats a 24-13 lead. A Missouri field goal cut the lead to 24-16.

The Tigers struck first in the fourth quarter as Jones connected with John Dausman on a 20-yard TD strike. The two-point conversion attempt failed, and the Wildcats led 24-22.

Frank Murphy scored his second touchdown of the day in unconventional fashion. He was hit as he got to the goal line and the ball squirted into the end zone. Murphy alertly scrambled on top of the ball for the touchdown giving K-State a 31-22 lead.

A Mizzou field goal cut the lead to 31-25 and the Tigers got the ball back with a chance to drive for the winning touchdown but a fourth down pass from Corby Jones fell harmlessly to the ground preserving a Wildcat victory and an undefeated regular season.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- K-State improved to 11-0 for the first undefeated regular season in school history.
- K-State improved its winning streak to 19 games overall and 15 consecutive Big 12 Conference victories.
- The win was K-State's second road win over a ranked opponent on the season.
- Michael Bishop was named the Chevrolet/ABC Player of the Game.

Game 12

#2/1 K-State 33, #10 Texas A&M 36

December 5, 1998

St. Louis, Mo. • Trans World Dome

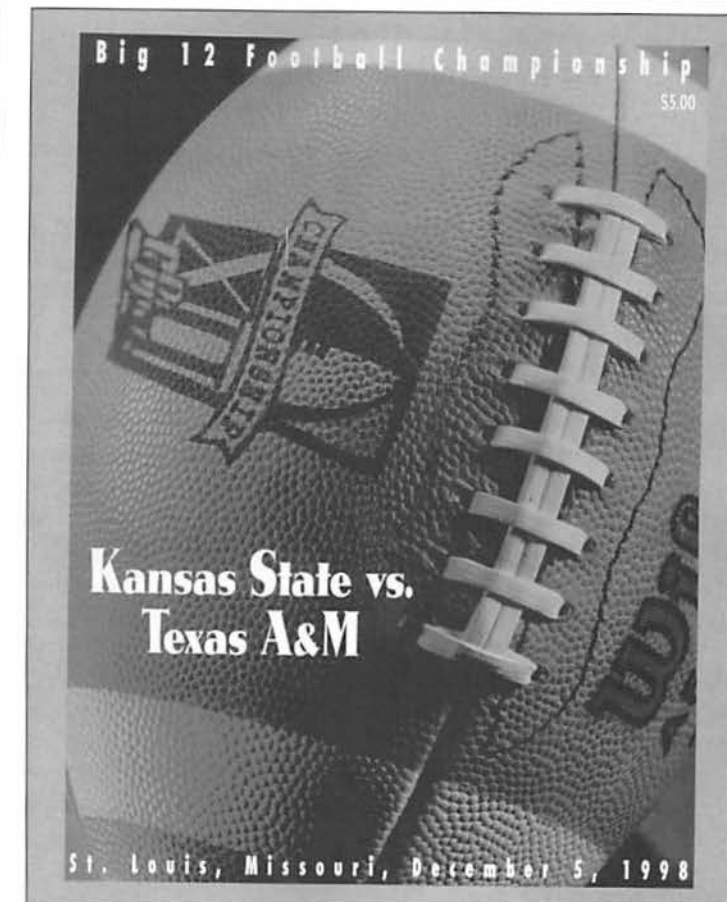

ST. LOUIS, MO. – Kansas State's hopes of its first conference title in football in 64 years ended in a 33-36 loss in two overtimes to the 10th-ranked Texas A&M Aggies. The loss also ended the Wildcats' school record 19-game winning streak.

The Wildcats led 27-12 going into the fourth quarter but the Aggies mounted a late rally. Texas A&M brought the score to within eight points when quarterback Brannndon Stewart hit Leroy Hodges for a 13-yard touchdown. With just over a minute remaining in the game Stewart connected with Sirr Parker on a nine-yard touchdown strike to bring Texas A&M within two points. Stewart found an open Parker on the two-point conversion to tie the score and send the game into overtime.

Both teams traded field goals in the first overtime period and K-State had to settle for a 25-yard field goal from Martin Gramatica to start the second overtime. On a third down and 17, Stewart again found an open Parker who scampered 32 yards for the winning touchdown.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- The loss ended K-State's school record 19-game winning streak.
- Michael Bishop became the first person in NCAA history to rush for 100 yards and pass for 300 yards in a single game two times.
- Michael Bishop broke Chad May's school record for passing yards in a season. Bishop, who was named the Chevrolet/ABC Player of the Game, finished the season with 2,844 yards passing. Bishop also broke May's school records for season (23) and career (36) touchdown passes.
- Martin Gramatica broke Mack Herron's school record for single season scoring of 126 points in 1969. With 15 points against the Aggies, Gramatica improved his season total to 135 points. Gramatica also moved into second place on the Big Eight's career scoring list with 349 points. His four field goals on the day tied the school record. He also set an NCAA record for kick scoring in a season.

- Darnell McDonald, who had six catches on the day to improve his season total to 75 receptions, broke Kevin Lockett's single season record for receptions and became the first KSU receiver to have 1,000 yards or more in a season.

Game 13 #4 K-State 34, Purdue 37 December 29, 1998 San Antonio, Texas • Alamodome

SAN ANTONIO – The unranked Purdue Boilermakers shocked the No. 4 Kansas State Wildcats in the sixth annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl in San Antonio. The loss was the second straight loss for the Wildcats after falling to Texas A&M in the Big 12 Championship game on Dec. 5.

More than 30,000 purple-clad fans cheered the Wildcats on in one of the most exciting bowl game finishes in school history.

Trailing for most of the game, Kansas State brought the score to within three points at 27-30 when Michael Bishop found an open Darnell McDonald for an Alamo Bowl record 88-yard touchdown strike. Then, with just 1:24 left in the game, Bishop found tight end Justin Swift open for a two-yard touchdown and a 34-30 Wildcat lead.

Purdue sophomore quarterback Drew Brees then engineered a six-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard touchdown pass to Isaac Jones to give the Boilermakers a 37-34 lead with 30 seconds remaining in the game.

Pinned back on its own two-yard line after the ensuing kickoff and a penalty, K-State saw its hopes for another bowl victory dashed when Bishop was intercepted on a desperation pass to end the game.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- Michael Bishop's 88-yard touchdown pass to Darnell McDonald in the fourth quarter was an Alamo Bowl record.
- K-State did not score in the first quarter for the first time all season.
- Michael Bishop's four interceptions matched his total for the entire season.
- Purdue scored 17 of its points off Kansas State fumbles while the Wildcats scored their first two touchdowns off bad snaps by the Boilermaker punt team. K-State recovered one bad snap on the one-yard line and the other was recovered in the end zone.

- K-State fell to 3-4 in postseason bowl games including a 3-3 mark under Coach Bill Snyder.
- K-State made its sixth straight bowl appearance.
- K-State suffered its first back-to-back losses since 1994.

Wildcats in the Super Bowl

Five K-Staters have made subsequent appearances in the National Football League's Super Bowl.

Super Bowl V

Offensive lineman Lynn Larson was playing for Baltimore when the Colts defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 16-13, at Miami's Orange Bowl. Rookie Ken O'Brien kicked a 32-yard field goal in the waning seconds to secure the win. Larson, who played for the 'Cats in 1968-69, played in the All-America Bowl, the College All-Star Game, the North-South Shrine Bowl and the Senior Bowl following his senior season. After his stint in the NFL, he played for the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League in '72.

Super Bowl VII

Running back Larry Brown, coming off an outstanding season, was on the Washington Redskins team that lost to the Miami Dolphins, 14-7, on Jan. 14, 1973, at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The win capped Miami's famed 17-0 season. Brown led the NFC in rushing that season with 1,125 yards and was named the Player-of-the-Year in the National Football League by the Associated Press. He again topped conference rushers in 1972 when he picked up 1,251 yards. Brown was a Wildcat in 1968-69.

Larry Brown

Super Bowl XX

Quarterback Steve Grogan played on the New England Patriots team that bowed to the powerful Chicago Bears, 46-10, at the Louisiana Super Dome in New Orleans. Grogan holds numerous Patriot records and has been honored for his humanitarian service in the Boston area. He lettered at Kansas State from 1972-74 and still ranks 10th in career passing (2,213 yards) and eighth in career total offense (2,798 yards). In 1973 and 1974, Grogan was afforded all-conference academic honors. Following his graduation, he played in the Blue-Gray Game and the All-America Bowl. He hails from Ottawa, Kan., and the high school football stadium in that community is named after him. In 1987, Kansas State retired jersey number 11 in honor of Grogan and Lynn Dickey, both of whom wore the number in their years at the school. Grogan was inducted into the K-State Hall of Fame in 1995.

Super Bowl XXI

Damian Johnson, an offensive lineman, played for the New York Giants team that defeated Denver, 39-20, on Jan. 25, 1987, at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Johnson lettered four times in his Kansas State career (1981-84) and played on the 1982 team that went to the Independence Bowl versus Wisconsin. He was named the most outstanding player on KSU's 1983 squad and also earned second-team All-Big Eight status by both wire services that season. He joined the Wildcat starting lineup five games into his freshman season and was never unseated. His string of consecutive starts reached 37 before he graduated. Johnson hails from Great Bend, Kan.

Super Bowl XXIX

The San Francisco 49ers became the first NFL franchise to win five Super Bowls with a 49-26 win over San Diego at Joe Robbie Stadium. But rookie WR Andre Coleman shared the national spotlight for the Chargers by setting four Super Bowl records, including a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Coleman finished with eight kickoff returns for 242 yards (both Super Bowl records) to cap a brilliant year that earned him All-Rookie honors. Coleman earned third-team All-America honors from AP following his senior season at K-State and was MVP of the Wildcats' 1993 Copper Bowl win.

Retired Jersey

Dickey and Grogan's No. 11 jersey retired

Lynn Dickey and Steve Grogan's jersey 11 has been retired by the Wildcats to honor the pair, who each donned that number while quarterbacking the Wildcats during some of the school's most successful football seasons. It is the only time in school history that a number has been retired in any sport.

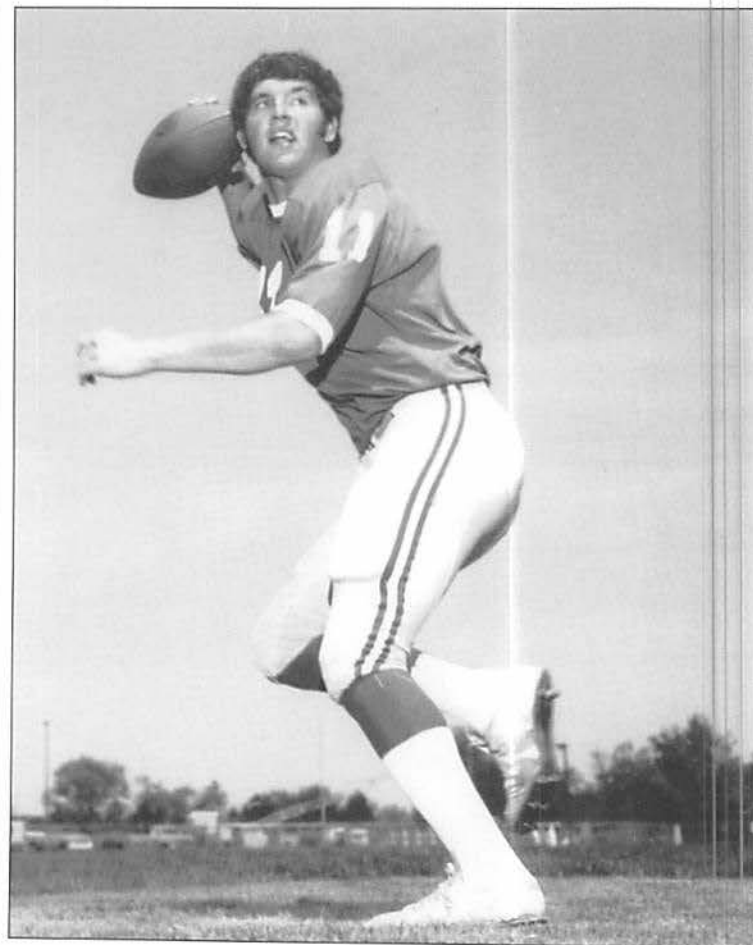

Lynn Dickey

A native of Osawatomie, Kan., Dickey spent most of his NFL career with the Green Bay Packers but also played several seasons with the Houston Oilers. He threw for more than 21,000 yards with the Packers, including 4,458 yards in 1983 which at the time ranked second in NFL history. He still holds numerous K-State passing records and ranks third on the Big Eight's all-time list with 6,208 career passing yards. He is also K-State's all-time leader in total offense. Dickey was chosen at the first-team quarterback on the all-time Big Eight football team in 1995.

Lynn Dickey's Career Statistics

	Att	Comp	Pct.	Yards	TD	Int
KSU (1968-70)	994	501	.504	6,208	29	64

NFL TOTALS	3,125	1,747	.559	23,322	141	179

Lynn Dickey was voted the starting quarterback on the Associated Press All-Time Big Eight Conference Football Team.

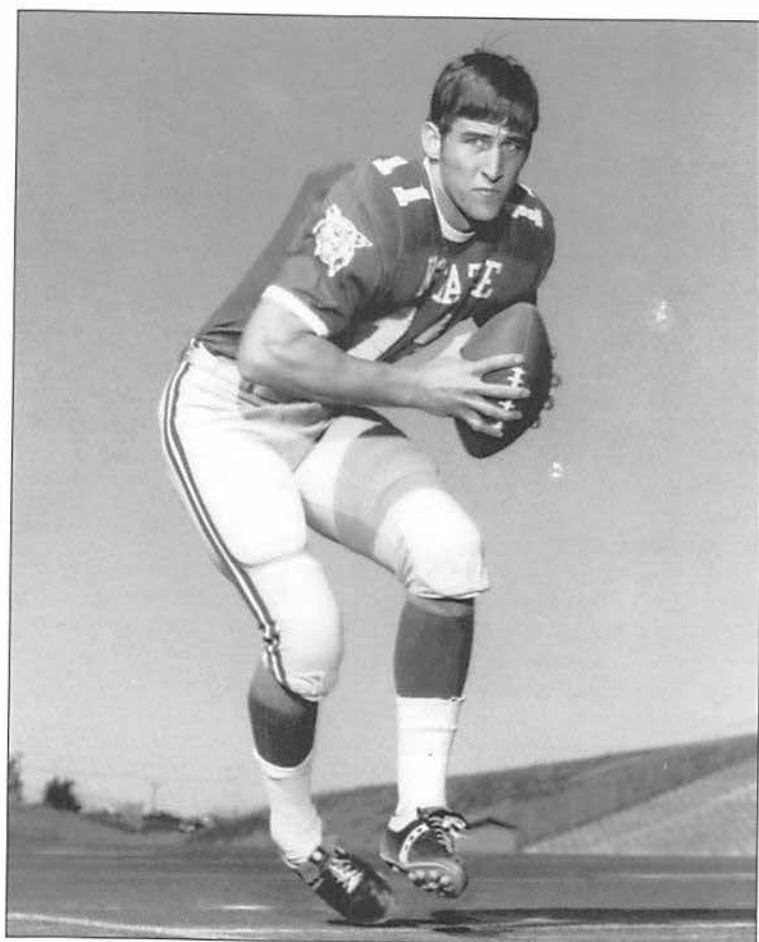

Steve Grogan

Grogan retired from the NFL following the 1990 season after an illustrious career with the New England Patriots. Grogan held nearly every New England career passing record, including yards (26,886) and touchdowns (182). He joined the team as a rookie in 1975 and led the franchise to its first Super Bowl appearance in 1986. A native of Ottawa, Kan., Grogan still stands seventh on K-State's career list for total offense and ninth in passing yards.

Steve Grogan's Career Statistics

	Att	Comp	Pct.	Yards	TD	Int
KSU (1972-74)	371	166	.447	2,213	12	26
NFL (1975-90, 16 seasons)
New England	3,593	1,879	.523	26,886	182	208

Steve Grogan stands among the career leaders on several K-State passing charts following a stellar career in Manhattan from 1972-74.

KSU Hall of Famers

National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame

Charles Bachman

Charles Bachman, who coached the K-State football team from 1920-27, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame Jan. 8, 1978.

Bachman began his coaching career at Great Lakes Naval Station in 1918 and led that team to the 1918 Rose Bowl title and the national championship. He moved to Northwestern University in 1919 before joining the Wildcats in 1920.

Following his departure from K-State, Bachman coached the Florida Gators from 1928 to 1932. He moved to Michigan State in 1933, where he coached the Spartans until 1946. He completed his coaching career at Hillsdale College in Michigan in 1953.

Bachman's eight-year won-loss record at K-State was 33-23-9. Coaching a team that played primarily eight-game seasons, Bachman's teams won five games in four different seasons. Bachman's squads went 5-3-0 in 1921 and 1926. In 1925 K-State was 5-2-1, and in 1922 went 5-1-2. Bachman's 1922 K-State team, captained by Ray Hahn, outscored its opponents 154-61.

Bachman was enshrined into the K-State Sports Hall of Fame on Oct. 27, 1995.

Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf

Lynn O. "Pappy" Waldorf coached K-State to its lone football championship in 1934 while posting a 7-2-1 record in the Big Six Conference with wins over Oklahoma, Nebraska and Kansas. He was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966.

Waldorf was regarded as one of the giants in college football coaching, earning his greatest accolades during his 10-year coaching career at California. He led the Bears to a 67-32-4 record from 1947-56, including three-consecutive Rose Bowl appearances following the 1948, 1949 and 1950 seasons. Between 1947 and 1951, his teams played 38-consecutive regular-season games without a defeat.

A graduate of Syracuse, his coaching career included stops at Oklahoma City University (13-5-3, 1926-27), as assistant at Kansas in 1928, at Oklahoma A&M (34-10-7, 1929-33), Kansas State (7-2-1, 1934), Northwestern (49-45-7, 1935-46) and California (67-32-4, 1947-56). The final 20 seasons of his football career were spent as player personnel director of the San Francisco 49ers. Waldorf passed away Aug. 15, 1981.

K-State History

1982 Independence Bowl

Wisconsin 14, Kansas State 3

December 11, 1982

Shreveport, La. • Independence Stadium

SHREVEPORT, La.—Badger quarterback Randy Wright tossed two touchdown passes as Wisconsin overcame an early deficit to take a hard-earned 14-3 victory over Kansas State in the seventh annual Independence Bowl.

The game, played in cold and wet conditions before an announced crowd of 49,523, marked the first-ever Bowl appearance by Kansas State in its then 87-year grid history. A 23-miles-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 below zero and kept many fans away.

After a scoreless first quarter, K-State took the game's first lead with 7:10 left in the second period when Steve Willis booted a 29-yard field goal after defensive end Bob Daniels recovered a fumble at the Badger 18-yard line.

The KSU lead was short-lived. On Wisconsin's ensuing drive following the field goal, the Badgers marched 79 yards in eight plays, scoring a touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Wright to Michael Jones to give Wisconsin a 7-3 halftime lead.

Wisconsin struck again midway through the third quarter when game offensive MVP Wright connected with Tim Stracka on an 87-yard touchdown pass for a 14-3 Badger advantage.

K-State drove deep into Wisconsin territory on its next two possessions but could not score. One opportunity ended when a Wildcat pass was intercepted in the Badger end zone while the other was stymied at the Wisconsin 26-yard line when KSU could not convert on fourth down.

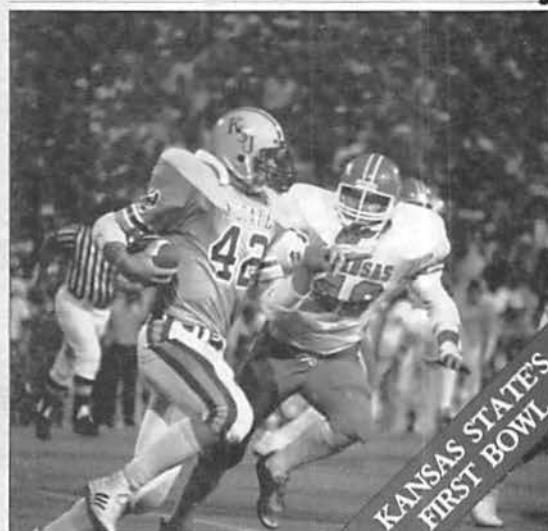

Darrell Ray Dickey completed just 13 of 35 passes for 127 yards and one interception on the day for 1982 Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year Jim Dickey's squad.

Isoefatu Faraimo rushed for 25 yards on a rain-soaked night in Shreveport.

1993 Copper Bowl #20 Kansas State 52, Wyoming 17 December 29, 1993 Tucson, Ariz. • War Memorial Stadium

TUCSON, Ariz.—It's probable that not even Bill Snyder could have scripted the events of Dec. 29, 1993, any better as K-State put the finishing touches on one of its finest football seasons in school history with a breathtaking 52-17 total domination of Wyoming.

Although there were plenty of chapters still to be written, one can't find much skepticism with the fact that it was the greatest night in Kansas State football history.

Perhaps K-State Athletics Director Max Urlick set the tone for the day with an inspirational speech at the Copper Bowl Kickoff Luncheon earlier that afternoon. "As the sun begins to set on Tucson tonight," Urlick said, "you're going to see a purple haze on the horizon. Because they're coming and they're coming by the thousands."

An estimated 20,000 Wildcat fans made up almost half of the 49,075 fans who helped set a Copper Bowl attendance record. With the east side of the stadium bulging at the seams with purple, the Wildcats proceeded to manhandle the Western Athletic Conference tri-champions.

Wyoming took a quick 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal, but the rest, as they say, is history. K-State put its high-powered offense into overdrive and scored on its first three possessions. J.J. Smith put K-State on the board with a two-yard TD run as the Wildcats drove 68 yards in just six plays to take a 6-3 lead. Tate Wright added a 22-yard field goal, and on its third possession, K-State drove 76 yards in only eight plays to take a 16-3 lead on Chad May's two-yard TD plunge.

In the first quarter alone, K-State rolled up 134 yards of total offense, including 90 yards on nine carries by Smith. Wyoming cut the lead to 16-10 near the end of the second quarter until two huge plays sandwiched around halftime ignited the rout.

With 1:07 left in the first half, Wyoming punted deep in its own territory. Second-team All-American Andre Coleman fielded the ball at his own 32, sidestepped two defenders and then raced untouched down the far sideline for a touchdown to put K-State ahead 24-10 at the half.

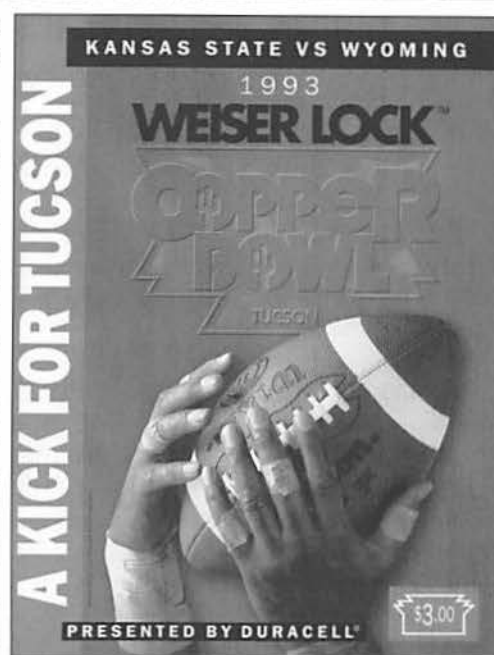

Coleman and company began the second half right where they left off and quickly broke the Cowboys' spirit with a dazzling 61-yard touchdown pass from May to Coleman just 54 seconds into the third quarter.

Freshman All-American Kevin Lockett then put K-State ahead 38-10 midway through the third quarter with a 30-yard touchdown reception. Reserve running back Leon Edwards later added a 13-yard touchdown run, and cornerback Kenny McEntyre provided the game's crowning moment with a 37-yard interception return for a touchdown with just over six minutes left in the game.

The final numbers were staggering. K-State's offense was a purple juggernaut, rolling up 502 yards and averaging 7.5 yards per play. Coleman amassed 283 all-purpose yards (144 receiving, seven rushing, 73 on punt returns and 59 on kickoff returns) to earn offensive MVP honors. On the ground, J.J. Smith shattered the Copper Bowl record with 133 yards and one touchdown on 20 carries.

1994 Aloha Bowl Boston College 12, #8 K-State 7 December 25, 1994 Honolulu, Hawaii • Aloha Stadium

HONOLULU, Hawaii—Kansas State played Boston College to a defensive standoff much of the afternoon at Aloha Stadium, but the Wildcat offense never got on track and fell 12-7 in the 1994 Aloha Bowl.

The Eagles sacked K-State quarterback Chad May eight times, including a four-hit effort by end Mike Mamula, who was named the game's most valuable player.

Couple that with a ground game that gained just 30 yards from its running backs and K-State netted just 124 altogether in finishing 9-3.

The Eagles couldn't distance themselves from the Wildcats despite a 51-yard bolt by David Green on the second play of the game. That carry led to an early 7-0 cushion for the Eagles but would be the only touchdown they'd score.

"For the most part, I thought our defense played well," Bill Snyder said. "I didn't like that early play of the ball game because it put them in position to score a quick touchdown, but otherwise I felt our defense played fairly well."

K-State's lone score came with eight seconds left in the first quarter when Joe Gordon crashed the middle of BC's line and blocked a punt by Jeff Beckley. Chris Sublette recovered the ball on the first hop in the end zone and the game was tied 7-7.

However, BC would answer with its own end zone patrol later in the half when Mamula applied the biggest of his hits on May for a safety with 2:37 left.

The 'Cats reached the BC 19 on their ensuing drive, but Eric Shorter intercepted a dropped pass in the flat on third-and-15 with 19 seconds left in the half.

Still, a defense that featured punter Eric Hardy, Gordon and a pair of 10-tackle performances from Chuck Marlowe and Mario Smith kept the 'Cats within striking distance until the end.

BC could only tack on a 35-yard field goal by David Gordon with 1:18 remaining in the second half.

That left K-State with one final shot. After barely converting a first down with a 21-yard strike to Mitch Running, May found Ron Brown one player later for a 16-yard completion to reach the BC 45 with 10 seconds left.

May heaved the ball into the end zone on the game's final play, but the ball was knocked away from Running at the last moment to preserve the win for Boston College.

JOE GORDON NAMED MVP

Lost in the shuffle of K-State's 12-7 setback to Boston College, was a brilliant performance by sophomore cornerback Joe Gordon, who was chosen Kansas State's Most Valuable Player.

After earning first-team All-Big Eight honors during the regular season, Gordon had an outstanding postseason with a blocked punt, an interception, three tackles and two pass deflections to key the Wildcat defense.

Gordon set up K-State's only score of the day late in the first quarter when he burst through the line to block a punt, which was recovered by Chris Sublette for a K-State touchdown.

1995 Holiday Bowl

#10 Kansas State 54, #25 Colorado St. 21

December 29, 1995

San Diego, Calif. • Jack Murphy Stadium

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — For the second time in three years, Kansas State ran roughshod over the Western Athletic Conference's best as the Wildcats outran, outplayed and outscored Colorado State for a 54-21 win in front of more than 51,000 fans at the 1995 Plymouth Holiday Bowl at Jack Murphy Stadium.

K-State began the scoring on an Eric Hickson 4-yard run with 11:21 left in the first quarter. After CSU responded with a touchdown to knot the score at 7-7, it was all Kansas State.

The Wildcats outscored the Rams, 19-0, in the second quarter by virtue of an interception return by safety Mario Smith and a blocked punt. Brian Kavanagh, who would earn the game's Offensive MVP award, came in for the injured Matt Miller in the second quarter and immediately put the ball in the end zone.

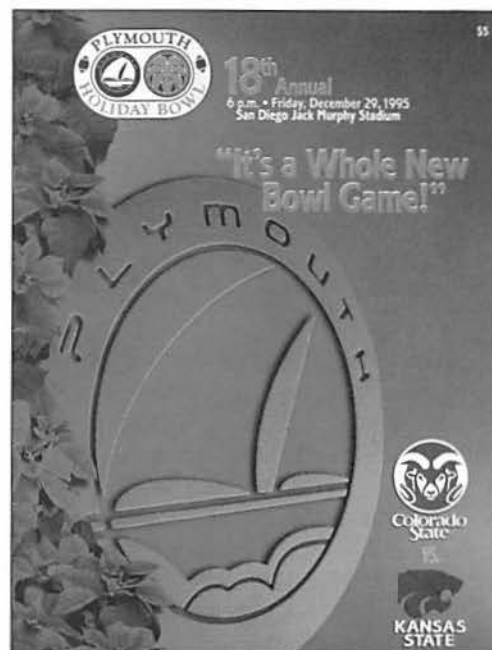

Kavanagh completed 18-of-24 passes for 242 yards and a Holiday Bowl-record tying four touchdowns. The junior signal-caller tossed scoring strikes to Brian Lojka, Tyson Schwieger, Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running.

Including Miller's statistics before he was hurt, the Wildcat quarterbacks combined to complete 24-of-32 passes for 324 yards and four touchdowns.

On the defensive side of the ball, Smith earned MVP honors by picking off two passes, registering two passes broken up, making four tackles and generally creating havoc among the Ram receivers.

The nation's top-ranked defense held the potent CSU offense to 301 yards, while forcing four turnovers.

Individually, Hickson ran for 103 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries, while catching six passes. Running caught six passes for 126 yards and a TD. Freshman punter James Garcia averaged 45.0 yards on three punts.

1997 Cotton Bowl #5 BYU 19, #14 Kansas State 15

Dallas, Texas • Cotton Bowl

DALLAS, Texas — An estimated 45,000 Kansas State fans descended on Dallas to watch the Wildcats in their first-ever New Year's Day Bowl and were witness to one of the most exciting games of the 1996-97 bowl season.

After taking a 15-5 lead following a 72-yard touchdown pass from Brian Kavanagh to Kevin Lockett, the Wildcats saw why Brigham Young quarterback Steve Sarkisian was considered one of the nation's best. The Cougar QB tossed two fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead No. 5 BYU to a 19-15 Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl victory.

Following Sarkisian's 28-yard scoring strike to Kealaluhi with 3:39 remaining in the game, Kavanagh and Lockett led the Wildcats to a first down at the BYU 12-yard line with around one minute remaining. But, to the disappointment of K-State fans, Kavanagh's pass to Jimmy Dean was picked off at the 3-yard line by Omarr Morgan to preserve BYU's 14th win.

The game's first score came when Cotton Bowl Defensive MVP Shay Muirbrook tackled Kavanagh in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter. After the free kick, Brigham Young scored again on an Ethan Pochman 39-yard field goal.

Then K-State had a hard time getting on track until the final seconds of the first half. Taking over following a punt at the KSU 44-yard line with 29 seconds remaining in the half, Kavanagh completed two passes to give the Wildcats the ball at the BYU 41-yard line with six seconds on the clock.

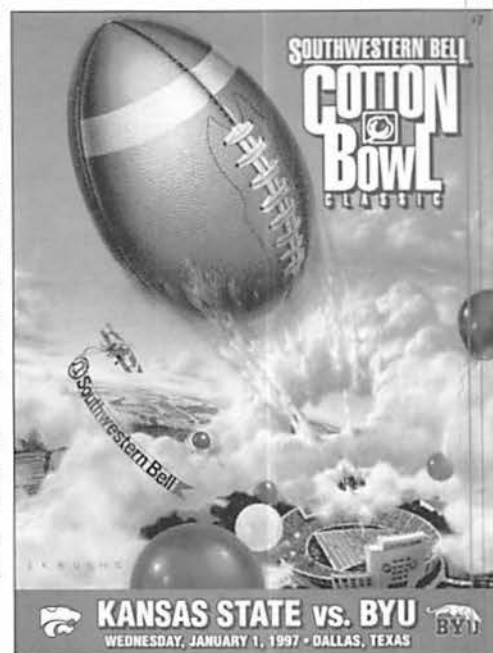

On the final play of the half, Kavanagh heaved a Hail Mary into the end zone, where, after the ball was deflected by a BYU defender, K-State junior Andre Anderson scooped the ball in for a touchdown. Following the PAT that gave K-State a 7-5 lead, a penalty on BYU forced the teams to return from the locker room so that the Wildcats could try for two points. Mike Lawrence made it pay off by scoring around the right end to give KSU an 8-5 lead heading into half-time.

K-State scored its second TD of the game when Kevin Lockett bounced off tacklers following a reception on a short slant pattern and raced 72 yards down the left sideline.

BYU answered in the fourth quarter behind the two TD passes by Sarkisian to give the Cougars a final 14-1 record and dropping the Wildcats to 9-3.

Sarkisian and Lockett shared the game's offensive MVP honors, while Muirbrook was named defensive MVP.

1997 Fiesta Bowl

#9 Kansas State 35, #14 Syracuse 18

December 31, 1997

Tempe, Ariz. • Sun Devil Stadium

TEMPE, Ariz. — K-State capped its best season in school history with a 35-18 win over 14th-ranked Syracuse, the Big East Conference champion.

Wildcat quarterback Michael Bishop stole the show by throwing four touchdowns and completing a career-high 14 passes for a career-best 317 yards.

Darnell McDonald was on the receiving end of seven Bishop passes and turned them into a school-record 206 yards in receptions and three touchdowns. His 77-yard reception in the fourth quarter was the longest in Fiesta Bowl history.

After allowing Syracuse to jump out to a 3-0 lead on the first of Nate Trout's three field goals, Bishop led the Wildcats to three consecutive touchdowns in the second quarter. The first came following a failed fake field goal attempt by Syracuse, culminating in a 19-yard pass to McDonald. Bishop followed with a 12-yard TD dash on K-State's next possession, and wrapped up the first-half scoring with a 28-yard completion to Justin Swift on a tight end screen.

Syracuse scored 12 points in the final 2:18 to close within 21-15 at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, Bishop and the Wildcats put away the Orangemen with two big plays in the fourth.

McDonald pulled in a long pass along the sidelines, fought off a Syracuse defender and completed a 77-yard TD play, then followed with a 41-yard reception with 3:17 remaining to salt the game away.

Bishop finished the game with 390 yards in total offense, including 317 yards passing and 73 yards rushing. Swift caught a career-high five passes for a career-high 98 yards and one touchdown.

Syracuse's Donovan McNabb threw for 271 yards, but completed just 16 of 39 passes. McNabb also ran for 81 yards.

Bishop earned the Offensive Player-of-the-Game award, while KSU linebacker Travis Ochs, with an interception and fumble recovery, was named Defensive Player-of-the-Game.

NOTING THE WILDCATS...

- The win gave K-State its first 11-win season in school history.

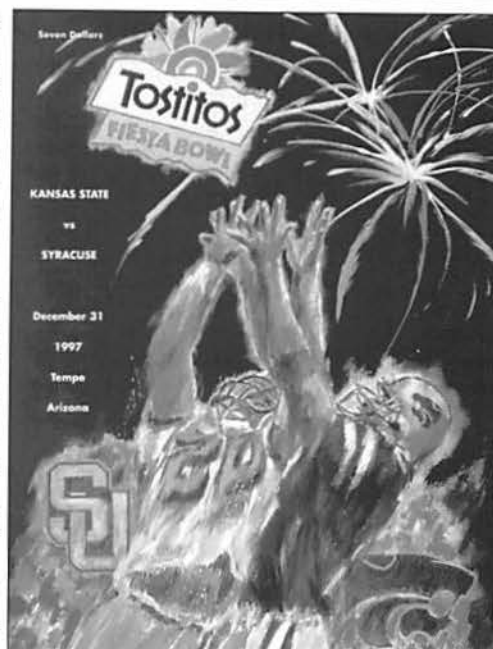

- More than 50,000 K-State fans were estimated in attendance.

- Michael Bishop was named Offensive Player-of-the-Game and Travis Ochs was named Defensive Player-of-the-Game. Bishop and SU's Donovan McNabb earned CBS Player-of-the-Game honors. Ed Cunningham and Tim Brando were announcers.

- Darnell McDonald set a K-State and Fiesta Bowl record with 206 yards in receptions. His 77-yard pass play with Bishop also set a Fiesta Bowl record for longest completion.

- The crowd of 69,367 was the largest to ever witness a K-State victory. The previous was 65,986 who saw K-State win 12-0 at Nebraska Nov. 9, 1968.

Darnell McDonald's 206 yards receiving against Syracuse in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl ranks as K-State's top bowl game performance by a receiver.

This Is K-State

Anderson Hall is one of Kansas State's most recognizable buildings. One of the oldest buildings on campus, it houses the University's administrative offices including President Jon Wefald's office.

Kansas State University

It's a vibrant time at Kansas State. The most easily recognizable part of this new period of growth and improvement comes in the form of enrollment figures. More than 20,000 students enrolled at Kansas State during the 1998-99 academic year. That's a stunning accomplishment for President Jon Wefald and his staff, who have spearheaded an enrollment increase of nearly 6,000 since their arrival in 1986.

During President Wefald's tenure, K-State has added more than $1.4 million square feet of building space.

The Essential Edge campaign raised more than $180 million, of which more than 80 percent was designated for academic programs. A $50-million scholarship campaign kicked off in 1998.

K-State's economic impact on Kansas, estimated at more than $2.4 billion, represents a 17-fold return on the state's yearly investment.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

Academic achievement at the institution is drawing national acclaim as well. K-State ranks first in the nation among public universities in number of Goldwater Scholars produced and is first in the nation among state universities in the number of Truman Scholars. Since 1984, K-State's total of Rhodes, Marshall, Truman and Goldwater scholars ranks first in the nation among state universities.

The K-State debate team has won the national championship twice since 1991 and the speech squad consistently ranks in the nation's top 10. The livestock judging team has swept the national title five years running. K-Staters have also captured national titles in competitions ranging from yearbook design to artificial intelligence.

K-State's student senate has been named the nation's best large-college student government twice since 1950. Its honor societies, fraternities and sororities have snared best-chapter awards. K-State students also have been profiled in publications ranging from scientific journals to MacWeek.

HISTORY AND LOCATION

Founded on February 16, 1863, Kansas State is the oldest public institution of higher education in Kansas and one of the nation's first land-grant universities.

Throughout its history, K-State's mission has been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act—to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas, the nation and the world.

The university's 668-acre wooded campus with historic limestone buildings is located in Manhattan (pop. 42,017). It's a pleasant community nestled in the scenic Flint Hills 125 miles west of Kansas City.

The College of Technology and Aviation, housed on the Salina campus, offers bachelor's and associate degrees in aeronautical and engineering technologies.

Commuter air service in and out of Manhattan Regional Airport connects the city with major airports all over the Midwest. Five miles north of the campus lies Tuttle Creek Reservoir, a favorite outlet of students for boating, sailing, water skiing, swimming and fishing.

ATHLETICS

K-State competes in 15 intercollegiate sports as a Division I member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and is a member of the prestigious Big 12 Conference, which begins its third year of existence in 1998-99.

K-State awards full and partial grants-in-aid to deserving athletes. Other types of aid are available to qualifying students.

About Kansas State University

Quality

The North Central Association's accreditation report, the equivalent of a grade card for colleges, gave a review so glowing it could have been an A+. The report praised K-State's "remarkable spirit" and "noteworthy" scholarship record.

Students

About 20,000. More than 1,000 graduated first or second in their high school classes. That's more valedictorians and salutatorians than any other Kansas college.

Colleges

Arts and sciences; engineering; agriculture; education; business administration; human ecology; architecture, planning and design; veterinary medicine; and technology and aviation (in Salina).

Professors

Dean Zollman, a K-State physics professor, was named the 1996 Professor of the Year for research/doctoral universities by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

Degrees

K-State offers more than 200 undergraduate majors and options, graduate study in veterinary medicine and 65 master's and 43 doctoral programs. K-Staters have completed internships with everyone from Disney World to David Letterman.

Awards

Our students win big. The debate team has swept the national championships in two of the past six years. K-Staters have also captured national titles in competitions ranging from acting to yearbook design.

Activities

Campus organizations range from the hockey club to academic honoraries. More than 380 campus groups are available. The Landon Lecture series brings newsmakers such as Elizabeth Dole, Jimmy Carter, and Colin Powell to campus.

Financial aid

More than $70 million in scholarships, grants, loans, and work study is distributed each year.

Sports

Men compete in basketball, football, track, baseball, cross country and golf. Women compete in basketball, volleyball, cross country, golf, track, rowing and tennis. Club sports range from rugby to rodeo.

Campus housing

Students can choose from nine residence halls, 11 national sororities, 24 national fraternities, three scholarship houses or university apartments.

Manhattan

Manhattan is noticeably smaller than its New York namesake. But this "Little Apple," founded by accident after a steamboat ran aground on the Kansas river, has grown into a great college town. The numbers tell the story:

- 42,000 residents
- 21 parks
- 14 movie screens
- 65 shops in the Manhattan Town Center Mall
- 1 zoo
- 5-minute drive to Tuttle Creek Reservoir, one of the largest man-made lakes in the Midwest
- 5-minute walk to the bookstores, music shops and restaurants of Aggieville

PRESIDENT DR. JON WEFALD

Few college presidents have ever been as well recognized nationally for improving the athletic and academic programs on a campus as has K-State's Jon Wefald.

Lauded by publications from the Christian Science Monitor to Sports Illustrated to USA Today, and by broadcasters like Paul Harvey, the accomplishments during Wefald's tenure have been well noted in the national media. USA Today called these achievements the "miracle in Manhattan".

Wefald gained regional attention this past winter as well when he was selected by the Topeka Capital Journal as "1998 Kansan of the Year". He was the first university president ever to receive this distinction. This honor recognized him for his ability to recruit and retain talented academic and athletic students as well as talented teachers and administrators.

Because of his efforts in bringing K-State to national prominence in many areas, K-State was ranked sixth of 90 "movers and shakers" identified on the Kansas Earthmovers List compiled annually by Hawver's Capitol Report, Topeka. The "Earthmovers" edition named 90 Kansans (or institutions) with the "political, business and/or social power to literally make the ground shake on some issues."

Under his leadership, K-State has added about 1.4 million square feet of new university buildings, including a new library, a new art museum, and a nationally-acclaimed plant science building. In addition, during the Wefald years, enrollments increased from about 15,000 to nearly 21,000; K-State built a healthy endowment program; and a national presence in athletics was created. With Wefald at the helm, K-State's total research funding increased to a record $82.4 million in FY97. In that year, K-State had an economic impact of $2.4 billion on the state of Kansas. In fact, the university returns nearly $17 for every $1 of state funding it receives.

For the future, Wefald plans to continue to build a stronger K-State. He wants to make faculty salaries competitive in the national marketplace, build anew biology building and maintain all of the strengths of the past. He also wants to improve undergraduate advising, expand graduate programs and increase research.

Since his arrival in 1986, K-State leads the nation's public universities in the total number of Rhodes, Marshall, Truman and Goldwater scholarship winners. K-State students have won more Truman scholarships, more Goldwater scholarships and more Phi Kappa Phi Fellowships than any other public university in the nation. By recognizing and encouraging excellence, Wefald has helped achieve the pinnacle of success.

A native of Minneapolis, Wefald earned his BA from Pacific Lutheran (1959), MA in history and political science from Washington State University (1961) and doctorate in history from the University of Michigan (1965).

Prior to joining K-State, he served as Chancellor of the State University System in Minnesota from 1982-86, a system made up of seven state universities. He was president of Southwest State in Marshall, Minn., from 1977-82; Minnesota's Commissioner of Agriculture, 1971-77; and a member of the faculty at Gustavus Adolphus, 1965-70. His love for teaching caused him to return to the classroom to teach a history course at K-State in the Fall of 1991.

Born Nov. 24, 1937, Wefald is married to the former Ruth Ann Joynt. They have two adult sons, Skipp and Andy, both have earned degrees from K-State and both married K-State graduates. Mrs. Wefald earned her BA and MA degrees in history at the University of Michigan. She was on the faculty at Mankato State University and worked in the Minnesota Office of Economic Security.

VICE PRESIDENT FOR INSTITUTIONAL ADVANCEMENT BOB KRAUSE

Bob Krause has played a key role in the development of both the university and the athletics department since his appointment as K-State's Vice President For Institutional Advancement in September of 1986. Krause is the chief spokesperson and student affairs officer for Kansas State University and also oversees many of the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He also coordinates the University's on-going activities with the KSU Foundation, the KSU Alumni Association and works with various external groups such as the Board of Regents and other governmental agencies.

Since his arrival at K-State, Krause has focused attention on ways to improve the attraction and retention of students; means by which the University can better assist Manhattan and the State of Kansas in the area of economic development through cooperative endeavors with local and state agencies; and ways to expand public awareness regarding the value society receives from the teaching, research and service provided by K-State faculty.

Along with the efforts of President, Dr. Jon Wefald, Krause has helped K-State realize steady enrollment increases to a school-record total of 21,137 in the 1990-91 academic year.

Krause came to K-State from the Minnesota State University System, where he had served as Director of Student Affairs from 1983 to 1986. In that role, he coordinated system-wide policy and program development for seven state universities enrolling some 51,000 students. From 1975 to 1983, he had served as Vice President for Student Affairs at Southwest State University in Minnesota.

He has presented numerous papers on the future of post-secondary education and is a member of the Kappa Pi honorary art society, Omicron Nu honorary society, Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity, Blue Key national honorary society, and the Kappa Delta Pi and Phi Delta Kappa honorary education societies.

Born Sept. 12, 1945, Krause received his master's in College Student Personnel Work from Michigan State University in 1968, and his bachelor's degree in art education and art from Western Illinois University in 1967. He is married to Dr. Marty Vanier. He has three daughters — Katie and Kirsten, both graduates of K-State and Kathy, a senior at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Athletics Administration

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR MAX URICK

Max Urick was named Kansas State's 12th Director of Athletics on June 28, 1993. His dynamic leadership, sense of direction and expectation of a high level of professionalism within the department has Wildcat athletics well prepared for its entry into the 21st century.

Since his arrival, Urick has been a key player in the development of the Big 12 Conference and its ongoing transition. In doing so, he has solidified K-State's athletic future in perhaps the premier athletics conference in college sports. But, as a team player, Urick is always quick to give credit to the many people involved in success at Kansas State.

Under Urick's guidance, the athletics department has made positive strides toward stabilizing the financial balance while continuing the exciting growth period for athletic facilities at K-State. Urick has placed a high priority on the gender equity issues at K-State by implementing several plans to enhance and increase women's opportunities at K-State, including the addition of women's crew in 1996. Within the last year, the entire K-State athletics department and all student-athletes have participated in sexual harassment seminars. Another area in which Urick has placed high significance is student services including academic support.

Since 1993, Kansas State has participated in six consecutive postseason football bowl games, played in men's basketball postseason tournaments four times, advanced to postseason play in women's basketball two of the last three seasons and played in three consecutive NCAA women's volleyball tournaments. Additionally, the Wildcats have established nationally prominent programs in cross country, track and field, women's tennis, golf, women's rowing and baseball.

Construction projects under the leadership of Urick include the $1 million Academic Learning Center for student services and the JumboTron screen, new scoreboards and marquee at the football complex. The latest projects are the addition of 8,000 permanent new seats, 31 sky suites and an upper deck to the east side of KSU Stadium. The new K-State baseball stadium is slated to open in the spring of 2000.

Since 1993, season football ticket revenue has jumped more than 460 percent and corporate sponsorships have risen more than 250 percent. Licensing revenue of K-State merchandise continues a steady climb up after topping $500,000 in 1998-99 to rank among the Top 15 in the nation. K-State's annual operating budget has doubled in Urick's seven years. These numbers prove that the financial health of the athletics department has stabilized and thrived under Urick's direction.

Urick came to K-State after spending 19 years at Iowa State, including 10 as the Cyclones' Director of Athletics. He originally joined the ISU staff as assistant athletics director in 1974 and then took over as athletics director in 1983.

Before his arrival at Iowa State in 1974, Urick spent 13 seasons as a collegiate football coach at several levels. He began his career in 1961 as an assistant freshman football coach at the United States Military Academy in West Point. From 1963 to 1966 he was an assistant football coach at Ohio State University under the legendary Woody Hayes. He also served as an assistant football coach at Denison University in Granville, Ohio, before accepting the head football coaching position at Wabash (Ind.) College in 1966. After four years at Wabash, he was an assistant coach at Duke University from 1970-74.

He also holds professional memberships in the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and has been on the Division I-A Athletics Directors Board of Trustees and Cost Reduction Committee.

A native of Troy, Ohio, Urick was an All-America football and lacrosse player at Ohio Wesleyan and also won a conference wrestling title prior to earning his bachelor's degree in biological science/physical education in 1961. He received his master's degree in physical education from Ohio State in 1965.

Urick is married to the former Lynn Mitchell. Max and Lynn are active in the community and as likely to be seen at area cultural events as at athletic venues. They have a daughter, Courtney, and three sons, Mark, Ryan, and Michael.

TICKET OFFICE MANAGER CAROL ADOLPH

Carol Adolph

Carol Adolph is now in her 45th year as part of the Kansas State athletic department and begins her 32nd season as ticket office manager.

Adolph started in 1955 as a departmental bookkeeper and worked in that capacity until 1963. From 1964 through 1967, she served as the secretary to the athletics director. In 1967, she was promoted to ticket office manager and administrative assistant.

In her current position, Adolph coordinates ticket operations for each of K-State's sports. Adolph and her husband, Jack, have two daughters.

Mary Anne Andrews

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT FOR CERTIFICATION AND RECORDS

MARY ANNE ANDREWS (Oklahoma State '79)

Mary Anne Andrews begins her 13th year at Kansas State and is in her 10th as the certification administrator for the athletics department. Andrews coordinates the initial eligibility of student-athletes, as well as the certification of eligibility of returning student-athletes. She also oversees student financial aid for the department and NCAA and conference reports.

Andrews earned her bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State in special education in 1979, and her master's in HPELS from OSU in 1984. She is married to Gordon Andrews and has two daughters, Katie and Emily.

DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT ERNIE BARRETT (Kansas State '51)

First as an All-America basketball player, later as the athletics director and now as a fund-raiser, Ernie Barrett has more than earned the title of "Mr. K-State" during his six decades of involvement with the Wildcat athletics department.

Barrett serves as the athletics department's director of development and spearheaded the $5.5 million drive for the five-story Dev Nelson Press Box and indoor football facility. He also has been the driving force behind the newly completed Learning and Academic Center located at the Vanier Football Complex, the renovation of Ahearn Field House for women's volleyball and the construction of the women's basketball offices at the Foundation building.

Barrett accepted that position in January of 1991 after working as a consultant in the department's portion of the Essential Edge Campaign, a university-wide project with a goal of raising $100 million, including $15 million for the athletics department. Prior to rejoining the K-State staff, he was the vice president for marketing at Chief Drilling in Wichita.

Barrett's fund-raising efforts for the department actually began in 1961 when he made the transition from assistant basketball coach to assistant athletics director. He later served as K-State's athletics director from 1969-1976 and spearheaded fund-raising campaigns for KSU Stadium, the athletics dormitory, artificial turf, the R.V. Christian Track and Field Complex, Dev Nelson Press Box, the indoor football facility, the Academic Learning Center, Colbert Hills Golf Course, and the new baseball stadium.

Barrett began his K-State basketball career in 1948 and capped it by earning All-America honors and leading the 'Cats to the NCAA Championship game in 1951. Barrett played professionally for the legendary Boston Celtics. He and his wife, Bonnie, have one son, Brad.

Burge earned his bachelor's degree in journalism from K-State in 1977, and began his association with K-State in 1984 with the College of Engineering. A native of Medicine Lodge, he is married to the former Cindy Cejda.

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/ BUSINESS OPERATIONS

BOB CAVELLO (Air Force '87)

Bob Cavello enters his fourth year at K-State where he oversees all financial, contractual and business operations for the athletics department and the Intercollegiate Athletics Corporation. He is currently the third Vice President and member of the Executive Committee of the College Athletic Business Management Association. Cavello was also selected to serve on the NCAA's Institutional Certification Team for fiscal integrity.

Prior to K-State, Cavello was an officer in the United States Air Force and served as the Athletics Business Manager at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo., where he managed the financial operations of the Academy's 27 intercollegiate teams from 1993-96. Cavello was also involved in the operations of hosting the 1995 U.S. Olympic Sports Festival, the McDonald's High School All-Star Game and the Denver Nuggets preseason basketball camps. Earlier in his Air Force career, Cavello was fortunate enough to spend a month in New Zealand and Australia working as a volunteer for the Pro Beach Volleyball Australia Tour.

Cavello earned his bachelor's degree from the Air Force Academy in 1987 and a master's degree in Sports Administration from the University of Northern Colorado in 1997. The suburban-Chicago native and his wife Bianca, a native of Manhattan Beach, Calif. The couple have two children-Joey, 6, and daughter Jordan, 4.

DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

KATHY DUGGAN (Westfield State '91)

Kathy Duggan is entering her second year as a member of the K-State athletic department. Before coming to K-State, she spent two years as an intern for athletic development at Ohio University.

Her responsibilities include assisting with planning, developing and implementing Plan 2000, the athletic department's communications plan for recommended levels of Mike Ahearn Scholarship Fund contributions for football season ticket holders in the stadium's priority sections. This includes coordinating news releases, informational brochures and working with athletic department contributors.

While working at Ohio, Duggan assisted with coordinating fundraising events. She also worked at the UMass Athletic Ticket Office.

Prior to working at Ohio, Duggan spent five years as Circulation District Manager at The Daily Hampshire Gazette in Northampton, Massachusetts.

Duggan earned a Bachelor of Arts in mass communications from Westfield State College in Westfield, Massachusetts in 1991 and a Master of Sports Administration from Ohio University in 1997.

SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD

JIM EPPS (Washburn '68)

Jim Epps is in his 21st year at Kansas State, where he supervises internal operations for the athletics department. Prior to being named senior associate athletics director during the summer of 1990, Epps was an associate athletics director for the Wildcat athletics department.

In 1987, he was elevated from administrative assistant to special assistant to the head football coach. Prior to that, he spent five years as KSU's academic counselor for Wildcat football. Epps became assistant academic counselor in 1979, and worked in that position until joining the football staff in 1982.

He received his master's degree in psychology from Pittsburg State in 1972, and his bachelor's degree in psychology from Washburn in 1968. The Grandview, Mo., native is married to the former Phyllis Luginbill, and they are the parents of one daughter, Sarah, and one son, Ned.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PROMOTIONS AND MARKETING MISSY HEIDRICK (Kansas State '98)

Missy Heidrick enters her second year with the KSU athletics department after being named assistant director of marketing and promotions in the summer of 1998. Her duties include creation and implementation of all gameday promotions for each of the Wildcat sports, advertising sales of football and basketball gameday programs, coordination of the student booster group, coordination of the K-State Ambassador Program as well as contributing to the responsibilities of K-State's corporate sponsorships.

The former Missy Decker graduated in May, 1998, with a degree in marketing after completing a successful career as a four-year letterwinner on the K-State women's basketball team. Heidrick was twice named honorable mention all-conference and was a three-time member of the academic all-conference first team. As a senior point guard, she led the Wildcats to the 1997 NCAA Tournament. She also finished her career as K-State's career leader in three-point field goals made and attempted.

Heidrick, 24, is a native of Rochester, Minn., and was married on August 7, 1999, to Jay Heidrick, a former member of the K-State men's basketball team and a 1999 Kansas State graduate.

FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE DR. MIKE HOLEN (Stanford)

Michael Holen became the athletics department faculty representative in May. Holen has served as a K-State faculty member for 28 years, including nine as Dean of the College of Education and 14 as Associate Dean and department head.

Holen came to Kansas State with a bachelor's degree from Stanford University and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Oregon. His wife Kathryn has been a faculty representative on Athletic Council for 20 years. His family enjoys golf, fishing and supporting Kansas State student-athletes.

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/ STUDENT SERVICES PHIL HUGHES (UC-San Diego '80)

Phil Hughes is in his second year at Kansas State as the associate athletics director for student services where he directs all aspects of the academic support programs and student services for the athletics department.

Prior to coming to Kansas State, Hughes had spent seven years at the University of Michigan. At Michigan, he was responsible for the athletics department's student-athlete support program including academic advising, academic compliance, tutorial services, admissions tracking, faculty relations and academic advocacy.

For three years prior to working at Michigan, Hughes served as the assistant athletics director for student life at Tulane University in New Orleans, La.

A 1980 graduate of University of California-San Diego, Hughes earned a master's degree in Counseling Psychology from the University of Kentucky. Hughes has previously served as an executive board member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics.

Hughes and his wife, the former Betty Bagot, have a son, Stafford, and a daughter, Elizabeth.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE RELATIONS STEVE MAMMOLA (Vermont '91)

Steve Mammola enters his second year at Kansas State University as Assistant Director of Corporate Relations.

Mammola is responsible for all areas of corporate relations including the selling of sponsorships, signage, and licensing relating to the Kansas State Athletics Department. He will oversee the "Cat Cushion" program for the 1999 football season and is working with Premier Sports Marketing on enhancements to Bramlage Coliseum that will include a new video scoreboard and concourse honoring the history of K-State athletics.

He arrived to Kansas State following two years as the director of corporate sales at the University of Washington. While at Washington, Mammola oversaw all corporate relations for Husky Fever, the successful and long-standing fundraising arm of Husky Athletics.

Prior to moving to Washington in 1996, he spent a year as sales manager at Spectator Sports Communications working with the University of California, Berkeley football and basketball programs, including the selling of print advertisements, ticket and hospitality packages. Mammola also spent one year as assistant director for marketing and promotions at the University of California, San Diego.

Mammola graduated from the University of

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS COUNCIL CHAIRPERSON

MARY MOLT

(Nebraska-Kearney)

Mary Molt, K-State's assistant director of housing and dining services and assistant professor in Hotel, Restaurant, Institution Management, and Dietetics, has been the chairperson of the KSU Intercollegiate Athletics Council since 1988.

Molt came to KSU in 1973 and holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Nebraska-Kearney, a master's degree from Oklahoma State and a Ph.D. from K-State.

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/ DEVELOPMENT

MIKE O'BRIEN

(Missouri Valley College '75)

Mike O'Brien enters his third year as Associate Athletics Director/Development and is responsible for fundraising for the Mike Ahearn Scholarship fund. He has also worked on the stadium expansion plan and is the liaison with men's basketball.

O'Brien came to Kansas State after serving as director of athletics at Lamar University since August 1993. He has previous development experience as director of development for athletics at Pittsburgh from 1990-93 and director of athletic development and marketing at Ball State from 1988-89.

A native of Iowa City, Iowa, O'Brien began his career in athletics as administrative assistant to the men's athletics director at Ball State from 1986-88. He earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Missouri Valley College in 1975, and has master's degrees in education from Wisconsin-River Falls in 1982 and in sports management from Western Illinois in 1986.

O'Brien, 46, began his athletics career as an assistant basketball coach at three schools, starting with a three-year stint at Wisconsin-River Falls (1982-84). Following that, O'Brien served one year each at Wisconsin-Green Bay (1984-85) and Western Illinois (1985-86) before moving into an administrative position.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

DAVID SPAFFORD

(Kansas State '90)

David Spafford joined the K-State fund raising staff in 1994 as a development officer in Kansas City. Spafford is responsible for all aspects of K-State's fund-raising efforts in Kansas City and annual giving in the extreme eastern side of Kansas, including raising money for the Ahearn Scholarship Fund and coordinating the annual athletics telefund. He also assists in the coordination and implementation of fund-raising objectives for the Kansas City, Lawrence and Southeast Kansas Powercat Catbacker clubs.

A native of New Orleans, La., Spafford spent the previous three years at UMKC, where he served as a sales representative coordinating all aspects of ticket sales for the Roos' basketball program. Spafford earned his bachelor of science degree from Kansas State in 1990. He served as assistant football coach at Manhattan High School from 1988-90 and was an assistant football, wrestling and track coach at Manhattan Middle School from 1985-88. The 34-year-old attended Belleville, Kan., High School and has four children.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR DEPARTMENTAL RELATIONS

VERYL SWITZER

(Kansas State '54)

Veryl Switzer retired from full-time duties within the K-State athletics department in February 1999, but continues as the assistant director for departmental relations. He will also be working at the soon to be opened Colbert Hills Golf Course in Manhattan.

Switzer, a backfield star of the 1951-52-53 KSU grid teams, was the chairperson for the Wildcats' Intercollegiate Athletic Council from August of 1979 until accepting the associate athletics director position. He served as the associate dean and assistant vice president for university minority affairs from 1973 to August, 1988.

Long-recognized as one of the state's top athletes, he was a charter member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame and is enshrined in the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame and the Kansas High School Activities Association Hall of Fame.

A native of tiny Nicodemus, Kan., and a 1954 graduate of K-State, Switzer was the fourth player taken in the 1954 NFL draft and played professional football for five years. He served two years as a first lieutenant in the Air Force and worked for the Chicago Board of Education for 10 years before coming to KSU in 1969.

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/ EVENT MANAGEMENT

JEFF STEELE

(Wofford '84)

Jeff Steele enters his first year at K-State as the assistant athletics director for game-day event management. His duties will include overseeing all game-day operations at K-State athletic events as well as administrator for baseball, men's golf and sports information.

Steele comes to Manhattan from the University of Nebraska where he spent seven years, including the last four as event management specialist. In that position, he oversaw operations for all athletic and non-athletic events at Nebraska athletic facilities.

Steele served as an administrative assistant to the associate athletic director from 1992 to 1995, assisting with compliance issues and assisting with tournament direction for two NCAA volleyball regionals.

Before going to Nebraska, Steele served as the athletic director and dean of men from 1988 to 1992 at Newberry College in South Carolina. From 1984 to 1988, Steele served as an assistant athletic director and sports information director at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg, where he was named the 1988 NAIA Athletic Administrator of the Year.

Steele earned his bachelor's degree in government and history at Wofford College in 1984. Steele earned two letters each in football and baseball at Wofford. He is pursuing a master's degree in educational administration at Nebraska.

He is the brother of Baylor University head football coach Kevin Steele, who was formerly an assistant at Nebraska and with the NFL Carolina Panthers.

BRAMLAGE COLISEUM DIRECTOR

CHARLIE THOMAS

(South Florida '81)

Charlie Thomas joined the Kansas State staff in 1987 as Director of Bramlage Coliseum. In his position, Thomas manages all the administrative and facility operations of Bramlage Coliseum, K-State's $17 million athletics arena.

Before coming to K-State, Thomas spent five years as the Associate Director of the SunDome for the University of South Florida in Tampa, Fla. A native of Tallahassee, Fla., Thomas received his bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communications from South Florida in 1981.

He holds professional memberships in the Association of Arena Managers and the Rotary Club. Thomas is married to Sue Peterson, K-State's Assistant to the President for Governmental Relations.

KSU Stadium/Wagner Field

Picturesque KSU Stadium will host its 31st season of Wildcat football this fall and has been the home of K-State's 50-5-1 home record since 1990. Set on the north end of campus, KSU Stadium and the Vanier Football Complex have undergone a multi-million dollar renovation that has made it one of the premier football facilities in the Midwest.

Originally built at a cost of $1.6 million and financed from student fees, athletics gate receipts and contributions, KSU Stadium opened its doors Sept. 21, 1968, with a 21-0 shutout of Colorado State. The original seating capacity was set at 35,000 and then an expansion in the summer of 1970 added 4,000 permanent bleachers on the east side and 3,000 temporary bleachers on the west side. The listed capacity of 42,000 has been exceeded 26 times, including an all-time high of 44,298 for K-State's 40-30 win over Nebraska in 1998.

Below is a rundown of the other facelifts that have been added during the 30-year history of KSU Stadium:

1970: A statewide fund-raising drive in the spring raised $250,000 for the installation of Astroturf, replacing the original natural grass.

1972: The office/dressing room complex at the north end of the stadium was added. It houses all the K-State football offices and has dressing facilities for the Wildcats and their opponents.

1980: New artificial turf was installed prior to the 1980 season.

1983: Permanent stadium lights were added allowing the Wildcats to play night games.

1987: An addition to the office/dressing room complex was made in the summer of 1987, which provided more dressing and training room facilities.

1989-1992: A $2 million renovation project was undertaken to revamp the entire football complex. The result is one of the most spectacular football complexes in the country, complete with plush locker rooms, a 6,500-square foot weight room, state of the art classrooms equipped with the latest video equipment, a training room, a players' lounge and the picturesque Big Eight Room. The structure now carries the title "Vanier Football Complex" in honor of the Vanier family of Brookville, Kan.

1991: New Astroturf was laid down prior to the 1991 season, and the field was named "Wagner Field" in honor of Dave and Carol Wagner of Dodge City, Kan.

1993: K-State put the finishing touches on its facility improvements with a $3.3 million five-level press box, including sky suites, and a $2.2 million full-length indoor facility.

1996: The $1 million Academic Learning Center becomes a part of the Vanier Complex, hosting study facilities for all K-State student-athletes. A $2.6 million project added a 20x26 foot JumboTron Screen, new scoreboards and marquis messageboard to the complex.

1998 Expansion: Following the 1998 season, KSU Stadium underwent a $12.8 million expansion project. An additional 8,000 permanent seats were added, including a club seating area and 31 additional sky suites. The project raised the total capacity of KSU Stadium to over 50,000.

Note: Prior to the opening of KSU Stadium, the Wildcats played in Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1924 and still stands on the main campus. Kansas State's first football home was on a site that is now Bluemont Elementary School (a few blocks east of campus). The first grandstand for that facility was hoisted in the early 1900s by 1890 KSU graduate and Manhattan lumberyard owner Emil Pfuetz.

Memorial Stadium / Attendance Records

As World War I came to a conclusion in 1918, the faculty of Kansas State Agricultural College thought it would be appropriate to build a memorial to the 45 KSAC students who had lost their lives in service to their country.

The next year, that concept was combined with the school's need for a new football facility, and the idea for Memorial Stadium was born. In May 1922, bids were let for construction, and work began on the west side. The east structure was added in 1924.

The original plans for the stadium were impressive, considering the era. The stadium was to seat 22,500, and form a horseshoe on the southwest corner of the campus around a field running north and south.

Each side of the stadium began and ended with a tower that rose 10 feet higher than the 40-foot walls. In between the two, plans called for a third section, complete with two 60-foot towers at the south end of the field and grand entrance for fans.

Work to enclose the back walls of the east and west structures pressed through the late 1920s, but all work came to a halt when the Depression hit in 1929. After the Depression, the cost of the stadium had risen from $350,000 to $500,000 and the final section to enclose the horseshoe never made it beyond the planning stage.

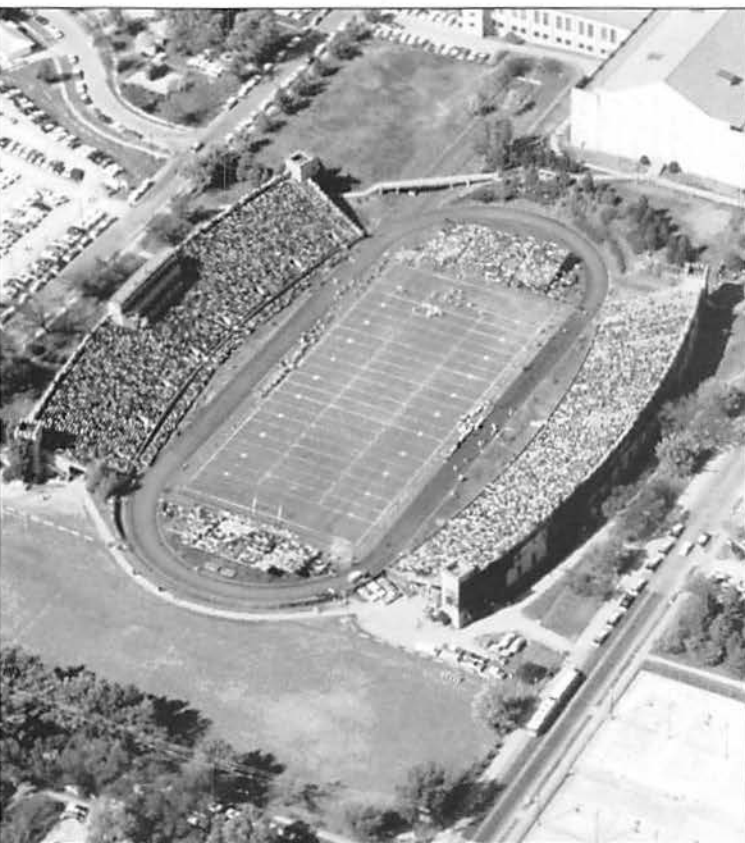

The stadium was intended to not only serve as a home for the KSAC's football program, but to also supplement the crowded facilities at Nichols Gymnasium.

Mike Ahearn, the former football coach who served as the school's Director of Athletics in the 1920s, wrote in the Feb. 1, 1923, edition of the Kansas State Agricultural College Bulletin about the need to build the new stadium to replace the field that carried his name.

"The Memorial Stadium will make it possible to care for the 1,600 young men and the 800 young women who are taking physical education and engaging in varsity and intramural athletics, and will also give seating capacity for the crowds coming to view our games," Ahearn wrote.

With only three sections of the west wing completed in 1922, the first game was played at Memorial Stadium, a 47-0 victory over Washburn University. Forty-six seasons later, K-State played its final game at Memorial Stadium — a 40-6 loss to Colorado.

Beginning with the 1968 season, the team moved to KSU Stadium, and since then, the space and offices beneath the two sides of Memorial Stadium have been used for a variety of academic and administrative purposes.

K-State Traditions

Nickname

Through its first 19 seasons of athletic competition, Kansas State had used "Aggies" as its nickname. But prior to the 1915 season, new coach John "Chief" Bender gave his squad the nickname "Wildcats." The moniker lasted the one season Bender coached at K-State. Under Coach Z.G. Clevenger in 1917, the school team became known as the "Farmers." In 1920 another new coach, Charles Bachman, took over the program, renaming the team "Wildcats." This time, the nickname stuck.

Touchdown I-XI

In 1922, Hall-of-Famer Charles Bachman asked alumni to consider donating an actual Wildcat to the school to serve as a mascot. KSAC alumni Herbert R. Groome and John E. McCoy, both veterinarians in Twin Falls, Idaho, donated "Touchdown I" to the school shortly after the animal was nursed back to health under their care. (The bobcat had an encounter with a porcupine, and his face and throat were punctured by numerous quills. Unfortunately, Touchdown I never fully recovered from its fight, dying of pneumonia shortly after arriving in Manhattan.)

Although the bobcats have served as K-State's wildcat mascot since 1922, the animals no longer attend K-State games. Touchdown XI, the 11th in the line, currently resides at Manhattan's Sunset Zoo.

Willie The Wildcat

Willie, a student bedecked in a oversized Wildcat head, is Kansas State's No. 1 fan. Willie Wildcats are selected yearly by a panel appointed by the cheerleader coach. The mascot is a central part of athletic contests, but also attends functions around the state as an ambassador. Traditionally, the identity of the student portraying Willie is kept secret.

School Songs

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of an 1888 campus contest. H.W. Jones (88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from KSAC to KSU. The school's fight song is entitled "Wildcat Victory."

Alma Mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.

"KSU, we'll carry the banner high, KSU long, long may thy colors fly. Loyal you to thee they children shall swell the cry.

"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

Wildcat Victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.

"Glory into combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

School Colors

The school color Royal Purple (PMS 266) was adopted in the fall of 1896 by a committee of Miss Minnie L. Copeland, Miss Winnifred Houghton and Miss Ina E. Holyrod of the senior class, and perhaps one or two others. Although K-State's only official color is purple, white has been used as a complimentary color for many years. Silver is also a common second or third color.

Powercat Logo

One of the most recognizable athletic logos in the nation is the K-State Powercat. The logo was introduced by Bill Snyder shortly after his arrival in Manhattan as the attitude of the entire athletic department and University was changing.

Manhattan native Tom Bookwalter in cooperation with head coach Bill Snyder, created the powerful logo that is a prominent feature on the K-State football helmet, at Wagner Field, on the back of the Dev Nelson Pressbox, clothing, flags, bottled water, vanity plates for cars and just about anywhere there can be one.

Previous logos used by the athletics department included a line drawing of a wildcat head and the cartoonish "Willie the Wildcat" that is used only by the Alumni Association.

First Game

History has forgotten the actual score of the first football game played at the school now called Kansas State University.

On Dec. 2, 1892, a team from Kansas State Agricultural College played its first game. At "quarter back" was a sophomore from Colfax, Ill., named A.D. Benson. Benson had introduced his schoolmates to football when he arrived at KSAC in 1891.

The sport, however, was quickly banned by the college. Five years later, the school's newspaper, the K-State Industrialist, remarked, "It is hoped that our students have the good sense to play even football without violence, but the game as sometimes played is next to barbarism."

In 1896, KSAC played the first game now recorded in K-State's list of all-time scores. A team coached by Ira Pratt traveled to Fort Riley on Thanksgiving Day and lost to a squad comprised of soldiers, 14-0. Later that fall, KSAC played Fort Riley again, and this time the game ended in a 6-6 tie. It was during the 1896 season that KSAC adopted the mascot "Aggies," and selected Royal Purple as the school's official color.

K-State Traditions

First Night Game

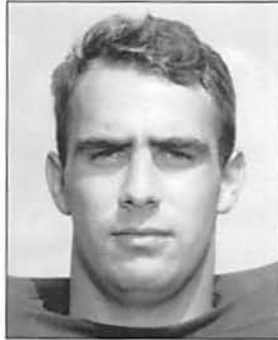

On Oct. 7, 1932, the Kansas State Wildcats played the first night football game in school history. The team traveled to Salina, Kan., to play Kansas Wesleyan that Friday evening and won the contest, 52-6, before a crowd of about 4,000. All-time great Ralph Graham, known as The Rammer, set a K-State single-game record that still stands by scoring 27 points on four touchdowns and three extra points.

Fifteen years later, on Sept. 20, 1947, K-State played its first night game in Manhattan, losing 12-0 to Oklahoma State at Memorial Stadium.

Ken Ochs Courage Award

Ken Ochs was a 6-foot, 208-pound long shot to make the K-State football team in 1966. The La Crosse, Kan., native made the K-State team but suffered a leg injury during that spring's drills. After his leg didn't respond to treatment, it was discovered that Ochs had a malignant bone tumor. His leg was amputated six inches above the knee.

Ochs returned to K-State and earned his degree in the spring of 1969. By then, he was a manager for the football team, and the program had named an honor for personal courage in his name. Ken Ochs died of cancer Oct. 3, 1969.

Ken Ochs

The Color Barrier

In 1948, Harold Robinson graduated from Manhattan High School and prepared to become Kansas State's first black student-athlete. After sitting out the 1948 season as all freshmen were required, K-State head coach Ralph Graham in 1949 made Robinson the first African-American to receive an athletic scholarship in the Big Seven Conference.

Robinson was named an All-Conference center in 1950, his junior season, despite playing for a 1-9-1 K-State team. Robinson gained the considerable respect of opponents and fans despite the smoldering racism that was so pervasive during his playing days. He wasn't allowed to stay at the same hotel as his teammates on many road trips, instead staying in private residences. Hoyt Givens did not play in 1949, but joined Robinson on the varsity in 1950 as a non-scholarship player.

Following Robinson as a barrier breaker in Big Seven baseball in 1952 was Earl Woods, the father of golf superstar Tiger Woods. Other K-State's instrumental in breaking down the color barrier were Gene Wilson in basketball in 1952, Veryl Switzer, Wilson, Norman Mills, Clifford Bizak and Herman Wilson in track in 1953 and Don Harris in tennis in 1952. Switzer earned All-America honors in football for the Wildcats and went on to be the fourth player selected in the NFL draft by the Green Bay Packers in 1954.

K-State's Harold Robinson was the first African-American student-athlete to receive an athletic scholarship in the former Big Seven Conference.

K-State Golden Cats

One of the truly unique aspects of Kansas State football under Bill Snyder is the Golden Cat Program - an organization made up of former K-State football players, managers, trainers, coaches and support staff.

The primary purpose is to bring together all of the past members of the football program, to provide opportunities for them to reunite and spend time with teammates of the past, support the student-athletes who presently represent their program and help unite Kansas State University in a way never accomplished before. The organization brings additional funds into the football program and enables former athletes to enjoy the rewards, success and activities of supporting their school.

The Golden Cat program was developed in 1990 with each Golden Cat making a financial contribution to help build new oak lockers for each current player in the program. The Golden Cat Club is the strongest team sport support group at Kansas State. The club has provided strong financial assistance through the purchase of such things as weight equipment, rehab equipment and computers for the Academic Learning Center. The former players feel a strong sense of pride to be involved with Kansas State football.

For the Golden Cats, it's a great opportunity to give back to the program, plus they can witness first-hand how their contributions have enhanced the opportunities of current and future football student-athletes.

In turn, the Golden Cats truly remain a part of the program, while receiving various privileges such as the brass name plates, pregame tailgate parties, Golden Cat clothing, video tapes, game program recognition and other memorabilia.

The Golden Cat program is under the direction of Erick Harper, a four-year starter at strong safety for the Wildcats from 1986-89. Harper is now the assistant athletics director for compliance at K-State. For more information, or to become involved in the Golden Cat program, contact Erick Harper at 785-532-6910.

K-State Traditions

Governor's Trophy

The Governor's Trophy Game between Kansas State University and the University of Kansas was initiated in 1969 by Gov. Robert Docking. The original traveling trophy was retired following the 1996 K-State victory. A new trophy was introduced following the 48-16 win at Manhattan in 1997. The trophy is presented to the winning team and coaches in the winner's dressing room immediately following each year's game.

The Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award

K-State's Martin Gramatica was as close to perfection as a place-kicker could be in 1997 by making 19 of 20 field goal attempts. For his efforts, Gramatica became the first major national football award winner in Kansas State history by earning the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award. "Automatic" Gramatica earned consensus first-team All-America honors and became K-State's leading career scorer. He set a K-State single season record with his 19 fields goals, and another by making 13-consecutive field goals.

Gramatica was awarded the Groza Award in ceremonies at West Palm Beach, Fla., on Dec. 9, 1997. The Lou Groza Award is sponsored by the Palm Beach County Sports Commission and was presented by the Orange Bowl Committee. Following the ceremony in West Palm Beach, Gramatica traveled to Orlando and appeared on the ESPN College Football Awards Show.

First Downs

It was 1993 and the first year of the new $3.3 million press box. K-State announcer Ivan Wilkinson started what would become a K-State tradition. After a Wildcat first down, Wilkinson would say, "Good for a Wildcat first down." Throughout the 1993 season, Wilkinson did this ritual alone. However, he said at the beginning of the 1994 season the crowd started to join in on the catchy phrase. They began to shout it with him. Now, with the addition of the first down and touchdown arm motions, Wilkinson said he no longer needs to finish the phrase. Wildcat fans finish it for him.

What a Bash

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of Wildcat athletics. In the fall of 1969 the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming football game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to K-State became a second fight song.

Kansas State fans have developed a reputation of following the Wildcats around the country. At the 1998 Cotton Bowl more than 45,000 K-State fans made the trip to Dallas, Texas.

Running For Leukemia

The K-State/KU rivalry is more than just a game. For almost 25 years, the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity houses from both universities have been in charge of getting the game ball to the game on time. However, the ball starts in Manhattan when the game is in Lawrence and Lawrence when the game is in Manhattan. The two houses do a relay-type run down Highway 24. Not only has this been going on for the rivalry's sake, it is also for a good cause. This "Run for Leukemia" is sponsored by the Fijis and has been going on since 1974 when Phi Gamma Delta Rod Morgan died of Leukemia. The money raised goes to the Wichita-based Leukemia Foundation. Head coach Bill Snyder is a Fiji alumnus.

K-State Mission Statement / NCAA Rules and Regulations

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Kansas State University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to provide, within the context of available resources, an environment that allows young men and women to compete at the highest levels of athletics and academic excellence as established by the Big XII Conference and the NCAA.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS STATEMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

All of the Department's endeavors should be consistent with the total mission of Kansas State University. The KSU athletics program should be conducted in a manner that exercises fair and equitable treatment of student-athletes and institutional personnel regardless of gender or race. All Department activities should be conducted within the rules, regulations, and policies as established by the University, the Big XII Conference and the NCAA. The Department's decision-making process should consider first the welfare of current and future student-athletes.

The KSU Athletics Department should consider the commitment to academics to be the number one priority. The Department will provide a learning experience that should include attention to social, moral, emotional, cultural, and vocational growth and development. The Department will strive to emphasize the value of sportsmanship, loyalty, teamwork, and individual accountability.

The emotional and physical welfare of every student-athlete will be an unchallenged consideration by the Department staff and coaches.

The KSU Athletics Department will provide an environment that allows the physically talented and gifted to express themselves at their maximum potential.

What Every Alumnus and Booster of Kansas State University Should Know

As a supporter of K-State, you have a lot of pride in your school. You are proud of KSU's high academic standards, our adherence to values and the overall quality of the K-State experience.

Kansas State has a long tradition of integrity but to help assure compliance with NCAA and conference rules, please take a few minutes to read this information. The eligibility of Kansas State's student-athletes and reputation of the department and university depend greatly upon your cooperation.

Key Point

A "representative" of Kansas State's athletic interests is: an individual who is known (or who should have been known) by a member of K-State's executive or athletics administration to:

- have participated in or to be a member of an agency or organization promoting KSU athletics.
- have made financial contributions to the athletic department or to an athletic booster organization of K-State.
- have been involved otherwise in promoting the institution's athletic program.
- bought or received tickets to a K-State athletics event.

Once an individual is identified as an "athletic representative," the person retains that identity forever.

Key Rule: NCAA BYLAW 13.01.5

In Division I, representatives of athletics interest are prohibited from making in-person, on-or-off campus recruiting contacts, written, telephonic communications or e-mail transactions with a prospect or the prospect's relatives or legal guardians.

Interpretations

1. A representative of a Division I institution is prohibited from making in-person recruiting contact with a prospect and his or her parents/guardian on or off campus.

Limited Exception: You may have contact with a prospect regarding permissible pre-enrollment activities such as summer employment, provided the prospect has already signed a National Letter of Intent and K-State is aware that you are making these contacts in regard to employment.

2. A Division I representative is prohibited from writing or telephoning a prospect and his or her parents or legal guardians.

Limited Exception: You may have a phone conversation with a prospect only if the prospect initiates the call. Such a call may not be prearranged by a K-State staff member and you are not permitted to have a recruiting conversation, but may exhibit normal civility. You must refer any questions about the University's athletic program to the athletic department.

3. A representative is prohibited from contacting a prospect's coach, principal, or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.

Limited Exception: NCAA rules do not preclude you from viewing a prospect's contest on your own initiative, but you may not contact the prospect, pick up game films or transcripts.

What can I do?

If you know of a high school or junior college student-athlete who might want to attend Kansas State, the only permissible activity for a representative is to call the appropriate K-State coach.

What is an "Extra Benefit?"

An extra benefit would include provision of any transportation, meals, clothes, entertainment, preferential loan terms, wages not commensurate with duties, or other benefits offered to a prospect or current student-athlete which is unavailable to the general student population.

What can you do with prospects?

DO feel free to attend high school and junior college athletic events. You simply cannot have any contact with the prospective student-athletes or relatives. Should you find yourself seated next to parents of a prospect, DO NOT initiate conversation with the relatives. If conversation is initiated with you, respond in a civil manner, but DO NOT discuss K-State's athletic program with them. If they raise questions about athletics, remind them that the NCAA prohibits you from discussing athletics with them. Direct their questions to the athletic department. You MAY discuss the University in general, and its academic programs.

DO continue established family relationships with friends and neighbors. Contacts with sons and daughters of those families are permitted as long as they are not made for recruiting purposes and are not prompted by Wildcat coaching staff members. You ARE permitted to play "pick up" games, continue neighborhood picnics or backyard barbecues and engage in your normal activities with prospects and their parents who are family friends.

DO feel free to attend a public event (i.e. awards dinner) at which prospects are in attendance. NO attempt should be made to contact or recruit the prospect at these events.

What can I do for current K-State athletes?

DO feel free to invite a student-athlete to your home for an occasional meal, but you must first contact the coach in the sport in which the student-athlete is a participant. Remember, the student-athlete must provide his or her own transportation. You may do this a maximum of one time per school term per athlete.

DO feel free to invite a team for dinner or to meet with a group of alumni in a city where they are competing. The NCAA permits student-athletes AS A TEAM to receive special benefits not permitted as individuals. Arrangements for such events must be made in advance with the head coach or appropriate athletic staff member.

How can I assist with summer employment?

DO pay student-athletes employed by you for work actually performed and at a rate commensurate with the going rate for similar services in the community and your business.

DO notify the head coaches or the athletic department of job possibilities for student-athletes.

Other questions and answers:

Q. May I accompany the coach during a "home" visit with the prospect?

A. No

Q. May I drive a prospect to a secondary school's reception in my local area?

A. No, unless such arrangements are made for all students in attendance.

Q. May a booster group finance a season-ending banquet? May it purchase any awards for the team?

A. Yes, provided all funds are expended through the athletic department. Since the NCAA has established a value limit on awards received by student-athletes, it is important to have all awards approved by the athletic department.

Additional reminders

- Please contact the athletic department for NCAA rules interpretations.
- Remember that in most cases: CONTACT IS PROHIBITED.
- If you think it is wrong then it probably is wrong.
- No question is too dumb to ask.
